Point Of Theory Practices Of Cultural Analysis:

The Point of Theory Mieke Bal, Inge E. Boer, 1994 What is the point of bringing reflexive discourse called theory to bear on such diverse subjects as the Statue of Liberty the dTcor of Freud s study a fifteenth century triptych and contemporary science on Kant and postmodern literature Indian traditions and the voice of a soprano The Point of Theory works to reintegrate theory and theorizing into a culture disturbed by anti theorism and political in correctness In this book twenty two cultural theorists seek to make the workings of culture understandable

The Practice of Cultural Analysis Mieke Bal, Bryan Gonzales, 1999 Cultural analysis is devoted to understanding the past as part of the present as what we have around us The essays gathered here represent the current state of an emerging field of enquiry

Mary Kelly's Concentric Pedagogy Mary Kelly, 2024-01-25 Selected and introduced by Juli Carson this book presents a collection of essential essays interviews and never before published archival materials that trace the development of the teaching of major artist and thinker Mary Kelly from 1980 2017 As an artist and a theorist Kelly is known for her foundational contributions to Feminism and Conceptual Art she is also revered for her innovative pedagogy which has influenced countless artists writers and teachers within the international art community Her description of a feminist practice of concentric pedagogy centred on the artwork rather the mastery of the teacher radically changed teaching practice in art studios Detailing Kelly s innovative pedagogical program the essays are split into three sections The Method which focuses on Kelly s renowned method of ethical observation within studio critique The Project which explores her notion of what constitutes an artistic project and Project and Method in the Field which presents for the first time a transcription of On the Passage of a Few People though a Rather Brief Period of Time a performative colloquy commissioned by the Tate Modern and moderated by Kelly in 2015 following this transcription is a portfolio of practicing artists previously enrolled in Kelly s Interdisciplinary Studio Area at UCLA Mary Kelly s Concentric Pedagogy highlights how contemporary studio teaching practice has been largely informed by Kelly s bold and innovative approach to art pedagogy evidencing how the intersection of teaching artistic practice and radical political engagement can transform our approach to all three It is essential reading for students and teachers of art and design studio practice art history and theory contemporary and feminist art

Conceptual Odysseys Griselda Pollock, 2007-10-24 The theoretical turn within the arts and humanities in the 1970s and 1980s has for many had its day with work produced under its rubric all too often feeling tired or even downright lazy In its place whilst hazarding against an outright rejection of theory this book introduced by Mieke Bal presents work by a new generation of scholars responding directly to Bal s idea of the travelling concept By taking a concept from one discipline and with a genuine understanding of its origin thoughtfully applying this in a new context exciting new possibilities are opened up for analysis of artworks and other cultural objects Here we find these travelling concepts employed in fresh explorations of subjects as diverse as the paintings of Poussin and of Adam Elsheimer Chantal Akerman s film the Museum of the French Revolution and the work of

German Jewish painter Charlotte Salomon This is a uniquely illuminating contribution to the edgy territorial conflicts between visual culture art history and cultural studies Visual Politics of Psychoanalysis Griselda Pollock, 2013-10-08 In this innovative collection a distinguished group of international authors dare to think psychoanalytically about the legacies of political violence and suffering in relation to post traumatic cultures worldwide They build on maverick art historian Aby Warburg's project of combining social cultural anthropological and psychological analyses of the image in order to track the undercurrents of cultural violence in the representational repertoire of Western modernity Drawing on post colonial and feminist theory they analyze the image and the aesthetic in conditions of historical trauma from enslavement and colonization to the Irish Famine from Denmark's national trauma about migrants and cartoons to collective shock after 9 11 from individual traumas of loss registered in allegory to newsreels and documentaries on suicide bombing in Israel Palestine and from Kristeva's novels to Kathryn Bigelow's cinema Eva Hesse Vanessa Corby, 2010-06-22 Here is an important new examination of the work of American German Jewish artist Eva Hesse one of the most significant figures in twentieth century art Using exciting new feminist approaches and taking as her starting point two key works Corby reveals the way in which Hesse has been constructed as a woman artist and explores the overlooked legacy of the Holocaust and refugee life in her art practice Considering creativity and the feminine trauma and historiography and providing a reassessment of Hesse's relationship with her mother and its impact on her work the book also confirms the importance of drawing practice within Hesse's wider oeuvre Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play Lynn M. Somers, 2024-12-26 This book considers the sculpture of Louise Bourgeois 1911-2010 in light of psychoanalyst D W Winnicott's 1896-1971 radical ideas regarding transitional objects potential space and play offering a model for exploring the complex and psychologically evocative work Bourgeois produced from 1947 to 2000 Critical concepts from British object relational theories destruction reparation integration relationality and play drawn from the writings of Winnicott Melanie Klein Marion Milner and Christopher Bollas among others bear upon the decades long study of psychoanalysis Bourgeois brought to her sculptural production that was symbolic metaphorical and most importantly useful The book demonstrates how Bourgeois's transformative sculptural objects and environments are invested in object relations both psychical and tangible and explores Bourgeois's contention that the observer physically engage with the intricate sculptural objects and architectural spaces she produced Each chapter focuses on a key body of work Femme Maison Personages Lairs Janus and Cells examining how these imaginative and playful objects are staged as embodied encounters in space and time to invoke the mutuality reciprocity and ambivalence of our object relationships Weaving a tapestry of aesthetic cultural and psychological encounters Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play addresses critical relationships among Bourgeois's work and that of other artists from Pieter Brueghel to Eva Hesse It brings together practical archival and theoretical material offering close examinations of historically situated objects and analyses of their complex affects and spatiality Gathering critical perspectives from psychoanalysis cultural analysis feminist queer literary and affect studies the book extends its specific art historical scope to investigate the crucial roles that art and cultural experience assume in everyday life Crossmappings Elisabeth Bronfen, 2018-05-22 The great influential cultural critic Elisabeth Bronfen sets out in this book a conversation between literature cinema and visual culture The crossmappings facilitated in and between these essays address the cultural survival of image formulas involving portraiture and the uncanny relation between the body and its visual representability the gendering of war death and the fragility of life as well as sovereignty and political power Each chapter tracks transformations that occur as aesthetic figurations travel from one historical moment to another but also from one medium to another Many prominent artists are discussed during these journeys into the cultural imaginary include Degas Francesca Woodman Cindy Sherman Paul McCarthy Eva Hesse Louise Bourgeois Wagner Picasso and Shakespeare as well as classic Hollywood's film noir and melodrama and the TV series The Wire and House of Cards Picturing Peace Tom Allberson, Pippa Oldfield, Jolyon Mitchell, 2024-12-26 How can photographers curators and editors convey narratives of peace and not just stories of war Providing interdisciplinary and international perspectives on timely debates Picturing Peace explores humanitarianism and visual culture community collaboration collective memory and imagined futures for creating and sustaining of civil societies How things look and are perceived are not superficial issues when it comes to war and conflict photography is vitally relevant not only to documenting violence but also to rebuilding peaceful societies The volume examines the intersecting issues of visual culture and peacebuilding including the genealogies of photography and conflict decolonisation and the gaze the significance of archival material as well as recent peacebuilding initiatives Exploring multiple forms of peace photography the volume offers a range of voices from preeminent international scholars as well as interviews with practicing photographers who have experience of working with post conflict communities As such the book provides a timely investigation into the politics of representation questioning how photographers might help foster social relationships transform conflicts and reconcile communities in the image oriented cultures Post-Traumatic Art in the City Isabelle de le Court, 2020-11-26 Post Traumatic Art in the City comprises an original analysis of the nexus of war art and urban society in two specific contexts late 20th century Beirut and Sarajevo With an emphasis on conceptions of the post traumatic De le Court explores how cities and art are mutually formative in war and post war contexts providing unique insight into the politically and psychologically driven art scenes from within the works of art themselves Grounded in close analyses and new research the book makes an important contribution to the fields of art history and trauma studies Feminist Practices Lori A. Brown, 2016-04-15 Women continue to be extremely under represented in the architectural profession Despite equal numbers of male and female students entering architectural studies there is at least 17 25% attrition of female students and not all remaining become practicing architects In both the academic and the professional fields of architecture positions of power and authority are almost entirely male and as such the profession is defined by a heterosexual Eurasian male perspective This book argues that it is vital for all architectural students and practitioners to be exposed to a diversity of contemporary architectural practices as this might provide a first step into broadening awareness and transforming architectural engagement It considers the relationships between feminist methodologies and the various approaches toward design and their impact upon our understanding and relationship to the built environment In doing so this collection challenges two conventional ideas firstly the definition of architecture and secondly what constitutes a feminist practice This collection of up and coming female architects and designers use a wide range of local and global examples of their work to question different aspects of these two conventional ideas While focusing on feminist perspectives the book offers insights into many different issues concerns and interpretations of architecture proposing through these types of engagement architecture can become more culturally politically and environmentally relevant This next generation of architects claim feminism as their own and through doing so help define what feminism means and how it is evolving in the 21st century

Differencing the Canon Griselda Pollock, 2013-04-15 In this major book Griselda Pollock engages boldly in the culture wars over what is the canon and what difference can feminism make Do we simply reject the all male line up and satisfy our need for ideal egos with an all women litany of artistic heroines Or is the question a chance to resist the phallogocentric binary and allow the ambiguities and complexities of desire subjectivity and sexuality to shape the readings of art that constantly displace the present gender demarcations The Blackwell Companion to Postmodern Theology Graham Ward, 2008-04-15 This Companion provides a definitive collection of essays on postmodern theology drawing on the work of those individuals who have made a distinctive contribution to the field and whose work will be significant for the theologies written in the new millennium The definitive collection of essays on postmodern theology drawing on the work of those individuals who have made a distinctive contribution to the field Each essay is introduced with a short account of the writer's previous work enabling the reader to view it in context Discusses the following disciplines Aesthetics Ethics Gender Hermeneutics Phenomenology Heideggerians and Derrideans Edited by Graham Ward one of the most outstanding and original theologians working in the field today Practical Aesthetics Bernd Herzogenrath, 2020-10-15 This collection brings together artists and theoreticians to provide the first anthology of a new field Practical Aesthetics A work of art already contains its own criticism a knowledge of its own which need not be conceptual or propositional Yet today there are many approaches to different forms of art that work on the brink between science and art sensible cognition and proposition aesthetic knowledge and rational knowledge while thinking with art or the artistic material rather than about it This volume presents ways of thinking with different forms of art film sound dance literature etc as well as new forms of aesthetic research and presentation such as Media Philosophy the audiovisual essay fictocriticism the audio paper and Artistic Research It reveals how writing about art can become artistic or poetic in its own right not only writing about artistic effects but producing them in the first place This takes art not as an object of external analysis but as a subject with a knowledge in its own right creating a co composing conceptual interference pattern between theory and practice A practical aesthetics thus understood can be described as thinking with art in order to find new ways to create worlds and thus to make the world perceivable in different ways

Visuality in the Theatre M. Bleeker,2008-04-17 This book presents an exploration of the under explored terrain of visuality demonstrating the use of new theoretical insights into vision for the analysis of theatre and performance and simultaneously shows theatre and performance to be an excellent theoretical object for exploring the cultural historical and embodied character of visuality
