Bheda, 2005 Political Fiction and the Historical Imagination Lee Horsley, 1990-06-18 This study gives insights into the process of imagining history and argues the case for a humanistic approach It shows how writers have brought alive in their work an individual struggle to comprehend some of the most important political phenomena to the 20th century

The Politics of Disinterestedness in Nineteenth-Century Literature Natalie Roxburgh, 2025-05-01 The Politics of Disinterestedness in Nineteenth Century Literature historicizes the concept of disinterestedness by examining discourses on political economy during and before the 19th century It argues that certain literary texts respond to the way all interests are transformed into economic interests during this period It also shows that this has implications for aesthetics and questions of aesthetic autonomy in which discourses on disinterestedness are tied up Through a New Formalist approach Natalie Roxburgh provides fresh readings of texts by Robert Browning George Eliot and Oscar Wilde whose respective oeuvres demonstrate an attention to the formal affordances of literary disinterestedness that compete with and critically assess other versions Browning develops a dramatic monologue so that the reader is enticed to re read his poems Eliot cultivates the problematic character who must struggle with her desire within a larger play of interests in a way that evolves the realist Condition of England novel and Wilde experiments with the blending of genres in his critical essays by rendering them as dramatic dialogues that serve as contemplative mechanisms for playing with a multiplicity of interests which he explores in terms of influence. Reading these canonical authors through the politics of disinterestedness sheds new light on literary value and in particular the formal techniques seen as important by the end of the 19th century just as liberal democracy emerged in Britain. Political

Initiation in the Novels of Philip Roth Claudia Franziska Bruhwiler, 2013-04-25. Political Initiation in the Novels of Philip Roth exemplifies how literature and specifically the work of Philip Roth can help readers understand the ways in which individuals develop their political identity, learn to comprehend political ideas and define their role in society. Combining political science, literary theory and anthropology, the book describes an individual's political coming of age as a political initiation story which is crafted as much by the individual himself as by the circumstances influencing him, such as political events or the political attitude of the parents. Philip Roth's characters constantly re-write their own stories and experiment with their identities. Accordingly, Philip Roth's works enable the reader to explore, for instance, how individuals construct their identity against the backdrop of political transformations or contested territories and thereby become initiands or fail to do so. Contrary to what one might expect, initiations are not only defining moments in childhood and early adulthood; instead, Roth shows how initiation processes recur throughout an individual's life. Writers and Politics Conor Cruise

O'Brien, 2015-02-19. Arguably, Conor Cruise O'Brien's most influential and admired book was this brilliant collection of essays on history, literature and public affairs, first published in 1965. I can still remember the excitement with which I discovered a copy of Writers and Politics in a provincial library in Devonshire thirty years ago. Nobody who tries to write about either of those subjects or about the bloody crossroads where they have so often met can disown a debt to the Cruiser. Christopher Hitchens, London Review of Books. When a liberal can write such pieces as Mercy and Mercenaries, Journal de Combat. Varieties of Anti Communism, A New Yorker. Critic and Generation of Saints, an important voice has returned to our culture. Raymond Williams, Guardian. The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W. Shaffer, 2011-01-18.

This Encyclopedia offers an indispensable reference guide to twentieth-century fiction in the English language. With nearly 500 contributors and over one million words, it is the most comprehensive and authoritative reference guide to twentieth-century fiction in the English language. Contains over 500 entries of 1000-3000 words written in lucid, jargon-free prose by an international cast of leading scholars. Arranged in three volumes covering British and Irish Fiction, American Fiction and World Fiction, with each volume edited by a leading scholar in the field. Entries cover major writers such as Saul Bellow, Raymond Chandler, John Steinbeck, Virginia Woolf, A.S. Byatt, Samuel Beckett, D.H. Lawrence, Zadie Smith, Salman Rushdie, V.S. Naipaul, Nadine Gordimer, Alice Munro, Chinua Achebe, J.M. Coetzee and Ngũgĩ Wa Thiong'o and their key works. globalization modernist fiction and the film industry and the fiction of migration diaspora and exile (Inter)racial Relationships as Accompaniment in Twenty-First Century African American Novels E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2024-10-15

Inter racial Relationships as Accompaniment in Twenty First Century African American Novels explores the acts of accompaniment to disrupt the embodied discursive practices of whiteness and Black vulnerability as a way to change social relations across racial difference in the novels. The novels analyzed in the book explore those Black male characters who work through the norms of whiteness in their relations with Black and white women while at the same time enacting the practices of accompaniment to subvert the embodied practices of whiteness. At a time when there is the rise of interest in activist work such as the ongoing Black Lives Matter movement against the systems of white supremacy in the post Trump era these novels shape an understanding of Black characters struggle against discursive violence as a radical social praxis to transform the everyday life. The book consists of four chapters on Kalisha Buckhanon's Speaking of Summer 2019, Kalisha Buckhanon's Upstate 2005, Ben Burgess Jr's Defining Moments Black and White 2020 and Walter Mosley's Every Man a King A King Oliver Novel 2023. While these novels depict a critique of racialized everyday life they interrogate whiteness as a political act of devaluation of Blackness and Black life by establishing relations through accompaniment. The act as such stretches the boundary lines between who is the accompanier and the accompanied in shifting configurations of whiteness and blackness in the positioning of the vulnerable.
