Readings In African Humanities African Cultural Development:

African Cultural Development Ogbu Kalu,1978 African Cultural Development Ogbu U. Kalu,1978 Reading in African Humanities Ogbu Uke Kalu,2002 African Theocology Ebenezer Yaw Blasus,2020-02-27 There is probably no set of issues of greater importance in the contemporary world than those that are to do with the Earth on which we live and depend The more alienated we become from it the more we contribute to our own destruction Christianity's complicity in this destruction is well documented and hotly debated Africa can ill afford to fall into the same trap that Western Christianity has in this regard One senses the urgency of these concerns in Blasus's African Theocology Studies in African Religious Creation Care Extremely well informed in the field Blasus not only draws on the three major religions in Africa Christianity Islam and African traditional religion but demonstrates familiarity with the most important recent contributions in the field from Western scholarship With its emphasis on pedagogics African Theocology will play a seminal role in the construction of curricula for an African Christian theology of the environment and is sure to be an essential contribution to all libraries in institutions of higher learning African Cinema: Manifesto and Practice for Cultural Decolonization Michael T. Martin,Gaston Jean-Marie Kaboré,2023-08-08 Challenging established views and assumptions about traditions and practices of filmmaking in the African diaspora this three volume set offers readers a researched critique on black film Volume One of this landmark series on African cinema draws together foundational scholarship on its history and evolution Beginning with the ideological project of colonial film to legitimize the economic exploitation and cultural hegemony of the African continent during imperial rule to its counter historical formation and theorization It comprises essays by film scholars and filmmakers alike among them Roy Armes Med Hondo Frid Boughedir Haile Gerima Oliver Barlet Teshome Gabriel and David Murphy including three distinct dossiers a timeline of key dates in the history of African cinema a comprehensive chronicle and account of the contributions by African women in cinema and a homage and overview of Ousmane Sembène the Father of African cinema African Philosophy and the Hermeneutics of Culture Theophilus Okere,2005 The Series Studies in African Philosophy is a forum for the publication and wider dissemination of researches and reflections of value on all aspects of African philosophy While recognising the special advantage of interdisciplinary approach in modern scholarship it retains a special predilection for works that have special African philosophic import Although Theophilus Okere's book African Philosophy has made remarkable impact on African philosophical scholarship many may not be aware of the way he tried to apply his preferred method to other areas of the philosophical investigation in Africa and to overcome the risk of relativism through the promotion of intercultural dialogue in philosophy The essays published in this volume bear testimony to the multivalent character of Okere's contribution to African philosophy Most of the essays are about Okere's hermeneutics of culture Some of the authors examine the method in itself while others focus attention on its application to specific philosophical themes Book jacket African Psychology Augustine Nwoye,2022 One of the most unprecedented

developments in the history of the scientific study of psychology in postcolonial Africa is the recent welcome inclusion of the study of African psychology within the psychology degree curriculum of some foreword thinking African universities In each of those universities such as the University of KwaZulu Natal in South Africa and Kenyatta University in Nairobi Kenya East Africa there now exists a gradual entrenchment of the African derived psychology in the curricular provisions of their psychology degree programmes With particular reference to the University of KwaZulu Natal in South Africa for instance a number of African psychology based modules have recently been developed approved and incorporated into the list of modules for psychology degree students at the undergraduate Honours and the Master s degree levels see University of KwaZulu Natal College of Humanities Handbook 2018

Readings in African Humanities Ogbu Kalu,2002 A collection of essays concerned with the unity and purpose of human knowledge and culture in an African setting The volume contains Chinua Achebe s essay Commitment and the African Writer in which he discusses the development in African literature through the poetry of Equiano Senghor and David Diop and compares attitudes of African and European writers to committed literature and commitment as disenchantment and self criticism in the post colonial period There are other notable essays on philosophy and languages Towards an African Philosophy addresses individual and cultural and European and African approaches to philosophy and attitudes towards moral questions in an African culture and another contributor examines the role and status of African languages in intellectual activity and scientific discourse Other subjects broached by individual writers are archaeology and the reconstruction of African heritage music and dance and the contribution of education and information to development and urbanisation

Handbook of African Philosophy Elvis Imafidon,Mpho Tshivhase,Björn Freter,2023-09-30 This Handbook provides in one volume rich comprehensive and rigorous coverage of specific subject areas and thematic concerns in the ever evolving academic discipline of African philosophy This Handbook is unique in its focus on central and emerging areas within African philosophy such as Afro communitarian philosophy ethics epistemology social and political philosophy existentialism philosophy of religion gender philosophy philosophy of education phenomenology transhumanism African philosophy futures and philosophy of the non human The thirty two chapters in this Handbook explore the rich textual and non textual forms of philosophical knowledge in Africa and adequately represent the broad and diverse scope of African philosophy showing the richness and depth of the philosophical tradition This reference work is indispensable to students and researchers in African philosophy comparative philosophy and world philosophies

Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike,2014-02-27 Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to lay bare the diversity and essence of African cinema discourse It is an anthology of historical reflections critical essays and interviews by film critics historians theorists and filmmakers that signifies a dialogue and engagement apropos the ideology and cultural politics of film production in Africa The contributors are extremely concerned not only with the history of African cinema but with its future and its potential This book then is not limited to the expansion of the discourse on African cinema but tries to approach the definition of the critical canon within the exigencies and manifestations of art and African sociopolitical practices The authors view these practices as an investment in a cultural imperative stemming from the quest to delineate how critical methodologies are derived from and shape contemporary historical and cultural practices Hence the contributions are less about the usual constrictive method of analysis and more about illustrating manifestations of an interrogative critical methodology that is certainly an offspring of an indigenous African critical cum cinematic culture and paradigms Daily Life in Colonial Africa Toyin Falola,2024-07-11 Discover how European colonization across the many regions in Africa dramatically altered the continent and the daily lived experiences of its peoples Daily Life in Colonial Africa explores nine facets of daily life in the European colonized African continent such as domestic economic political and religious life Examples of everyday people farmers forced to switch to cash crops people of faith melding native traditions and European Christian doctrine on beliefs about the afterlife storytellers using allegory to discreetly challenge colonial rule show how colonialization impacted every aspect of life for Africa s indigenous people as well as how they adapted to new ways of life while maintaining their cultural roots Alongside the main text helpful additional resources such as a timeline of the colonization of Africa and a glossary of terms provide useful context for understanding what life in this period of history was truly like for the many different people and groups affected by Africa s colonization Handbook of Black Studies Molefi Kete Asante,Maulana Karenga,2006 Publisher Description African Humanities J. Okoro Ijoma,1992 African Indigenous Religious Traditions in Local and Global Contexts Ogunbible, David O.,2015-09-23 This volume honours one of the great scholars of our era Professor Jacob Olupona Although he has conducted significant portions of his career outside of Nigeria he has not separated himself from his colleagues or from interests in religions in Nigeria and elsewhere in Africa His publications and presentations offer the international scholarly community important critical insights into a range of religious activities life ways and ideas originating in Africans and the African Diaspora In spite of the diversity in the thoughts and opinions expressed and equally of the range of disciplines and topics contained in the book one can say that the contributors have developed a shared concern about the role of African Indigenous Religious Traditions in the processes of development and the context within which it development had or is taking place The book guides us to a deep understanding and appreciation of how Africans in their varied situations grapple with existential problems through philosophical ruminations complex ritual processes cultivated memory and organized coping strategies African Epistemology Peter Aloysius Ikhane,Isaac E. Ukpokolo,2023-05-31 This book investigates how knowledge is conceived and explored within the African context Epistemology or the theory of knowledge has historically been dominated by the Western approach to the discourse of knowledge This book however shines a much needed spotlight on knowledge systems originating within the African continent Bringing together key voices from across the field of African philosophy this book explores the nature of knowledge across the continent and how they are rooted in

Africans ontological sense of being and self At a time when moves to decolonize curricula are gaining momentum this book shows how understanding the specific ways of knowing that form part of the every day life of the African will play an important part in rebalancing studies of philosophy globally Employing critical conceptual and rigorous analyses of the nature and essence of knowledge as understood by indigenous African societies the book ultimately asks what could pass as an African theory of knowledge This important guide to the connections between knowledge and being in African philosophical thought will be an important resource for researchers and students of philosophy and African studies

Readings in African Popular Culture Karin Barber,1997 This is an extraordinarily rich collection full of informative detail and excellent interpretative analysis There is not a single piece that fails to fascinate Leeds African Studies Bulletin an impressive collection of inspiring and thought provoking essays Media Development This is a book that should find its way into many syllabuses and onto the bookshelves of Africanist scholars in many disciplines Its publication marks a key turning point in scholarship on the cultures of contemporary Africa Africa Today This book surveys the popular culture of contemporary Africa including popular literature oral narrative and poetry dance drama music and visual art with special emphasis on the verbal arts The essays cover six main areas views of the field oral tradition revisited social history social criticism and interpretation women in popular culture little genres of everyday life the local and the global Indigenous Language for Development Communication in the Global South Tshepang Bright Molale,Abiodun Salawu,Mohammad Sahid Ullah,Enrique Uribe-Jongbloed,2022-11-23 Indigenous Language for Development Communication in the Global South brings together voices from the margins in underrepresented regions of the Global South within the context of scholarship focusing on indigenous languages and development communication Contributors present cases as a starting point for further research and discussions about indigenous language and development communication in Latin America Africa and Asia Scholars of communication sociology linguistics and development studies will find this book of particular interest Ben Enwonwu Sylvester Okwunodu Ogbechie,2008 An intellectual biography of a modern African artist and his immense contribution to twentieth century art history
