Jamal, 2021-10-01 Symptomatic of an emergent shift away from prescriptive and deterministic accounts of change in South Africa Predicaments of culture in South Africa posits an open ended and speculative approach to the question and agency of culture The key question posed by Justice Albie Sachs of the Constitutional Court of South Africa what does it mean to be a South African is shifted from its familiar ontological and epistemological habitat what is identity the better to embrace its ethical and political rider what are identities for and its more pragmatic possibility what can identities do These qualifications Bhabha's form the building blocks that skew and enrich existing presumptions about South Africa's history its present moment and its future Jamal challenges and qualifies the conflicting and contiguous drives of fatalism positivism and relativism which are the dominant claimants upon the South African cultural imaginary It is this critical non positionality that forms the distinctive trait of an inquiry which in eschewing allegiance and closure opens up the debate about what it means to be South African and the role of culture therein In hindsight and with the hither side of the future before us Jamal s driving assumption is that world society is advancing towards yet another age of ignorance an age beyond suspicion and irony in which thought whether self critical or not is no longer the agent of reason Jamal calls for an urgent reappraisal of the absence of love of lovelessness which he sees as the infected root of South Africa s inability to create a positively affirmative cultural imaginary
