Polish Women In The 90s:

Polish Women in the 90's Urszula Nowakowska, 2000 Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes

Poland's New Capitalism Jane Hardy, 2009-07-20 This book explores the way that neoliberal policies have formed the basis of political transformation in Poland championed by both post communist and post Solidarity governments Poland was central to the historic changes that took place across Eastern Europe at the end of the Cold War It is the largest economy in the region and was at the forefront of opposition to communism Since then neoliberal policies have controlled the country This book assesses the impact of these policies the role of capital in the form of transnational corporations and foreign direct investment The revival of trade unions and growth of new social movements are also explored as they challenge Poland's new capitalism

Women in Polish Cinema Ewa Mazierska, Elzbieta Ostrowska, 2006-03-01 Polish film has long enjoyed an outstanding reputation but its best known protagonists tend to be male This book points to the important role of women as key characters in Polish films such as the enduring female figure in Polish culture the Polish Mother female characters in socialist realistic cinema women depicted in the films of the Polish School Solidarity heroines and women in the films from the postcommunist period Not less important for the success of Polish cinema are Polish women filmmakers four of whom are presented in this volume Wanda Jakubowska Agnieszka Holland Barbara Sass and Dorota K dzierzawska whose work is examined

Women's Rights in Democratizing States Denise M. Walsh, 2010-11-15 This study offers an explanation for why advances in women's rights rarely occur in democratizing states Drawing on deliberative theory Denise Walsh argues that the leading institutions in the public sphere are highly gendered meaning women's ability to shape the content of public debate and put pressure on the state to advance their rights is limited She tests this claim by measuring the openness and inclusiveness of debate conditions in the public sphere during select time periods in Poland Chile and South Africa Through a series of structured focused comparisons the book confirms the importance of just debate for securing gender justice The comparisons also reveal that counter publics in the leading institutions in the public sphere are crucial for expanding debate conditions The book concludes with an analysis of counter publics and suggests an active role for the state in the public sphere

Contemporary Women's Movements in Hungary Katalin Fábián, 2009-10-14 As the first and only book in any language on contemporary women's movements in Hungary this groundbreaking study focuses on the role of women's activism in a society where women are not yet adequately represented by established parties and political institutions Drawing on eyewitness accounts of meetings and protests as well as first person interviews with leading female activists Katalin Fábián examines the interactions between women's groups in Hungary and studies the unique brand of democracy they have forged in postcommunist Eastern Europe Through her analysis she demonstrates how democratization and globalization with their attendant range of challenges and opportunities have led women to redefine public private divides

The Polish Media System 1989-2011 Katarzyna Pokorna-Ignatowicz, 2012 Women 2000 International Helsinki Federation for Human Rights, 2000 Workers, Women, and Social Change in Poland, 1870-1939 Anna

Zarnowska, 2023-07-14 The studies collected here deal with social and cultural changes in Polish lands during the early phases of industrialisation i.e. the late 19th and early 20th centuries Attention is first given to the stabilisation of urban agglomerations and workers communities and the accompanying transformations in social status family structure and collective life and culture of the workers An especial focus is the cultural transformations which occurred at the time of the 1905-1907 revolution in the Kingdom of Poland incorporating it into tsarist Russia In parallel with this Professor Zarnowska has been concerned to examine the gender determined inequalities of the life opportunities of women and men and how these altered as social modernisation in Poland progressed She looks at the changing legal and social status of women and their life chances as well as the emergence of new social models of women's roles Several studies are also devoted to the impact exerted by urban civilisation as well as the growing professional activity of women upon the changes to cultural norms regulating the relations between women and men as well as the development of women's aspirations in the family society and culture Gender Politics and Everyday Life in State Socialist Eastern and Central Europe S. Penn, J.

Massino, 2009-11-23 This book showcases extensive research on gender under state socialism examining the subject in terms of state policy and law sexuality and reproduction the academy leisure the private sphere the work world opposition activism and memory and identity The Golden Chain Jürgen Nautz, Paul Ginsborg, Ton Nijhuis, 2013-03-01 The family can be viewed as one of the links in a golden chain connecting individuals the private sphere civil society and the democratic state as potentially an important source of energy for social activity and as the primary institution that socializes and diffuses the values and norms that are of fundamental importance for civil society Yet much of the literature on civil society pays very little attention to the complex relations between civil society and the family These two spheres constitute a central element in democratic development and culture and form a counterweight to some of the most distressing aspects of modernity such as the excessive privatization of home life and the unceasing work and spend routines This volume offers historical perspectives on the role of families and their members in the processes of a liberal and democratic civil society the question of boundaries and intersections of the private and public domains and the interventions of state institutions

Performing the East Amy Bryzgel, 2013-05-30 Performance art in Western Europe and North America developed in part as a response to the commercialisation of the art object as artists endeavoured to create works of art that could not be bought or sold But what are the roots of performance art in Eastern Europe and Russia where there was no real art market to speak of While many artworks created in the East may resemble Western performance art practices their origins as well as their meaning and significance is decidedly different By placing specific performances from Russia Latvia and Poland from the late and post communist periods within a local and international context this book pinpoints the nuances between performance art East and West Performance art in Eastern Europe is examined for the first time as agent and chronicle of the transition from Soviet and satellite states to free market democracies Drawing upon previously unpublished sources and exclusive interviews with the artists themselves Amy Bryzgel explores the actions of the period from Miervaldis Polis s Bronze Man to Oleg Kulik s Russian Dog performances Bryzgel demonstrates that in the late 1980s and early 1990s performance art in Eastern Europe went beyond the modernist critique to express ideas outside the official discourse shocking and empowering the citizenry both effecting and mirroring the social changes taking place at the time Performing the East opens the way to an urgent reassessment of the history function and meaning of performance art practices in East Central Europe

Global Babel Samir Dayal, Margueritte Murphy, 2021-02-10 Globalization as we know it today would be unimaginable without the revolution in information and communication technologies of the last thirty years Yet have we achieved one world as the promotional hype for cellular and digital networks would have it This collection of essays Global Babel Questions of Discourse and Communication in a Time of Globalization explores the current state of communication and discourse in a globalized environment The essays are united by an awareness that whether understood technologically economically epistemologically or culturally globalization is a discursive field with discrepant assumptions categories and conclusions As such globalization is double edged and complex It can certainly enable the exploitation of the powerless by the powerful in different contexts or at different moments it can also facilitate individual and collective agency It is this doubleness this complexity that this collection seeks to bring into focus This volume offers an interdisciplinary forum where technological aesthetic and ethical issues relating to globalization inhabit the same conceptual frame Together the essays address the central issue of how the new knowledges of globalization are being articulated and explore the cultural consequences and success of such communication and knowledge exchange

The Politics of Morality Joanna Mishtal, 2015-07-15 After the fall of the state socialist regime and the end of martial law in 1989 Polish society experienced both a sense of relief from the tyranny of Soviet control and an expectation that democracy would bring freedom After this initial wave of enthusiasm however political forces that had lain concealed during the state socialist era began to emerge and establish a new religious nationalist orthodoxy While Solidarity garnered most of the credit for democratization in Poland it had worked quietly with the Catholic Church to which a large majority of Poles at least nominally adhered As the church emerged as a political force in the Polish Sejm and Senate it precipitated a rapid erosion of women's reproductive rights especially the right to abortion which had been relatively well established under the former regime The Politics of Morality is an anthropological study of this expansion of power by the religious right and its effects on individual rights and social mores It explores the contradictions of postsocialist democratization in Poland an emerging democracy on one hand and a declining tolerance for reproductive rights women's rights and political and religious pluralism on the other Yet as this thoroughly researched study shows women resist these strictures by pursuing abortion illegally defying religious prohibitions on contraception and organizing into advocacy groups As struggles around reproductive rights continue in Poland these resistances and unofficial practices reveal the sharp limits of religious form of governance

A Fragmented Landscape Silvia De Zordo, Joanna Mishtal, Lorena Anton, 2016-12-01 Since World War II abortion policies have remained remarkably varied across European nations with struggles over abortion rights at the forefront of national politics This volume analyses European abortion governance and explores how social movements political groups and individuals use protests and resistance to influence abortion policy Drawing on case studies from Italy Spain Norway Poland Romania Russia Sweden Switzerland the United Kingdom and the European Union it analyses the strategies and discourses of groups seeking to liberalise or restrict reproductive rights It also illuminates the ways that reproductive rights politics intersect with demographic anxieties as well as the rising nationalisms and xenophobia related to austerity policies mass migration and the recent terrorist attacks in Europe

The State of European Integration Dr Yannis A Stivachtis, 2013-03-28 The State of European Integration provides scholars practitioners experts and students with a comprehensive account of the state of the European Union today With contributions from leading scholars including Richard G Whitman Meltem Miftler Ba Glnur Aybet Leila Simona Talani and Gareth Dale the book examines the EU in a theoretically informed and empirically grounded manner Opening with an exploration into the nature of the European Union as an international actor it then assesses the impact of enlargement on institutions policies and identity The contributors investigate issues related to the degree of convergence and cohesion among members and analyze the economic and monetary state of integration The volume comes at a timely interval when there is a need to understand the present and future of the European Union

Reproduction and Biopolitics Silvia De Zordo, Milena Marchesi, 2016-02-05 The central theme of this volume is the notion of irrational reproduction the ways in which women's and couples reproductive choices and practices are deemed irrational or irresponsible because they result in the wrong number of children In a global context of declining fertility population policies have shifted to a neoliberal register which despite local differences includes both the deepening of economic and social inequalities and the intensification of rights discourses applied to the unborn Inspired by Foucault's theories on biopolitics and biopower and by a long tradition of feminist anthropological studies on reproduction the ethnographically based papers collected in this volume address the following crucial questions How does the notion of irrational reproduction emerge and play out in diverse socio political contexts and what forms of subjectivities and resistance does it generate How does the threat of too few or too many children itself constructed through expert knowledge of statistics and political concerns over the size of different ethnic populations or classes justify and support different biopolitical projects And how do the increasing privatization of healthcare and the dismantling of welfare states affect reproductive practices and decisions on the ground in the global North and South This book was originally published as a special issue of Anthropology and Medicine

Youth Culture in Global Cinema Timothy Shary,Alexandra Seibel,2009-01-27 Coming of age is a pivotal experience for everyone So it is no surprise that filmmakers around the globe explore the experiences of growing up in their work From blockbuster U S movies such as the Harry Potter series to thought provoking foreign films such as Bend It Like Beckham and Whale Rider films about youth delve into young people s attitudes styles sexuality race families cultures class psychology and ideas These cinematic representations of youth also reflect perceptions about youth in their respective cultures as well as young people s worth to the larger society Indeed as the contributors to this volume make plain films about young people open a very revealing window on the attitudes and values of cultures across the globe Youth Culture in Global Cinema offers the first comprehensive investigation of how young people are portrayed in film around the world Eighteen established film scholars from eleven different national backgrounds discuss a wide range of films that illuminate the varied conditions in which youth live The essays are grouped thematically around the issues of youthful resistance and rebellion cultural and national identity including religion and politics and sexual maturation including gender distinctions and coming of age queer Some essays engage in close readings of films while others examine the advertising and reception of films or investigate psychological issues The volume concludes with filmographies of over 700 youth related titles arranged by nation and theme

Urban China in Transition John Logan,2011-07-22 Using an innovative approach this book interprets the unprecedented transformation of contemporary China s major cities It deals with a diversity of trends and analyzes their sources Offers a multi dimensional analysis of urban life in China Highlights a diversity of trends in the areas of migration criminal victimization gated communities and the status of women suburbanization and neighbourhood associations Each chapter includes input from both an expert on urban life in China and an outside expert from the fields of sociology geography economics planning political science history demography architecture or anthropology An alternative theoretical perspective comparing the Chinese experience with other urban settings in the United States Poland Russia Vietnam East and South East Asia and South America

Defending Women's Rights in Europe Olga A. Avdeyeva,2015-04-17 Comparative analysis of gender equality reforms enacted in ten post communist states who became members of the European Union Between 2004 and 2007 ten post communist Eastern European states became members of the European Union EU To do so these nations had to meet certain EU accession requirements including antidiscrimination reforms While attaining EU membership was an incredible achievement many scholars and experts doubted the sustainability of accession linked reforms Would these nations comply with EU directives on gender equality To explore this question Defending Women's Rights in Europe presents a unique analysis of detailed original comparative data on state compliance with EU gender equality requirements It features a comprehensive quantitative analysis combined with rigorous insightful case studies of reforms in Poland the Czech Republic and Lithuania Olga A Avdeyeva reveals that policy and institutional reforms developed furthest in those states where women's advocacy NGOs managed to form coalitions with governing political parties After becoming members of the EU the governments did not abolish these policies and institutions despite the costs and lack of popular support Reputational concerns prevented state elites from policy dismantling but gender equality policies and institutions became marginalized on the state agenda after accession
