establishment of about 5 000 councils Throughout the period data on self government reforms collected from localities were compiled in provincial capitals then collated summarized and archived in Beijing Simultaneously directives were being sent from the capital to the provinces From this wealth of previously unexamined material Roger R Thompson draws a portrait in motion of the reforms He demonstrates the energy and significance of the late Qing local self government movement while making a compelling case that it was separate from the well studied phenomenon of provincial assemblies and constitutionalism in general The Bookman ,1913 The Metropolitan Library Record Peking National Library,1928
