Talwar, 2022-01-09 Political Philosophy of M N Roy M N Roy may be best remembered as a philosopher of Radical Humanism He propounded his new philosophy as a solution for the political cultural and moral crisis which confronted mankind since 1945 His philosophy was in the nature of a Third Force as he believed that Communism as it unfolded itself in the Soviet Union in the Stalinist era was the greatest menace to human potentialities He elaborated his schemes of Radical Democracy and Humanist Politics as integral parts of Radical Humanism to philosophically reconstruct a socially cohesive state structure The edifice of his philosophy rested on four laudable pillars viz Rationalism Humanism Freedom and Materialism and spiritualism and no longer regarded man as a mere economic animal His philosophy asserted the supremacy of man in a socio political system that transcended national boundaries The study attempts a critical appraisal of Radical Humanism avoiding the adulation of a disciple and the approach of an uncharitable critic It is an updated study based on the author's three research dissertations besides other relevant literature The first six chapters unfold the story of the evolution of Roy's philosophy and the seventh is a critical evaluation of the basic postulates of Radical Humanism The study endeavors to get under the skin of real Roy the visionary who through his condemnation of orthodox Marxism as practiced in the Soviet Union had almost predicted its impending failure that actually happened in 1989 The study would be useful to academics research scholars general readers and post graduate students of social sciences The pro Marxist and anti Marxist intelligentsia should find the work objectively analytical The New Politics of Indian Gaming Kenneth N. In recent years immigration and the integration of migrants and minorities have become politicised in public and policy debates in Britain the rest of Europe and the United States In such debates migrants are commonly treated as objects of politics and spoken in terms of management national interest control and contention This treatment has characterised not only policy makers and politicians but also many academics Existing scholarly research on migrants as subjects of politics is limited and largely carried out through detached and structural approaches These approaches have focused on the institutional environments in which mobilisations develop They have however overlooked migrants conditions experiences subjectivities and practices as well as the focus of their engagement This volume contributes to the study of migrants mobilisation through theoretically informed original empirical papers focusing on current forms and aspects of migrants and minorities practices of citizenship in an engaged and people centred manner In particular the book addresses issues of change both in the forms assumed by migrants and minorities political engagements and in the transformations these engagements produce as well as exclusion inclusion dynamics that migrants experience with regard to the political process and more generally This book was previously published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1916 Author and subject index to a selected list of periodicals not included in the Readers guide and to composite books
