Pile of Bones Queen City of the West Regina's nicknames accurately reflect the city's exotic and varied history Founded in 1882 Regina was one of the new towns that appeared along the Canadian Pacific Railway line as the end of steel marched steadily westward J William Brennan shows that Regina was and in many respects still is a man made city its location determined by the CPR and a cabal of land speculators He demonstrates how a variety of forces immigration and King Wheat the postwar oil and potash boom and the spread of American popular culture shaped the economic and social fabric of Regina over nearly a century He offers finely crafted thumbnail sketches of her prominent and powerful citizens and of more obscure citizens who nonetheless contributed greatly in the fields of labour and social services to the city's development Handsomely illustrated with 150 historical photographs many never before published Regina An Illustrated History reflects on the unique past of this remarkable western city Illustrated History of Plumas, Lassen & Sierra Counties, 1882 Illustrated History of Nebraska Julius Sterling Morton, 1907 The Prairie West as Promised Land R. Douglas Francis, Chris Kitzen, 2007 Millions of immigrants were attracted to the Canadian West by promotional literature from the government in the late 19th century to the First World War bringing with them visions of opportunity to create a Utopian society or a chance to take control of their own destinies An Illustrated History of Yellow Medicine County, Minnesota Arthur P. Rose, 1914 An Illustrated History of the State of Oregon Harvey Kimball Hines, 1893 An Illustrated History of the Big Bend Country Richard F. Steele, 1904 An Illustrated History of Lincoln County, Nebraska, and Her People Ira L. Bare, 1920 An Illustrated History of North Idaho, 1903 History of settlers as well as Indians in the northern counties of Idaho including extensive biographical sketches of prominent citizens The Gorilla Man Strangler Case Alvin A. J. Esau, 2022-06-15 The hitchhiker seemed harmless He was dressed in a blue suit and a colorful sweater accessorized with a grey cap and tan shoes He carried nothing It was the morning of June 8 1927 when the Chandler family picked up the well dressed man in Minnesota and dropped him at the Canadian border They had unwittingly transported notorious serial killer The Gorilla Man who had strangled more than twenty women from one end of the United States to the other He would later murder Emily Patterson and 14 year old Lola Cowan in Winnipeg His identity was unknown Written by Alvin A J Esau The Gorilla Man Strangler Case Serial Killer Earle Nelson is a detailed historical account of the Canadian manhunt capture and identification of Earle Leonard Nelson an escapee from a California mental institution Drawing on archival sources it s the first reliable biography of Nelson who was hung in Manitoba on January 13 1928 This case study also deals with various political and professional issues that arose in the pretrial trial and post trial periods and spotlights the clash between Nelson s court appointed defence attorney James Stitt and psychiatrist Dr Alvin Mathers along with the chilling role of Canada s so called official hangman Arthur Ellis all information that has never been published before Esau also raises various enduring issues about the social construction of serial killers debates about capital punishment psychopathy the scope of the insanity defence the effect of pretrial publicity and the trial as public entertainment

Westward Bound Lesley Erickson, 2011-08-01 In the late nineteenth century European expansionism found one of its last homes in North America While the American West was renowned for its lawlessness the Canadian Prairies enjoyed a tamer reputation symbolized by the Mounties legendary triumph over chaos Westward Bound debunks the myth of Canada s peaceful West and the masculine conceptions of law and violence upon which it rests by shifting the focus from Mounties and whisky traders to criminal cases involving women between 1886 and 1940 Lesley Erickson reveals that judges and juries responses to the most intimate or violent acts reflected a desire to shore up the liberal order by maintaining boundaries between men and women Native peoples and newcomers and capital and labour Victims and accused could only hope to harness entrenched ideas about masculinity femininity race and class in their favour The results Erickson shows were predictable but never certain This fascinating exploration of hegemony and resistance in key contact zones draws prairie Canada into larger debates about law colonialism and nation building
