Political History Of National Liberation Movement In Asia An:

A Political History of National Liberation Movement in Asia and Africa, 1914-1985 András Balogh, Zafar Imam, 1988 International Origins of Social and Political Theory Tarak Barkawi, George Lawson, 2017-04-12 This special issue is animated by the necessary entanglement of theory and history the cortical relationship between theory and practice and the transboundary relations that help to constitute systems of thought and practice Ibss: Political Science: 1988 British Library of Political and Economic Science, 1992 This bibliography lists the most important works in political science published in 1988 The Cold War in Asia Yangwen Zheng, Hong Liu, Michael Szonyi, 2010 The Cold War stayed cold in Europe but it was hot in Asia Its legacy lives on in the region In none of the three dominant historiographical paradigms orthodox revisionist and post revisionist does Asia or the rest of the Third World figure with much significance What happens to these narratives if we put them to the test in Asia This volume argues that attention to what has been conventionally considered the periphery is essential to a full understanding of the global Cold War Foregrounding Asia necessarily leads to a re assessment of the dominant narratives This volume also argues for a shift in focus from diplomacy and high politics alone towards research into the culture of the Cold War era and its public diplomacy As a whole the essays contribute to enriching our understanding of what was really happening in an era that is too often understood in the catch all framework of the Cold War Akira Iriye Harvard University The Inter-Asia Cultural Studies Reader Kuan-Hsing Chen, Beng Huat Chua, 2015-04-22 Asian Cultural Studies or Cultural Studies in Asia is a new and burgeoning field and the Inter Asia Cultural Studies Journal is at its cutting edge Committed to bringing Asian Cultural Studies scholarship to the international English speaking world and constantly challenging existing conceptions of cultural studies the journal has emerged as the leading publication in Cultural Studies in Asia The Inter Asia Cultural Studies Reader brings together the best of the ground breaking papers published in the journal and includes a new introduction by the editors Chen Kuan Hsing and Chua Beng Huat Essays are grouped in thematic sections including issues which are important across the region such as State violence and social movements and work produced by IACS sub groups such as feminism queer studies cinema studies and popular culture studies The Reader provides useful alternative case studies and challenging perspectives which will be invaluable for both students and scholars in media and cultural studies Glimpses of the White Elephant Ronald A. Morse, Helen A. Loerke, 1987 Reclaiming the Human Sciences and Humanities Through African Perspectives Helen Lauer, Kofi Anyidoho, 2012 This compilation was inspired by an international symposium held on the Legon campus in September 2003 Hosted by the CODESRIA African Humanities Institute Programme the symposium had the theme Canonical Works and Continuing Innovation in African Arts Humanities History of Humanity UNESCO, 2008-12-31 This is the seventh and final volume in this comprehensive guide to the history of world cultures throughout historical times The National Liberation Movement in Burma During the Japanese Occupation Period, 1941-1945 Jan Bečka, 1983 Chinese Communist Views on International Affairs, 1979 East Asian Social Movements Jeffrey Broadbent, Vicky Brockman, 2011-01-07 In the study of civil society and social movements most cases are based in Western Europe and North America. These two areas of the world have similar histories and political ideals and structures in common which in turn affect the structure of its civil society. In studying civil society in Asia a different understanding of history, politics and society is needed. The region's long traditions of centralized authoritarian states buttressed by Confucian and in some cases Communist ideologies may render this concept irrelevant. The chapters in this international volume cover most of the areas and countries traditionally defined as belonging to East Asia: Japan, Taiwan, South Korea, Hong Kong, Singapore and China. The case studies included in this volume confront the utility of using the Western concept of civil society represented in its most active form: social movements to think about East Asia popular politics. Along with providing an array of important case studies of social movements in East Asia, the introduction, chapters and conclusion in the book take up three major theoretical questions: the effect of the East Asian cultural, social and institutional context upon the mobilization activities and outcomes of social movements in that region; the role of social movements in larger transformative processes; utility of Western social movement concepts in explaining social movements in East Asia. This book will be of interest to two major groups of readers: those who study East Asia and those who pursue social movements and civil society as well as politics more generally. Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States. Central Intelligence Agency, 1964 Translations of Political and Sociological Information on North Vietnam, 1966 Social Dialectics Anouar Abdel-Malek, 1981-06-30 In Nation and Revolution Anouar Abdel Malek examines the dynamics of power and social change and shows how the super imposition of new geo politics on the existing order of national states has brought about the primacy of the political in contemporary history. Taking issue with those who maintain that the Western proletariat constitutes the main impetus for social change today, Abdel Malek argues that the united front historically necessary to break the hold of hegemonism will be based on a new East Wind combining mighty waves of national liberation and social revolution. Making Development Geography Victoria Lawson, 2014-03-18 Making Development Geography is a timely new book which introduces readers to the major themes and debates in development geography. It argues cogently that the field is engaged in an ongoing process of reinventing itself as critical development geography and highlights issues such as identity, globalization, social movements and sexuality. Readers are guided through the key concepts and developments of the last 50 years surveying the themes of Keynesianism, Marxism and post colonialism. At the same time each chapter uses international examples to discuss important contemporary issues so that the real world applications of theory can be understood. This enlightening book offers a comprehensive introduction to the fundamental debates for anyone with an interest in development issues. Insights and Commentaries: South and Central Asia Ms Anita Sengupta, Mr Mirzokhid Rakhimov, 2015-08-15 This volume emerged out of a search for scholarship that has studied connectivity between South and Central Asia from a variety of perspectives. Geographically and culturally the vision that India has had of the region she referred to as Central Asia is of a space extending across China westward upto the Aral Sea and including within it Balkh Bukhara and Samarkand The Indian fascination with the region extends to various levels as this is the region out of which invading tribes entered India across whose Silk Routes trade flourished and also the region where Indian culture and religion spread Keeping this in mind the volume begins with an overview of positions from which the region has been traditionally situated from the Indian perspective as also reflections on the current scenario in terms of the geopolitical transformations of recent times It then moves on to examine the history of the political cultural and economic connections between the two regions from comparative perspectives Written by specialists from Uzbekistan the articles reflect on connections that had ancient roots and shared historical experiences The first set of articles focus on the historical linkages between the two regions Another set looks at similar developments in the region in terms of transformations in the socio political life of the people as also in the economy Encounters and the necessity of security cooperation between the two regions is the focus of a third set of articles The second part of the volume looks into certain issues that are significant in both South and Central Asia Written with Uzbek insight they reflect on Soviet and post Soviet state policies on a range of issues from gender and maternity policies ethnic policies and social stratification information policy and policies related to global organizations that have comparable relevance in the Indian context
