Huddersfield Festival 1985

Christopher Fox

HAVING SUCCESSFULLY ACHIEVED THE IMPOSSIBLE—a festival of new music in the heart of industrial Yorkshire—Richard Steinitz regularly caps it by managing the miraculous: a festival whose programmes simply compel attendance. After festivals based around Xenakis in 1982, Henze in 1983, Maxwell Davies and Kagel in 1984—each offering opportunities to hear new work and, perhaps as importantly, to reassess reputations—1985 was the year of the Italians (Berio in particular) and the English (especially Jonathan Harvey, Bernard Rands, and Michael Finnissy). Alongside Berio, Salvatore Sciarrino and Aldo Clementi were also invited to be present, although Sciarrino decided not to risk the rigours of November in Huddersfield.

The Festival format was the same as that in recent years: nine days of concerts, lectures, and workshops arranged round a central weekend, with the most spectacular events reserved for this weekend. This year, for Berio's 60th birthday, both Saturday and Sunday evenings were given over to concerts in which his work featured exclusively: on Saturday we heard a collection of solo pieces, Visage, and circles and on Sunday Points on the curve to find, Folk Songs, and Coro. Inevitably, the shade of Cathy Berberian hovers around most performances of circles and Folk Songs, both works relying much on the personality of their female vocalists. In circles, Elizabeth Lawrence's performance was rather understated both vocally and theatrically, the voice rather covered in tone, the movements rather studied, although Jean-Pierre Drouet and Sylvio Gualda were stunning in the two percussion parts. In Folk Songs (given in the orchestral version) Sarah Walker was quite brilliant, revelling in every opportunity for vocal and histrionic display that the work provides.

However, the outstanding piece of the Berio weekend was Coro with the composer conducting the BBC Singers and Symphony Orchestra in the Town Hall. The acoustic was probably not ideal—it favoured the weightier moments, to which it lent a Victorian homogeneity—but then few halls can do full justice to Berio's elaborate timbral continua and allow the ear to hear every stage in transitions between music for a single voice or instrument and music for an ensemble of forty instrumentalists each paired with a solo vocalist. But for those who, like me, knew the work only from the composer's recording, this performance was a revelation, the singing and playing superb, the great pillars of tutti writing exhilaratingly powerful, the more soloistic passages that these frame richly varied in their invention. What became clear was that Coro is 'about' choral music as Sinfonia is about symphonic music: where
