Handbook to Life in Ancient Mesopotamia Stephen Bertman, 2005-07-14 Modern day archaeological discoveries in the Near East continue to illuminate man's understanding of the ancient world This illustrated handbook describes the culture history and people of Mesopotamia as well as their struggle for survival and happiness

The Baker Illustrated Guide to Everyday Life in Bible Times John A. Beck, 2013-09-15 The authors of the Bible routinely employed mention of manners and customs from the ancient world in their inspired writing fully intending that the Lord would change readers with these images But modern readers often miss the full literal and figurative meaning of biblical imagery due to the distance in time and experience between the world of today and the world of the Bible This fully illustrated guide aims to restore clarity and vitality to these portions of God's Word in order to help readers grasp the full meaning of Scripture For example the entry on anointing defines the nature of this act and the connotations associated with it before illustrating how the biblical authors use the act of anointing in their communication with us communication that reaches its full maturity in Jesus the Anointed One Understanding manners and customs like anointing enriches our experience of reading the Bible and even helps us correctly interpret it This colorful guide clearly and succinctly introduces modern readers to daily life in Bible times The cultural practices of the past are fascinating on their own but even more so as they help us grasp the full meaning of Scripture Concerning the Nations Andrew Mein,Else K. Holt,Hyun Chul Paul Kim,2015-02-26 Isaiah Jeremiah and Ezekiel share much in common They address the pivotal times and topics associated with the last stages of the monarchical history of Israel and with the development of new forms of communal and religious life through exile and beyond One important structural component of all three books is a substantial section which concerns itself with a range of foreign nations commonly called the Oracles against the Nations which form the focus of this book These chapters together present the most up to date scholarship on the oracles an oft neglected but significant area in the study of the prophetic literature The particular characteristics of Isaiah Jeremiah both Masoretic Text and Septuagint versions and Ezekiel are discussed showcasing the unique issues pertinent to each book and the diverse methods used to address them These evident differences aside the Oracles Against the Nations are employed as a springboard in order to begin the work of tracing similarities between the texts By focusing on these unique yet common sections a range of interrelated themes and issues of both content and method become noticeable for example though not exhaustively pattern structure language comparative history archaeology sociology politics literature imagery theme theology and hermeneutical issues related to today s context As a result this collection presents a range of cutting edge approaches on these key prophetic books and will provide a basis for further comparative study and reflection Near Eastern Seals Dominique Collon,1990

An Eye for Form Jo Ann Hackett,Walter E. Aufrecht,2014-06-06 At the first meeting of his class in Northwest Semitic Epigraphy at Harvard Frank Cross would inform students that one of the things each of them needed was an eye for form By this he meant the ability to recognize typological or evolutionary change in letters and scripts Frank like his teacher William Foxwell Albright was a master of typological method In fact typology was the dominant feature of his epigraphic work from the origins of the alphabet to the development of the scripts of the Dead Sea Scrolls Indeed he has written about the importance of typology itself Because Frank Cross has so dominated the study of the ancient Near East in the last 60 years Aufrecht once asked him what he considered his primary field of study to be Without hesitation he said Epigraphy It seems therefore that the field that he loved and to which he contributed so much is an appropriate subject for this Festschrift in his honor which is being presented by his colleagues friends and former students Included are an appreciation by Peter Machinist and a contribution by the late Pierre Bordreuil

Languages and Cultures in Contact Karel van Lerberghe,Gabriela Voet,1999 This volume contains 33 papers presented at the 42th Rencontre Assyriologique Internationale held at the University of Leuven in July 1995 The main purpose of the conference on Languages and Cultures in Contact was to focus on contacts and exchanges between the various cultures in the Syro Mesopotamian realm by re evaluating the geographical limits of Mesopotamian civilization to include the Upper and Middle Euphrates regions of Syria These proceedings cover areas of research in the fields of philology archaeology and history alike They bring together essays on a great number of topics including comparative linguistics the spread of literacy and administrative practices cultural exchanges diffusion and acculturation Finally the book contains reports on current excavations and surveys in the Ancient Near East
