Rebels And Romantics:

A Narrative of Rebels and Romantics Joseph Freeman, 1938 Claude McKay, Rebel Sojourner in the Harlem Renaissance Wayne F. Cooper, 1996-02 Cooper paints a meticulous and absorbing portrait of McKay's restless artistic intellectual and political odyssey The definitive biography on McKay Choice Although recognized today as one of the genuine pioneers of black literature in this century the author of If We Must Die Home to Harlem Banana Bottom and A Long Way from Home among other works Claude McKay 1890-1948 died penniless and almost forgotten in a Chicago hospital In this masterly study Wayne Cooper presents a fascinating detailed account of McKay's complex chaotic and frequently contradictory life In his poetry and fiction as well as in his political and social commentaries McKay searched for a solid foundation for a valid black identity among the working class cultures of the West Indies and the United States He was an undeniably important predecessor to such younger writers of the Harlem Renaissance as Langston Hughes and Countee Cullen and also to influential West Indian and African writers such as C. L. R. James and Aimé Césaire Knowledge of his life adds important dimensions to our understanding of American radicalism the expatriates of the 1920s and American literature Mr Cooper's most original contribution is his careful and perceptive analysis of McKay's nonfiction writing especially his social and political commentary which often contained prophetic statements on a range of important social political and historical issues New York Times Book Review Spirits of Fire G. A. Rosso, Daniel P. Watkins, 1990 This work is a compilation of twelve essays on romantic literature by practitioners of a resurgent historical criticism sharing the common assumption that no aspect of the object of literary study escapes the conditioning power of historical change Romantic Rebels Kenneth Neill Cameron, 1973 The rebels of the Romantic period speak more directly to the issues of today than any other group of writers of the past Mary Wollstonecraft exposed the problem of women's rights her husband William Godwin protested against war economic and social imbalances and cruel penal practices their daughter Mary Shelley produced the original science fiction Frankenstein and introduced into the novel radical social and antireligious views Shelley campaigned in Ireland for Irish separation wrote pamphlets on parliamentary reform and propounded an egalitarian world Byron addressed himself to problems of social injustice and lost his life as a result of his participation in the Greek war of independence Leigh Hunt the first radical crusading journalist battled all forms of injustice from child labor to army flogging Thomas Love Peacock's lively satiric novels excoriated sham Their rebellion carried into their personal lives Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley and Byron openly flouted the laws of marital relations and several adopted unconventional dress The rebels paid dearly for their public and private views Shelley was deprived of his children Byron was driven into exile and Leigh Hunt was imprisoned The lives and works of these major Romantics are sketched in a concise and lively way in these twelve essays which are derived from Shelley and His Circle Volumes I through IV The collection provides a cohesive picture of some of the Romantics whose lives interlocked in the early 1800s The Romantic Rebels Frances Winwar, 1935 A study of Byron

Shelley and Keats The Social Imagination of the Romantic Wife in Literature Linda L. Reesman, 2024-11-22 The emergence of social change in the daily lives of English society appeared most noticeably through the Romantic era response of human emotions to a period of reason that has defined the era of Enlightenment scientifically and philosophically Remarkably the dramatic political shift that occurred in 1789 from a French monarchy to a constitutional democracy foreshadowed social changes to the family unit that were more slowly evolving throughout England during the eighteenth century An intellectual movement to educate all members of society strengthened efforts to loosen ecclesiastical control allowing more secular definitions of social roles to emerge The nature of marriage during this period in England is central to understanding how the marriage covenant became a widely accepted civil contract Examining the sentiments of passion and virtue the dynamics of traditional marriage emerge through newly established perspectives The role of the wife as a Romantic era concept tells the story of two women through their married lives and literary identities The social imagination provides a new perspective on domestic concerns to illuminate a feminine aspect of the literary market through an understanding of the ordinary wife among female writers Moreover a specific focus on marriage virtue and friendship as seen through two relationships examines individuals who define both a traditional and a non conforming approach to their domestic lives Two husbands who were political and religious activists with wives who were atypical domestics were chosen to exemplify the effects of social change on their particular lives and marital roles in an expanding literary world

The Romanticism of Contemporary Theory Justin Clemens, 2017-03-02 Using Phillipe Lacoue Labarthe and Jean Luc Nancy's groundbreaking study of the persistence of German Idealist philosophy as his starting point Justin Clemens presents a valuable study of the links between Romanticism and contemporary theory The central contention of this book is that contemporary theory is still essentially Romantic despite all its declarations to the contrary and despite all its attempts to elude or exceed the limits bequeathed it by Romantic thought The argument focuses on the ruses of Romanticism's indefinable character under two main rubrics Contexts and Interventions The first three chapters investigate Contexts examining some of the broad trends in the historical and institutional development of Romantic criticism the second section Interventions comprises close readings of the work of Jacques Lacan Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Ian Hunter and Alain Badiou In the first chapter Clemens identifies and traces the development of two interlocking recurrent themes in Romantic criticism the Romantic desire to escape Romanticism and the problem posed to aesthetico philosophical thought by the modern domestication of philosophy in the university He develops these themes in the second chapter by examining the link forged between aesthetics and the subject in the work of Immanuel Kant In the third chapter Clemens shows how the Romantic problems of the academic institution and aesthetics were effectively bound together by the philosophical diagnosis of nihilism Chapter Four focuses on two key moments in the work of Jacques Lacan his theory of the mirror stage and his formulas of sexuation and demonstrates how Lacan returns to the grounding claims of Kantian aesthetics in such a way as to render him complicit with the Romantic thought he often seems to contest In the following chapter taking Deleuze and Guattari's notion of multiplicity as a guiding thread Clemens links their account to their professed anti Platonism showing how they find themselves forced back onto emblematically Romantic arguments Chapter Six provides a close reading of Sedgwick's most influential text Epistemology of the Closet Clemens reading localizes her practice both in the newly consolidated academic field of Queer Theory and in a conceptual genealogy whose roots can be traced back to a particular anti Enlightenment strain of Romanticism Clemens next turns to the professedly anti Romantic arguments of Ian Hunter a major figure in the ongoing re writing of modern histories of education In the final chapter he examines the work of the contemporary French philosopher Alain Badiou Clemens argues that if Badiou's hostility to the diagnosis of nihilism his return to Plato and mathematics and his expulsion of poetry from philosophical method all place him at a genuine distance from dominant Romantic trends even this attempt admits ciphered Romantic elements This study will be of interest to literary theorists philosophers political theorists and cultural studies scholars WAR - Disruption: An Action-Packed Romantic Thriller Vanessa Kier,2014-12-15 Enjoy this edge of your seat series by romantic thriller author Vanessa Kier He s been trained for war but nothing prepared him for love Max Lansing is convinced someone deep inside the military is protecting an international arms dealer Every time they get close the target slips through their fingers Desperate to catch the man who almost killed his brother Max strikes out on his own to protect his old black ops team but quickly finds himself under fire from every direction Because of his choices a group of American dancers gets caught in the crosshairs and blood is shed Max grabs the sole survivor and runs Former prima ballerina Emily Iwasaki was promised her trip to West Africa to help raise awareness for war orphans would be safe In a flurry of gunfire everyone around her is killed and she finds herself on the run with a stranger she s not sure she can trust but the sizzling chemistry between them can t be denied Stakes are raised A weapon of mass destruction must be recovered Max has no choice but to work with Emily or thousands more innocents will die In the midst of the jungle with rebels hot on their heels a costly mistake leaves Emily in danger and alone Max will do anything to save the woman he now loves even walk away from the vengeance he promised his brother If you like dark gritty edge of your seat action strong heroes and heroines who are pushed to their physical and moral limits and an international setting then you ll love the first book in Vanessa Kier s action packed romantic thriller series WAR Get WAR Disruption now to start the adventure
