Rebel Parties in African Post-Conflict Elections Nora Schrader-Rashidkhan, 2021-05-04 In vielen Post Konflikt Gesellschaften weltweit beteiligen sich ehemalige Rebellengruppen als politische Parteien an Wahlen Die Studie behandelt die Gründung und den Erfolg solcher Rebellenparteien in Afrika und geht der Frage nach inwiefern institutionelle Strukturen diese Prozesse beeinflussen Der entwickelte Forschungsansatz ermöglicht zunächst eine systematische Erfassung aller afrikanischen Fälle seit 1989 um dann komplexe Kausalbeziehungen mit einer qualitativ vergleichenden Analyse mit Fuzzy Sets fsQCA aufzudecken Die Ergebnisse zeigen u.a. dass Institutionen wie Friedensabkommen Opportunitätsstrukturen für Rebellenparteien prägen und zu Pfadabhängigkeiten führen und dass demokratischere Wahlen die Etablierung solcher Parteien eher verhindern

Terrorism and the Limitation of Rights Stefan Sottiaux, 2008-02-29 Taking as a starting point the widely accepted view that states confronted with terrorism must find a proper equilibrium between their respective obligations of preserving fundamental rights and fighting terrorism effectively this book seeks to demonstrate how the design and enforcement of a human rights instrument may influence the result of that exercise An attempt is made to answer the question how a legal order's approach to the limitation of rights may shape decision making trade offs between the demands of liberty and the need to guarantee individual and collective security In doing so special attention is given to the difference between the adjudicative methods of balancing and categorisation The book challenges the conventional wisdom that individual rights in times of crisis are better served by the application of categorical rather than flexible models of limitation In addition the work considers the impact of a variety of other factors including the discrepancies in enforcing an international convention as opposed to a national constitution and the use of emergency provisions permitting derogations from human rights obligations in time of war or a public emergency The research questions are addressed through a comparative study of the terrorism related restrictions on five fundamental rights protected under the European Convention on Human Rights and the United States Constitution the right to freedom of expression the right to freedom of association the right to personal liberty the right to privacy and the right to a fair trial The book offers both a theoretical account of the paradoxical relationship between terrorism and human rights and a comprehensive comparative survey of the major decisions of the highest courts on both sides of the Atlantic

Armed Political Organizations Benedetta Berti, 2013-08-01 How do armed groups operate simultaneously as violent actors with bullets and political candidates with ballots Many armed political movements such as Hezbollah Hamas and the Irish Republican Army IRA have their roots in insurrection and rebellion In Armed Political Organizations Benedetta Berti seeks to understand when and why violent actors in a political organization choose to vote rather than bomb their way to legitimacy Berti argues that the classic theory of the democratization process which sees violence and elections at opposite ends of the political spectrum is too simplistic and wholly inadequate for understanding the negotiation and disarmament work that is necessary for peaceful resolution of armed conflicts and movement toward electoral options In this comparative study she develops an alternative cyclical model that clarifies why armed groups create a political wing and compete in elections and how this organizational choice impacts subsequent decisions to relinquish armed struggle In her conclusion Berti draws out what the implications are for a government's ability to engage armed political groups to improve the chances of political integration Berti's innovative framework and careful choice of case studies presented in a jargon free accessible style will make this book attractive to not only scholars and students of democratization processes but also policymakers interested in conflict resolution and peacekeeping efforts
