Regionalism Change In The Econom:

Regional Change in Industrializing Asia Leo van Grunsven, 2019-01-04 First published in 1998 this book responds to the dynamics of Industrializing Asia and the behavioural changes of actors which in response to changing internal and external forces have given rise to and are constantly giving rise to alterations in patterns of growth From a geographical perspective these are expressed in regional change understood as a reconstruction of spatial organization The imperatives of dynamic comparative advantage changing global or regional competitiveness and regional competition faced by different actors entities or territorial units can be identified as important forces underlying and shaping regional change This volume provides further illumination contextualization and interpretation of the spatiality of the economic reality in Industrializing Asia as well as the role played by and the implications for different actors The objectives of this book are 1 to outline the processes of regional change linked to responses in the form of restructuring and integrative and regionalization tendencies as well as the realignment of the global regional local divide in production systems complexes and the operation of firms associated with reorganization of production in the process of maintaining and reconfiguring comparative advantage 2 to highlight the wide scope of the process by considering differential units of analysis linked to the agents and manifestations of regional change and the role of scale in terms of the spatial units involved 3 to highlight the implications as to the current and future position or role of differential actors agents particularly nation state in shaping the new economic reality in the region and as a corollary its positioning in the global economic order      Asian Regionalism in the World Economy Masahiro Kawai, Jong-Wha Lee, Peter A. Petri, 2010-01-01 The structure and policy architecture of the world economy as it emerges from the historic challenges now underway will be affected by the dramatic rise of Asian economies and deepening connections among them This important book examines the dramatic transformation of the Asian economy the challenges it faces emerging regional solutions and how Asia can play a more constructive role in the global economy Asia is becoming not just the world's factory but also its leading creditor and one of its key sources of dynamism and stability Key questions are identified and addressed in three areas Asia's growth and productivity financial stability and regional economic integration In each of these areas the contributing authors evaluate current trends and the forces shaping the future They consider whether the regions progress is sustainable and what it will take to make it so How is Asia reshaping its economy in response to the changing global landscape More urgently how can Asia weather the severe global financial and economic storm originating from the global credit crisis How will it extend its gains to people left behind And how can it contribute to better governance and greater prosperity in the world economy This book covers new ground by connecting theory assembling detailed evidence on trends and challenges and offering forward-looking policy prescriptions This timely book will appeal to Asian economic policymakers as well as postgraduate students interested in Asian economics international economics and regional integration Staff of international and regional organizations interested in Asian economics will also find this book invaluable      The Political Economy of Regional Cooperation in the Middle East Ali Carkoglu, Mine Eder, Kemal Kirisci, 2005-07-08 This book shows that co operation between the more open regimes in the Middle East such as Israel Jordan Egypt Palestine and Turkey could pave the way to increased stability in the region      Industrial Change and Regional Economic Transformation Lloyd Rodwin, Hidehiko Sazanami, 2017-08-22 Originally published in 1991 This book deals with industrial and regional changes in Western Europe and the effectiveness of policies designed to cope with them It examines the regional experiences including successes as well as problems to illuminate the trends and policies raises questions about the issues and reports on the effects and further implications for not just Europe but Japan and many newly industrializing countries Analysing the evolution and effectiveness of local regional national and European policies this is of interest for industrial and development specialises as well as economists planners geographers and policy makers

Developmental Regionalism and the Political Economy of Africa's Integration Gabila Fohtung Nubong, 2023-05-18 In Developmental Regionalism and the Political Economy of Africa's Integration Gabila Nubong argues that there are opportunities to transform the continent and the structural nature of its economies Nubong revisits some of the earlier debates of Africa's industrialization and explores avenues of leveraging current opportunities to industrialize by focusing on integrating unbundled global production value chains This book proposes that Africa should shift its development paradigm to pursue a model of regional corporation that combines integration and development objectives together coined as Developmental Regionalism This approach would move African countries up global production value chains with the transformation of their minerals and the diversification of their economies through avenues of industrialization that unbundle production processes and increase servicification of manufacturing Nubong argues that with breaking away from the proverbial resource curse and taking advantage of its demographic dividend and growing economies Africa can chart a different future for itself within a developmental regionalism paradigm      Crisis and Institutional Change in Regional Integration Sabine Saurugger, Fabien Terpan, 2016-03-31 Comparative regional integration has met with increasing interest over the last twenty years with the emergence or reinforcing of new regional dynamics in the EU NAFTA MERCOSUR and ASEAN This volume systematically and comparatively analyses the reasons for regional integration and stalemate in European Latin American and Asian regional integration It examines whether regional integration systems change in crisis periods or more precisely in periods of economic crises and why they change in different directions Based on a neo institutionalist research framework and rigorously comparative research design the individual chapters analyse why financial and economic crises lead to more or less integrated systems and which factors lead to these institutional changes Specifically it addresses institutional change in regional integration schemes power relations between member states and the institutions in different policy domains and change in individual or collective citizens attitudes towards regional integration Adopting an actor centred approach the book highlights which regional integration schemes are influenced by economic and financial crises and how to explain this This text will be of key interest to scholars students and policy specialists in regional integration European Politics International Relations and Latin American and Asian studies Regional Economic Integration and the Global Financial System Sorhun, Engin,Hac?o?lu, Ümit,Dinçer, Hasan,2014-11-30 In theory regionalism and globalization are intended to be viewed as two separate concepts However as long as the approaches complement each other considering these paradigms in tandem can have significantly positive effects on the overall status of the world economy Regional Economy Integration and the Global Financial System addresses recent trends in regional integration projects and the strides that such projects are making on the road toward globalization Focusing on a range of economic projects emerging supranational units and possible implications for future trends this book is an essential reference source for professionals scholars and institutions interested in the dynamic effects of regionalism and globalization Regional Development Agencies and Business Change Gill Bentley,John Gibney,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 Providing an introduction to contemporary regional economic development issues this book analyzes whether the Regional Development Agencies ROAs have the organizational capacities to cope with complex business and economic development challenges The New American Regionalism Heinz Gert Preusse,2004-01-01 The heart of Professor Preusse s book deals with the two main integration agreements in the Americas NAFTA and MERCOSUR and the incipient FTAA The handling of these three cases is masterful replete with description data theoretical analysis and opinion His book is a most worthwhile and stimulating read certainly for those interested in Western Hemisphere developments From the foreword by Sidney Weintraub This book provides a broad quantitative analysis of the new facets of regionalism in the Americas In particular major aspects of the New American Regionalism are discussed in terms of two basic notions the genuine political character of economic integration schemes and the profound inter connectedness of the American regions with the global economy Growth, Distribution and Political Change Malcolm Falkus,Kwan S.
