Regional Innovation Systems Hans-Joachim Braczyk, Philip Cooke, Martin Heidenreich, 2024-11-01 Since the first edition of this book in 1995 there has been a worldwide innovation led economic boom and a subsequent slump meaning enormous change has also occurred at the level of regional economies The new edition registers this change and provides an interesting test of the robustness of the original arguments in the book Not least more industrial policy making is influenced by the RIS analysis and many national and regional governments have adopted RIS approaches along with related instruments like promotion of industry clusters academic entrepreneurship regional venture capital and science led development strategies

Regional Innovation Systems Hans-Joachim Braczyk, Philip N. Cooke, Martin Heidenreich, 1998 Regional Innovation Systems Hans-Joachim Braczyk, Philip Cooke, Martin Heidenreich, 2003-09-02 Since 1995 there has been a worldwide innovation led boom and subsequent slump meaning enormous change in regional economies The new edition registers this change and provides an interesting test of the robustness of the original arguments

Innovation Governance in an Open Economy Annika Rickne, Staffan Laestadius, Henry Etzkowitz, 2012-05-04 In an increasingly globalised world paradoxically regional innovation clusters have moved to the forefront of attention as a strategy for economic and social development Transcending international success cases like Silicon Valley and Route 128 as sources of lessons successful high tech clusters in niche areas have had a significant impact on peripheral regions Are these successful innovation clusters born or made If they are subject to planning and direction what is the shape that it takes top down bottom up or lateral

Advanced Introduction to Regional Innovation Systems Bjørn T. Asheim, Arne Isaksen, Michaela Trippl, 2019 Over the past 25 years the regional innovation system RIS approach has become a powerful framework for explaining the uneven geographical distribution of innovation in space as well as for developing policies geared towards boosting the innovation capability of regional economies This Advanced Introduction provides a critical review and discussion of research on RIS to answer a set of core questions covering the origins of the concept and its theoretical underpinnings to the challenges for future scholarly work on RIS

New Avenues for Regional Innovation Systems - Theoretical Advances, Empirical Cases and Policy Lessons Arne Isaksen, Roman Martin, Michaela Trippl, 2018-03-01 This book discusses the latest theoretical advances in regional innovation research presents empirical cases involving the development of regional innovation systems RISs and explores regional innovation policy approaches Grounded in the extensive literature on RISs it addresses state of the art developments in light of recent theoretical advances in economic geography and related disciplines Written in honor of Bjørn Asheim's seventieth birthday the book includes novel and carefully selected chapters prepared by collaborators colleagues and former

PhD students of one of the founding fathers of RIS research Further it makes a significant contribution to the academic debate on regional innovation and growth and offers valuable insights for scholars and policymakers alike Rethinking Regional Innovation and Change: Path Dependency or Regional Breakthrough Gerhard Fuchs, Philip Shapira, 2006-02-17 Rethinking Regional Innovation and Change brings together papers from leading international scholars in the field of regional development and policy The contributors examine the interactions between path dependent developments institutions and governance structures that influence regional innovation capacity Up to date case studies present diverse theoretical perspectives from economics political science geography planning and public policy Taken as a whole the volume offers a broad and up to date perspective on the inheritance aspect of an area s future Without exception the chapters are insightful interesting and a pleasure to read Let us hope that this excellent work will find its way to the desks of authorities in charge for regional policy If anything the book still urges policy makers to start from the simple piece of wisdom that regions tend to go from where they are coming Paradoxically it is from this very notion of path dependency that most regional breakthroughs can be expected Gert Jan Hospers Regions Volume 256 April 2005 Innovation In Forestry Gerhard Weiss, 2011 Innovation is increasingly recognized as a key factor in environmental protection and balanced sustainable development within the forestry sector This volume provides a comprehensive theoretical foundation for the analysis of innovation processes and policies in a traditional rural sector as well as presenting empirical analyses of innovation processes from major innovation areas Territorial services of the forest sector are examined including various types of forest ecosystem services such as carbon sequestration or recreation and wood value chains including timber frame construction and High-technology Clusters, Networking and Collective Learning in Europe David Keeble, Frank Wilkinson, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 This text presents a study of collective learning networking and high technology regions in Europe It first provides an overview of the subject area then goes on to discuss topics such as the role of inter SME networking and collective learning processes in European high technology milieux Linking Industries Across the World Eike W. Schamp, 2019-06-04 Originally published in 2005 This book examines how regional industries use different networks on various geographical scales in order to withstand increasing competition in a globalising world It argues that new forms of global governance of networked industries are emerging in particular in those areas that have only recently been incorporated into the global economy such as Eastern Europe Asia and Southern Africa The book addresses a number of issues including the different forms of institutional arrangements that contribute to the formation of heterogeneous global industrial networks It also raises the issue of national institutions that still matter in network formation The focus of the book is on how to improve regional and sectoral competitiveness in a global context and it suggests this is best achieved by a close analysis of global linkages an evolutionary perspective on processes taking place and a more differentiated view on globalisation Bargaining with Multinationals H. Loewendahl, 2001-07-19 In Bargaining with

Multinationals Loewendahl scrutinises the relationship between multinational companies regional development and governments using an international political economy framework of bargaining between government and multinationals He critically analyses the role of foreign investment in economic development and examines how governments can link inward investment to regional economic development Based on extensive use of data interviews and case studies of Siemens and Nissan s UK investment the book shows why MNCs have invested in the UK in the past how they bargained with the government and what the impact was on the national and regional economies In particular through linking the strategy of multinationals to the location advantages of the UK it is argued that labour flexibility and incentives were crucial to investment decisions Loewendahl recommends a framework to integrate endogenous and exogenous approaches to developments and proposes a greater role for the region and the EU to control incentives and monitor multinationals

Enterprising Worlds Jay D. Gatrell,Neil Reid,2007-05-16 Enterprising World represents the culmination of several years of work by geographers planners and economists The chapters represent the collective efforts of the International Geographical Union s Commission on the Dynamics of Economic Spaces This collection is the result of the 2005 annual meeting in Toledo Ohio USA The chapters have been selected based on their contribution to the broader community of economic geographers and policymakers and to demonstrate the inherent interconnectedness of these themes and at times the conceptual tension that exists between ethics economics and the environment insofar as these important issues shape the contours and cleavages of contemporary regional development In particular the chapters represent the diversity of perspectives on these issues The authors provide insight into the workings of a variety of communities regions and nations as they seek to balance economic growth with the growing necessity to simultaneously promote ethical and sustainable regional development As such this book is truly international in both scale and scope and provides the reader with a survey of emerging and established concepts theories and conflicts in economic geography

Global Competition and Local Networks Rod B. McNaughton, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2002 The interest in becoming globally competitive through network strategies particularly networks between small and medium sized firms in local business communities is high among academic researchers economic development agencies and growth orientated firms Important contributions to our understanding of the strategic use of networks are coming from a number of disciplinary and theoretical perspectives This volume provides a unique opportunity to both synthesize this diverse literature and report the results of original research It is particularly relevant to scholars of business and management geography and economics

The Globalizing Learning Economy Daniele Archibugi, Bengt-Ake Lundvall, 2002-10-03 This volume analyses some of the major current trends and policy challenges in the new economy from the point of view of technical innovation and competence building It brings together the leading European expertise on different topics in this field Together the authors give a picture of the most dramatic new challenges in a world where competition is becoming increasingly knowledge based and global Why has the US economy been able to realise a so called new economy based on the effective exploitation of information technology while Europe still suffers from chronic high rates of unemployment How is it that contemporary economic systems have become more knowledge intensive but social inequality both within and across countries is increasing The contributors to this volume share the belief that knowledge is a fundamental component of economic growth and welfare However the ways in which knowledge is transmitted and distributed among economic agents requires shaping by public policies The individual chapters report on the most significant policies adopted and assess them in the light of the European experience in comparison with the United States and Japan

Strategies for Shaping Territorial Competitiveness Jesús M. Valdaliso, James R. Wilson, 2015-04-10 This book focuses on the main challenges that cities regions and other territories at sub national level face when it comes to designing and implementing a territorial strategy for economic development and competitiveness There is a widespread recognition that territories need to construct strategies that focus on shaping sustainable competitive advantages To do this they draw upon their own unique resources and capabilities alongside intelligence on existing technological and market trends However there is still a notorious lack of both theoretical and empirical research on this issue The first part of this book develops a theoretical framework for understanding and analysing territorial strategy This framework asks three questions of territorial strategy what for what and how looking closely at the key relationship between strategy and policy The second part is dedicated to exploring this framework in practice through application to a series of unique cases from around the world at different territorial levels from regions such as the Basque Country Navarre and Murcia in Spain Okanagan British Columbia in Canada Wales in the United Kingdom and the cross border region of the resund in Denmark Sweden as well as the city of Rafaela in Argentina

Each case offers something different and enables the framework to be thoroughly tested generating concluding reflections that add real value for scholars and policy makers interested in and working in the field of territorial strategy This volume is intended for the academic community the policy community government leaders policy makers policy researchers and consultants and university students and teachers at different levels interested in the areas of territorial competitiveness regional development competitiveness policies and processes of territorial strategy Knowledge Perspectives of New Product Development Dimitris G Assimakopoulos,Elias G. Carayannis,Rafiq Dossani,2011-12-02 New Product Development NPD is about the ideation formulation and implementation of new and superior solutions in the market Beyond the obvious need for organizations to innovate in order to compete embedded in any NPD program are knowledge technological expertise and the social networks that convert these capabilities into offerings that create value at every level for customers industries communities and regions This volume provides an array of knowledge perspective in NPD across multiple levels of analysis and geographic regions including Europe the United States China Japan and India to explore the dynamics of NPD in today s global environment Presenting case studies from such industries as ICT services semiconductors software development bio technology higher education and even safety for children s toys and drawing from a variety of theoretical perspectives including technology and knowledge management sociology economic geography and organizational behavior the authors highlight critical success and failure factors in NPD Among the topics covered New product development teams including multi functional and multi site teams De localization and off shoring of tasks and processes Individual competencies and organizational capabilities University industry interactions high tech clusters and technology transfer Technology policy

Restructuring Industry and Territory Anna Giunta,Arnoud Lagendijk,Andy Pike,2016-02-04 Examining the current trends in regional economic development in Europe Restructuring Industry and Territory explores ways in which the restructuring of industry and territorial development relate to each other their emergent interdependency and role in economic development The book argues that the structural and cultural features of regions play an important part in helping or hindering concerted policies for regional development Using case studies from different industries in a variety of regions the contributors show that the pressures for restructuring such as internationalisation or even globalisation have been mediated by formerly nationally rooted industries in Europe becoming increasingly integrated due to the ongoing processes of technological and organisational innovation and political regulation
