Poking Pinching Pretending:

Poking, Pinching, and Pretending Dee Smith, Jeanne Goldhaber, 2004 Promoting early discovery through very young children's interactions with clay     The Hundred Languages of Children Carolyn Edwards, Lella Gandini, George Forman, 2011-12-13 Why does the city of Reggio Emilia in northern Italy feature one of the best public systems of early education in the world This book documents the comprehensive and innovative approach that utilizes the hundred languages of children to support their well being and foster their intellectual development Educators in Reggio Emilia Italy use a distinctive innovative approach that supports children's well being and fosters their intellectual development through a systematic focus on symbolic representation From birth through age six young children are encouraged to explore their environment and express their understanding through many modes of expression or languages including verbal communication movement drawing painting sculpture shadow play collage and music This organic strategy has been shown to be highly effective as the children in Reggio Emilia display surprising examples of symbolic skill and creativity This book describes how the world renowned preschool services and accompanying practical strategies for children under six in Reggio Emilia have evolved in response to the community's demographic and political transformations and to generational changes in both the educators and the parents of the children The authors provide the reader with a comprehensive introduction to the Reggio Emilia experience and address three of the most important central themes of the work in Reggio in detail teaching and learning through relationships the hundred languages of children and how this concept has evolved and integrating documentation into the process of observing reflecting and communicating     Early Childhood Education Moncrieff Cochran, Rebecca S. New, 2007-01-30 Early childhood education has reached a level of unprecedented national and international focus Parents policy makers and politicians have opinions as well as new questions about what how when and where young children should learn Teachers and program administrators now find curriculum discussions linked to dramatic new understandings about children's early learning and brain development Early childhood education is also a major topic of concern internationally as social policy analysts point to its role in a nation's future economic outlook As a groundbreaking contribution to its field this four volume handbook discusses key historical and contemporary issues research theoretical perspectives national policies and practices     Seeing Young Children with New Eyes Sydney Gurewitz Clemens, Leslie Gleim, 2014-09-15 This book gives adults who work with young children a substantial look at some thoughtful creative reflective modes of thinking about their work It has rich resources for the teacher who wants to grow in respect for children's capabilities and lessons for growing one's ability to listen to the intentions of children It is rich in examples of real teaching in real American classrooms influenced by work in Reggio Emilia Italy For teachers and also for parents of children from 2-6 Written by and for teachers of young children this exhaustive examination of early education is rigorous and thorough
    Reframing the Emotional Worlds of the Early Childhood Classroom Samara Madrid, David Fernie, Rebecca

Kantor,2014-10-30 This volume examines the emotional world of the early childhood classroom as it affects young children whose emotional wellbeing is crucial to successful learning educators for whom teaching is never a solely cognitive act parents and administrators In a culture where issues such as bullying and teacher burnout comprise major challenges to student success this book brings together diverse voices researchers practitioners children and parents and multiple perspectives theoretical and personal to refocus attention on the pivotal role of emotion in schools To do so editors Samara Madrid David Fernie and Rebecca Kantor envision emotion as a dynamic fluid and negotiated construct performed and produced in the daily lives of children and adults alike A nuanced yet cohesive analysis Reframing the Emotional Worlds of the Early Childhood Classroom thus presents a challenge to the overriding concern with quantifiable classroom achievement that increasingly threatens to push the emotional lives of classroom participants to the margins of educational and public discourse
