Regional Development And Decentralization Policy In South Korea:

Regional Development and Decentralization Policy in South Korea Ludwig Schätzl, Karin Wessel, Yong-Woo Lee, 1997 This book investigates the interdependent relations between economic development regional development and spatial economic policy in newly industrialized countries using South Korea as a case study The analysis concentrates on three aspects a long term economic restructuring starting with labour intensive production followed by capital intensive and finally human capital and technology intensive production b the effects of the economic transformation process on regional development and c the significance of spatial economic policy for sectoral and regional economic restructuring

Growth Pole Strategy and Regional Development Policy Fu-Chen Lo, Kamal Salih, 2013-10-22 Growth Pole Strategy and Regional Development Policy Asian Experience and Alternative Approaches focuses on theoretical and practical issues in regional policy including analytical and strategic approaches to regional development and underdevelopment problems The selection first offers information on Asian case studies in decentralization policy and the growth pole approach including trends in development planning in Japan and the case study of the Mizushima industrial complex Topics include the period of post war reconstruction plan formulation and implementation of Mizushima industrial complex development and interregional dispersion of development of national economy The text also examines the case study of the Ulsan industrial complex in Korea The book looks at decentralization policy growth pole approach and resource frontier development as well as regional structure and uneven economic development in Southeast Asia policy responses toward regional development in Southeast Asia and growth pole approach in Southeast Asia The text also focuses on growth strategies and human settlement in developing countries and growth poles and regional policy in open dualistic economies The selection is a vital reference for readers interested in the theoretical and practical approaches in regional development policy

Globalizing Regional Development in East Asia Henry Wai-chung Yeung, 2013-09-13 Significant historical and geographical differences account for the many processes and trajectories of regional development in East Asia These historical and geographical specificities in East Asia have prompted serious re examination of existing theories in regional development and in particular the new regionalism approach associated with such ideas as the learning region institutional thickness relational assets and regional innovation system This book brings together a group of leading researchers specializing in local and regional development in East Asian economies Through in depth empirical studies of specific regions and localities these authors offer fresh and innovative perspectives on how regions evolve and develop over time in the world s most dynamic macro regional economy In particular their work points to the critical importance of local and trans local processes in shaping regional development trajectories The book is timely given that the debate on the nature and dynamics of regional development in both academic and policy circles has now moved on From the earlier focus on endogenous regional assets such as localized networks of association and trust scholars and policymakers are now analyzing the complex relationship between economic globalization and regional change This high calibre collection makes a significant contribution to the literature on local and regional development in Asia and provides an important resource for researchers students and policy makers interested in East Asia This book was published as a special issue of Regional Studies Global Challenges and Local Responses Jang-Sup Shin,2007-08-07 East Asia has in many ways been the cockpit of the globalization process If the phenomenon as it is generally defined is largely recognized as a relatively recent one the countries that have experienced most change during this period have been in the region Rapid economic growth leading to the Tigers label was followed by financial crisis and partial recovery Underlying this has been the remarkable success story of Japan since the Second World War followed by the current seemingly inexorable progress of China towards centrality on the world stage Jang Sup Shin has amassed an international team of contributors to shed light on how the various Asian countries have responded to the globalization process These include James Crotty Lu Ding and Ha Joon Chang Urban and Regional Policy in Korea and International Experiences Harry Ward Richardson,Myong Chan Hwang,1987 Ibss: Political Science: 1997 British Library of Political and Economic Science,1999-01-14 Provides an unrivalled overview of intellectual development in political science Exporting Urban Korea? Se Hoon Park,Hyun Bang Shin,Hyun Soo Kang,2020-12-23 A detailed examination of the Korean development model from its urban dimension evaluating its sociopolitical contexts and implications for international development cooperation There is an increasing tendency to use the development experience of Asian countries as a reference point for other countries in the Global South Korea s condensed urbanization and industrialization accompanied by the expansion of new cities and industrial complexes across the country have become one such model even if the fruits of such development may not have been equitably shared across geographies and generations The chapters in this book critically reassess the Korean urban development experience from regional policy to new town development demonstrating how these policy experiences were deeply rooted in Korea s socioeconomic environment and discussing what can be learned from them when applying them in other developmental contexts This book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in the field of urban studies and developmental studies in general and in Korea s urban development experience in particular Chapters 1 2 4 and 12 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Urbanization And Urban Policies In Pacific Asia Roland J Fuchs,2019-09-18 This book is the outcome of the Conference on Population Growth Urbanization and Urban Policies in the Asia Pacific Region held in Honolulu during 8 12 April 1985 It provides wide attention among development planners urban managers and scholars in the field of urban and development planning As Borders Bend Xiangming Chen,2005 As do other mighty forces such as wars nationalist aspirations and the shifting courses of great rivers globalization changes the world s borders by bending them out of shape and creating new transnational spaces State political boundaries no longer draw the definitive line in people s lives they once did Borders continue to contain self described national populations and national activities but the penetration of economic globalization via growing cross border trade investment and resurgence of myriad regional ethnic groups is pushing and stretching the limits of borders into both interactive spaces and contested terrains Indeed new power centers with their own identities are springing out of once politically trivial and economically marginal landscapes While the terrorist attacks of 2001 and the SARS outbreak of 2003 prompted states to tighten border controls their efforts amount to only a temporary reversal of a powerful long term trend toward more open borders and the interactive transnational spaces that openness fosters This innovative book examines the complexities of de bordering and re bordering through a structured comparison of seven transborder subregions along the western Pacific Rim and an extended comparative analysis of the U S Mexico border and several European border regions Xiangming Chen offers a synthetic explanation for the complex and diverse processes and outcomes of economic growth social transformation infrastructure development and urban landscapes in the new transnational spaces around the porous and mutated borders on the Pacific Rim and beyond Handbook of Regional Growth and Development Theories Roberta Capello, Peter Nijkamp, 2010-01-01 This Handbook is essential reading for anyone with an interest in the explanation of economic growth in the space economy The editors and the individual contributors are to be congratulated on producing such an important collection of review essays which is destined to become one of the definitive reference books on the subject John McCombie Scienze Regionali offers a valuable up to date overview of many aspects of these important theoretical developments Peter Wood Environment development theories of innovation knowledge and space and regional production factors and growth theories and space This book will be a source of reference and information for both scholars and students in the area of regional economics Creating Knowledge Locations in Cities Willem van Winden, Luis de Carvalho, Erwin van Tuijl, Jeroen van Haaren, Leo van den Berg, 2013-06-19 Based on a clear and comprehensive literature review this book contains an analysis of five knowledge locations in Europe and one in South Korea The case studies in the book cover several European countries Ireland Finland Germany Spain The Netherlands The cases are well grounded in the different contexts that these national settings provide which allows comparisons between them

Regional Science in Developing Countries Manas Chatterji, Kaizong Yang, 2016-07-27 Developing countries are suffering from the multiple and overlapping problems of poverty malnutrition excessive population growth and also the increased environmental pollution due to rapid industrialization and urbanization particularly in the existing urban centres The migration from rural areas of agricultural population to urban areas is making this situation more problematic The lack of established institutions leads to the failure of public policy no matter how efficiently it is formulated The book discusses the major regional developmental problems in poor countries covering economic social and environmental problems It deals with case studies for a set of individual countries and discusses their unique problems investigating how the established methods of regional science can be used to solve some of these problems Korea's Political Economy Lee-Jay

Cho,2019-03-07 Over the past three decades South Korea has moved along a path of strong economic growth and political democratization attracting worldwide attention and providing valuable lessons for other developing economies Yet Korea still must grapple with many intractable problems fueled by its rapid industrialization and uneven growth including unbalanced distribution of wealth concentrated economic power and adversarial relationships between management and labor Within the context of these sweeping changes this volume explores options for economic and social institutional reform in Korea Drawing on models of economic development from Japan the United States and Europe a distinguished group of Asian and Western scholars relates the experiences of previously industrialized economies to each facet of Koreas economic system including national management taxation and banking land ownership and use trade and industrial strategy and relations among business ownership management and labor In so doing the contributors provide valuable insights and fresh proposals for a viable model of social and economic modernization Throughout the volume the contributors emphasize the importance of Koreas cultural heritage not only in explaining the nations recent growth but also as a key element of its continued success By providing an overview of the evolution and interaction of Korean economic political and sociocultural institutions the contributors make clear how these structures mediate the movement between cultural values and economic progress

Regional Development Planning and Management of Urbanization United Nations Centre for Human Settlements,1997

Public Administration and Policy in Korea Keun Namkoong,Kyung-ho Cho,Sangmook Kim,2017-07-06 The present Korean public administration and policy system has shown very significant differences compared to the system in 1970s This book provides a comprehensive and holistic view on the development of Korean public policy and administration The book aims to explain who the key actors are during the post democratization period how the administrative systems reform and what kinds of social problems are transformed into public policies

Locating Neoliberalism in East Asia Bae-Gyoon Park,Richard Child Hill,Asato Saito,2012-01-04 Locating Neoliberalism in East Asia Neoliberalizing Spaces in Developmental States examines the influence of neo liberal ideologies on urban and regional policies and practices in several Asian Pacific nations

Represents one of the few studies of neoliberal changes in East Asia one of the most important topics in social science research over the past two decades Considers the Asian perspective by focusing on readings from Asian experts Pays special attention to the spatial dimension of the East Asian neoliberalization Examines the influence of neo liberal ideologies on urban and regional policies and practices in several Asian Pacific nations Explores the evolving relationship between the two political economies

Globalization and Educational Restructuring in the Asia Pacific Region K. Mok,Anthony Welch,2003-03-13 The focus of this book is to examine the growing impact of globalization on education policy and development in the Asia Pacific region It analyses the reaction of selected societies and the strategies that their governments have adopted in response to the tidal wave of marketization corporization commercialization and privatization Particular attention is paid to educational restructuring in the context of globalization

The Asian City: Processes of Development,

Characteristics and Planning Ashok K. Dutt, F.J. Costa, Surinder Aggarwal, A.G. Noble, 1994-10-31 In The Asian City the Asian urbanisation processes nature and characteristics of the 1990s have been analyzed by countries by comparing different countries and in an international context The authors are urban specialists from four continents This volume has been divided into six parts Part I Urbanisation in an international context Part II Comparative urban setting Part III Urbanisation characteristics by country Part IV Urban planning Part V The urban poor and Part VI Perspectives on urbanization This work allows the reader to understand Asian urban forms their evolution the nature of urbanisation its impact on economic growth in cities the living and working conditions of the poor and urban planning and problems International Labour

Documentation International Labour Office. Central Library and Documentation Branch, International Labour Office. Central Library and Documentation Bureau, 1997 Understanding Korean Public Administration Kwang-Kook Park, Wonhee Lee, Seok-Hwan Lee, 2016-06-17 Although much has been written about the Korean public administration the international academic community has little knowledge about it as most of the literature has been written in Korean This book aims to provide more accessible knowledge internationally by filling that gap covering both the history and the current status of the Korean public administration This book is a collaboration of many Korean public administration scholars and would appeal to those interested in the secrets of Korea's rapid development in such a short span of time Each chapter covers historical contexts key to understanding its public administration and an important aspect as Korea is a fast changing society The book takes on a more pragmatic approach rather than to put the Korean experiences into the western theory Each chapter therefore provides an extensive discussion on the lessons learned and practical implications
