Politics Of Everyday Life Making Choices Changing Lives:

Politics Of Everyday Life Ginsborg, Paul, 2013-05-24 Concern over the present state of the world its tensions and disparities fosters in many people the uneasy combination of two sensations urgency and powerlessness The solution lies in our own hands We need to re think the choices we make on a day to day basis choices affecting the ways we use our time the family lives we live the sorts of goods and services we consume the quality of democracy we are able to exercise The individual the local and the global are inextricably intertwined in positive and in negative ways Passivity and indifference at the individual level contribute greatly to collective dismay at the condition of the world This book explores the choices we have It considers the options for civil society and for the individual within today s political culture The Future of

Representative Democracy Sonia Alonso, John Keane, Wolfgang Merkel, 2011-03-31 The Future of Representative Democracy poses important questions about representation representative democracy and their future Inspired by the last major investigation of the subject by Hanna Pitkin over four decades ago this ambitious volume fills a major gap in the literature by examining the future of representative forms of democracy in terms of present day trends and past theories of representative democracy Aware of the pressing need for clarifying key concepts and institutional trends the volume aims to break down barriers among disciplines and to establish an interdisciplinary dialogue among scholars The contributors emphasise that representative democracy and its future is a subject of pressing scholarly concern and public importance Paying close attention to the unfinished two centuries old relationship between democracy and representation this book offers a fresh perspective on current problems and dilemmas of representative democracy and the possible future development of new forms of democratic representation Democratic Legitimacy Pierre Rosanvallon, 2011-07-05 It s a commonplace that citizens in Western democracies are disaffected with their political leaders and traditional democratic institutions But in Democratic Legitimacy Pierre Rosanvallon one of today s leading political thinkers argues that this crisis of confidence is partly a crisis of understanding He makes the case that the sources of democratic legitimacy have shifted and multiplied over the past thirty years and that we need to comprehend and make better use of these new sources of legitimacy in order to strengthen our political self belief and commitment to democracy Drawing on examples from France and the United States Rosanvallon notes that there has been a major expansion of independent commissions NGOs regulatory authorities and watchdogs in recent decades At the same time constitutional courts have become more willing and able to challenge legislatures These institutional developments which serve the democratic values of impartiality and reflexivity have been accompanied by a new attentiveness to what Rosanvallon calls the value of proximity as governing structures have sought to find new spaces for minorities the particular and the local To improve our democracies we need to use these new sources of legitimacy more effectively and we need to incorporate them into our accounts of democratic government An original contribution to the vigorous international debate about democratic authority and legitimacy this promises to be one of Rosanvallon's most important books The Spectre at the Feast Andrew Gamble, 2019-10-10 After a long feast of prosperity in the western world the crisis in the financial markets has conjured up an old spectre the spectre of capitalist crisis which many thought had been finally exorcised On past experience a full blown capitalist crisis would bring with it the threat of slump collapse polarisation conflict and even war spreading to all parts of the global economy hence the great efforts being made to contain the present downturn This important new book by a leading authority sets the financial crisis of 2007-8 in historical context and assesses its global consequences how far it might go and what is to be done

Contesting Economic and Social Rights in Ireland Thomas Murray, 2016-08-18 This book presents a political understanding of socio economic rights by contextualising constitution makers and judges decision making in terms of Ireland's rich history of people's struggles for justice from below between 1848 and the present Its theoretical framework incorporates critical legal studies and world systems analysis It performs a critical discourse analysis of constitution making processes in 1922 and 1937 as well as subsequent property trade union family and welfare rights case law It traces the marginalisation of socio economic rights in Ireland from specific local and institutional factors to the contested balance of core peripheral and social relations in the world system The book demonstrates the endurance of ideological understandings of state constitutionalism as inherently neutral between interests Unemployed marches housing protestors and striking workers however provided important challenges and oppositional discourses Recognising these enduring forms of power and ideology is vital if we are to assess critically the possibilities and limits of contesting socio economic rights today The Gospel According to Starbucks Leonard Sweet, 2008-05-20 Leonard Sweet shows you how the passion that Starbucks has for creating an irresistible experience can connect you with God's stirring introduction to the experience of faith in The Gospel According to Starbucks You don't stand in line at Starbucks just to buy a cup of coffee You stop for the experience surrounding the cup of coffee Too many of us line up for God out of duty or guilt We completely miss the warmth and richness of the experience of living with God If we'd learn to see what God is doing on earth we could participate fully in the irresistible life that he offers You can learn to pay attention like never before to identify where God is already in business right in your neighborhood The doors are open and the coffee is brewing God is serving the refreshing antidote to the unsatisfying arms length spiritual life and he won't even make you stand in line Sociology Australia Judith

Bessant, 2020-07-16 Sociology gives us the tools we need to understand our life and the lives of the people around us It reveals that our commonsense view of the world isn't always right and enables us to find out what actually shapes our experiences In this widely used and very readable introductory text Judith Bessant and Rob Watts show us how to develop a sociological perspective on what is happening in Australia today Rapid and far reaching social changes are taking place which affect us all globalisation is impacting on our economy and culture technological developments increase the pace of life and many people worry about the decline of traditional values and about environmental and personal security Using a sociological perspective we can explain why different groups of people experience these changes as exciting unsettling or devastating Sociology Australia is structured around six key questions What is sociology Who are we and how do we come to be who we are How do we know the world in which we live Can we make our lives as we want them Who makes the decisions that shape our society What changes are taking place in Australia today Sociology Australia is an ideal introduction to the discipline of sociology and to the dynamics of Australian society today This third edition of Sociology Australia has been substantially revised and updated and includes new chapters on religion education and sustainability The Art of Helping Others Heather Smith, Mark K. Smith, 2008 When searching for someone to help them reflect upon and improve their lives people tend to be drawn towards those who are compassionate committed and wise This book is aimed at those who recognise these qualities in themselves and wish to develop their capacity to engage with and help others The authors argue for ways of approaching helping and counselling that are rooted in care and commitment drawing upon the experiences and practice wisdom of youth workers housing support and hostel workers the clergy and those working in a religious setting educators and settlement and community workers They explore the key characteristics of those who counsel and teach and examine aspects of the helping process focusing on living life well knowing and being oneself relating to others and working to make change possible This book will be essential reading for students on professional training programmes in youth work community education ministry social care and counselling The Coming of Age of the Green Community Erik Bichard, 2013-10-01 People organising to protect their environment is not a new phenomenon but the groups that have been pushing for environmental change since the 1970s have not convinced sufficient numbers make sustainable decisions or to lead sustainable lives Governments have serially failed to do the job at the international level Now climate change resource depletion and widening social aspirations threaten to destabilise human society unless sustainable change can be influenced from another direction The Coming of Age of the Green Community explores the activities of a new generation of community led initiatives that may herald the beginnings of the next wave of activism Erik Bichard combines the testimonies of dozens of group activists with historic evidence and the views of a range of commentators from a variety of disciplines to put forward reasons why some green community groups succeed while others fail He concludes with a valuable prescription for both existing and emerging groups on how to be sustainable both over time and in their actions This book address one of the key questions of the twenty first century has the local perspective on this universal concern finally come of age Me and We Leonard Sweet, 2014-09-16 When Christians answer the clarion call to be missional too often it is primarily to feel good or to grow in their own faith But ultimately we remain unsatisfied because in the end it s still about me my church my faith my salvation Then sometimes inspiration dries up We forget that Jesus is the head of the Church which exists at God s pleasure and disposal God is birthing a new Social Gospel meant to reclaim mission and justice ministries as prime directives for the Church and not with the naive thinking of the 19th or 20th centuries What are the characteristics of this new Social Gospel

There is an expectation that mission is with and not for others There is an acknowledgement that tolerance is not a dirty word and we have to find a peaceable way to live in our intercultural world It carries the Wesleyan impulse to change the world by working to build God s kingdom in this world It offers the grace and salvation of Christ to those in need believing that none are free unless all are free It means that we feed the hungry educate to poor and equip the powerless in tangible ways

Civil Society and Gender Justice Karen Hagemann, Sonya Michel, Gunilla-Friederike Budde, 2008 Civil society and civic engagement have increasingly become topics of discussion at the national and international level The editors of this volume ask does the concept of civil society include gender equality and gender justice Or to frame the question differently is civil society a feminist concept Conversely does feminism need the concept of civil society This important volume offers both a revised gendered history of civil society and a program for making it more egalitarian in the future An interdisciplinary group of internationally known authors investigates the relationship between public and private in the discourses and practices of civil societies the significance of the family for the project of civil society the relation between civil society the state and different forms of citizenship and the complex connection between civil society gendered forms of protest and nongovernmental movements While often critical of historical instantiations of civil society all the authors nonetheless take seriously the potential inherent in civil society particularly as it comes to influence global politics They demand however an expansion of both the concept and project of civil society in order to make its political opportunities available to all

Paul Ginsborg and the Historiography of Modern Italy John Foot, Stephen Gundle, 2024-07-27 This book brings together a group of British and Italian scholars who have made significant contributions to the historiography of modern Italy over the last three decades dedicated to the influence of Paul Ginsborg Reflecting Ginsborg s interest in the encounter of social and political history in modern Italy contributions explore the varied forms taken by activism in civil society Rather than just treating activism and engagement as limited circumscribed phenomena within a political system the essays consider these as interventions in the social Taken together the contributions gathered here highlight Ginsborg s contributions to scholarship and activism as well as advancing our understanding of cultural change institutional reform and the renewal of community in modern Italian history

Afghanistan Remembers Parin Dossa, 2014-01-01 In Afghanistan Remembers Parin Dossa examines how violence is remembered by Afghan women through memories and food practices in their homeland and its diaspora

The Golden Chain Jürgen Nautz, Paul Ginsborg, Ton Nijhuis, 2013-03-01 The family can be viewed as one of the links in a golden chain connecting individuals the private sphere civil society and the democratic state as potentially an important source of energy for social activity and as the primary institution that socializes and diffuses the values and norms that are of fundamental importance for civil society Yet much of the literature on civil society pays very little attention to the complex relations between civil society and the family These two spheres constitute a central element in democratic development and culture and form a counterweight to some of the most distressing aspects of modernity such as the excessive privatization of home life and the unceasing work and spend routines This volume offers historical perspectives on the role of families and their members in the processes of a liberal and democratic civil society the question of boundaries and intersections of the private and public domains and the interventions of state institutions Literary Theory Julie Rivkin, Michael Ryan, 2017-01-25 The new edition of this bestselling literary theory anthology has been thoroughly updated to include influential texts from innovative new areas including disability studies eco criticism and ethics Covers all the major schools and methods that make up the dynamic field of literary theory from Formalism to Postcolonialism Expanded to include work from Stuart Hall Sara Ahmed and Lauren Berlant Pedagogically enhanced with detailed editorial introductions and a comprehensive glossary of terms Viral Leonard Sweet, Leonard I. Sweet, 2012 Discusses how social media resources can be used to enhance relationships with fellow Christians and with God Advances in Experimental Social Psychology Mark P. Zanna, 2011-08-31 Advances in Experimental Social Psychology continues to be one of the most sought after and most often cited series in this field Containing contributions of major empirical and theoretical interest this series represents the best and the brightest in new research theory and practice in social psychology This serial is part of the Social Sciences package on ScienceDirect Visit info.sciencedirect.com for more information Advances Experimental Social Psychology is available online on ScienceDirect full text online of volumes 32 onward Elsevier book series on ScienceDirect gives multiple users throughout an institution simultaneous online access to an important complement to primary research Digital delivery ensures users reliable 24 hour access to the latest peer reviewed content The Elsevier book series are compiled and written by the most highly regarded authors in their fields and are selected from across the globe using Elsevier's extensive researcher network For more information about the Elsevier Book Series on ScienceDirect Program please visit info.sciencedirect.com/bookseries Civil Society and the Family Esther Muddiman, Sally Power, Chris Taylor, 2022-04-14 The relationship between the family and civil society has always been complex with the family often regarded as separate from or even oppositional to civil society Taking a fresh empirical approach Muddiman Power and Taylor reveal how such separation underestimates the important role the family plays in civil society Considering the impact of family events dinner table debates intergenerational transmission of virtues and the role of the mother this enlightening book draws on survey data from 1000 young people a sample of their parents and grandparents and extended family interviews to uncover how civil engagement activism and political participation are inherited and fostered within the home Transformations of Retailing in Europe after 1945 Lydia Langer, 2016-02-17 After World War II structures practices and the culture of retailing in most West European countries went through a period of rapid change The post war economic boom the emergence of a mass consumer society and the adaptation of innovations which already had been implemented in the USA during the interwar period revolutionized the world of getting and spending But the implementation of self service and the supermarket the spread of the department store and the mail order business were not only elements of a transatlantic catch up process of

Americanization of retailing National patterns of the retail trade and specific cultures of consumption remained crucial and long term processes of change starting in the 1920s or 1930s also had an impact on the transformation of retailing in post war Europe This volume presents a series of case studies looking at transformations of retailing in several European countries offering new insights into the structural preconditions of the emerging mass consumer societies and also into the consequences consumerism had on the practices of retailing

New Perspectives on Consumer Culture Theory and Research Renáta Sedláková, Pavel Zahrádka, 2013-02-21 In the post socialist countries the subject of consumption has not received sufficient attention from the perspective of Consumer Culture Theory The opinion has long prevailed among the majority of social scientists from this region that consumer society and consumptive behaviour is a socially destructive phenomenon and one of the main causes of problems in contemporary society This impression has prevented them from scrutinizing the symbolic dimension of consumption and led them to a critical analysis of the social causes and environmental consequences of excessive consumption The examination of symbolic aspects of consumer culture or the mutual interaction of culture and marketing communication for example have remained outside the realm of academic interest The absence of comprehensive academic interest in the topic of consumer culture does not however mean that consumer culture is not a subject of research Such research instead takes place outside of the sphere of the university in the commercial sector and is primarily focused on issues of how to successfully sell products and services Due to competitive concerns commercial research into consumer culture has led to the privatization of its results which runs contrary to the ideal of science as an open and critical project The goal of this book is to create a counterbalance to this science in the shadows and overcome the mutual distrust between the academic and commercial spheres and make possible the transfer of recent discoveries between the two parties This publication is dedicated to the exploration of three areas of consumer culture research on consumer culture and consumer behaviour in post socialist countries especially in the Czech Republic new developments in the theory of consumer culture and innovative methodological approaches to its research and finally to recent criticism of consumer culture and consumerism It emerged from the collaboration of a team of authors made up of leading European researchers in the field of consumer culture such as Kate Soper London Metropolitan University Franz Liebl Berlin University of the Arts and Rainer Gries University of Vienna as well as promising young scholars from the Czech Republic Great Britain Sweden Serbia Poland and Portugal This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of sociology cultural studies marketing and market research
