Reason And Revolution:

Reason and Revolution Herbert Marcuse, 1968 Reason and Revolution Herbert Marcuse, 1969 Reason and Revolution Herbert Marcuse, 1966 On Cinema Glauber Rocha, 2018-12-27 Glauber Rocha is known as the visionary Brazilian director of landmark films Black God White Devil, Entranced Earth and Antonio das Mortes. Hitherto virtually unknown outside Brazil is that he was also a brilliant film critic and innovative thinker on world cinema. On Cinema brings together for the first time in the English language a comprehensive selection of Rocha's film writings revealing for the first time to English speaking readers the full critical power, inventiveness and vision of a great filmmaker. Rocha's writings endowed with critical verve and humour give insights into key moments of film history as well as the politics of world cinema. Here he fearlessly confronts the film establishment and debates with a host of sacred filmmakers of the world pantheon. Included is Rocha's early criticism of Brazilian films, landmark manifestoes such as An Aesthetics of Hunger and An Aesthetics of Dreams, articles about the development of Cinema Novo and his international film criticism including pieces on Charlie Chaplin, Orson Welles, James Dean, David Lean, John Huston, Stanley Kubrick, John Ford, Jean Luc Godard, Pier Paolo Pasolini, Federico Fellini, Luis Bunuel, Luchino Visconti and Roberto Rossellini. The publication of On Cinema, edited by film scholar Ismail Xavier and in expert translation, is an international publishing event.

The French Revolution, a Political History, 1789-1804 François-Alphonse Aulard, 1910 The Liberating Philosophy of Ignacio Ellacuría Randall Carrera Umaña, Luis Arturo Martínez Vásquez, Luis Rubén Díaz Cepeda, 2024-01-16 The Liberating Philosophy of Ignacio Ellacuría a Historical Reality, Humanism and Praxis is the first systematic work on the philosophy of Ignacio Ellacuría to be published in English so far. The Spaniard, Salvadorian philosopher, murdered in Salvador in 1989 by the military, maintains that philosophy is a permanent task grounded in metaphysics as first philosophy as developed within a historical reality and a preferential option for the poor. As explored by this collection, edited by Luis Arturo Martínez Vásquez, Randall Carrera Umaña and Luis Rubén Díaz Cepeda, Ellacuría's theory is a critical and practical proposal immersed in the colonial history of Central America but its explanatory and normative power extends to oppressed people all around the world. The contributors to this volume, coming from Spain, Mexico, Argentina, Salvador and Costa Rica, analyze Ellacuría's philosophy of liberation in conjunction with radical realism and strength, describing it as a philosophy created by people concerned with the problems and history of our land, such as our colonial past, systemic poverty and dependency, and responding to these concerns can offer alternatives for a true liberation of all the dominated peoples of the world.

For the Love of Psychoanalysis Elizabeth

Rottenberg, 2019-06-04 One of the most interesting scholars working at the intersection of deconstruction and psychoanalysis Rebecca Comay University of Toronto For the Love of Psychoanalysis is a book about what exceeds or resists calculation in life and in death Elizabeth Rottenberg examines what emerges from the difference between psychoanalysis and philosophy Part I Freuderrida announces a non traditional Freud a Freud associated not with sexuality repression unconsciousness and symbolization but with accidents and chance Looking at accidents both in and of Freud's writing Rottenberg elaborates the unexpected insights that both produce and disrupt our received ideas of psychoanalytic theory Whether this disruption is figured as a foreign body as traumatic temporality as spatial unlocatability or as the death drive it points to something neither simply inside nor simply outside the psyche neither psychically nor materially determined Whereas the close reading of Freud leaves us open to the accidents of psychoanalytic writing Part II Freuderrida addresses itself to what transports us back and limits the openness of our horizon Here the example par excellence is the death penalty and the cruelty of its calculating decision If Freuderrida insists on the death penalty if it returns to it compulsively it is not only because its calculating drive is inseparable from the history of reason as philosophical reason it is also because the death penalty provides us with one of the most spectacular and spectacularly obscene expressions of Freud's death drive Brilliant pathbreaking witty and lucidly argued Elissa Marder Emory University this book will be essential reading for anyone interested in Freud Derrida and the many critical debates to which their thought gives rise

Autopsy of Revolution Jacques Ellul, 2012-06-13 In this significant and very timely book the author of The Technological Society The Political Illusion and Propaganda asks a tremendous question and shows that the answer we give it is decisive for the future of our society Can we learn from history what revolution really is necessary for our survival That is can we distinguish between senseless ineffectual revolt or rebellion and a genuine revolution that can alter fundamentals In his basic closely reasoned way Jacques Ellul examines past and recent history in light of the current overwhelming preoccupation with revolution which seems to have become the daily bread of Western man's thoughts and actions the immediate explanation for every historical movement Ellul insists on examining the possibility that today we are projecting onto past events a fairly recent and distorted image of revolution The new image was created by Marx in the nineteenth century and Ellul questions how long we can continue to live on his legacy More important he suggests that Marx may have brought about an abrupt deviation of the necessary revolutionary current and given a false meaning to the word revolution Is all our talk about Marxian revolution talk about reality or a way of filling a void with words Finally among so many social eddies and agitations are we today caught up in a really revolutionary movement or are we being led into blind combat by false lights that in reality are reflections in distorting mirrors Are we capable of discerning the real Revolution the needed Revolution Ellul does not map out a route in detail he clears paths into the future making it possible for a route to be found His masterly book should help to change our thinking and therefore our future
