To Hell with Culture Herbert Read, 2002 A classic work that offers the reader an ideal overview of the ideas that marked out Read as a seminal and hugely influential figure in the cultural life of the twentieth century The Unpolitical Massimo Cacciari, 2009 Massimo Cacciari is one of the leading public intellectuals in today's Italy This collection of essays on political topics provides the best introduction in English to his thought to date This carefully curated collection includes chapters on Hofmannsthal Lukács Benjamin Nietzsche Weber Derrida Schmitt Canetti and Aeschylus Written between 1978 and 2006 these essays engagingly address the most hidden tradition in European political thought the unpolitical Far from being a refusal of politics The Unpolitical represents a merciless critique of political reason and a way out of the now impracticable consolations of utopia and harmonious community A lucid and engaging Introduction by Alessandro Carrera sets these essays in the context of Cacciari's work generally and in the broadest context of its historical and geographical backdrop Press and Politics in the Weimar Republic Bernhard Fulda, 2009-01-08 Press and Politics offers a new interpretation of the fate of Germany's first democracy and the advent of Hitler's Third Reich It is the first study to explore the role of the press in the politics of the Weimar Republic and to ask how influential it really was in undermining democratic values Anyone who seeks to understand the relationship between the press and politics in Germany at this time has to confront a central problem Newspapers certainly told their readers how to vote especially at election time It was widely accepted that the press wielded immense political power And yet power ultimately fell to Adolf Hitler a radical politician whose party press had been strikingly unsuccessful Press and Politics unravels this apparent paradox by focusing on Berlin the political centre of the Weimar Republic and the capital of the German press The book examines the complex relationship between media presentation popular reception and political attitudes in this period What was the relationship between newspaper circulation and electoral behaviour Which papers did well and why What was the nature of political coverage in the press Who was most influenced by it Bernhard Fulda addresses all these questions and more looking at the nature and impact of newspaper reporting on German politics politicians and voters He shows how the press personalized politics how politicians were turned into celebrities or hate figures and how through deliberate distortions individual newspapers succeeded in building up a plausible partisan counter reality
