Hofmann,Gerard C. Rowe,Alexander H. Türk,2011-10-27 This book is a comprehensive detailed and highly systematic treatment which both describes and critically analyses the administrative law and policy of the European Union Disability and Information Technology Eliza Varney,2013-03-11 Disability and Information Technology examines the extent to which regulatory frameworks for information and communication technologies ICTs safeguard the rights of persons with disabilities as citizenship rights It adopts a comparative approach focused on four case studies Canada the European Union the United Kingdom and the United States It focuses on the tension between social and economic values in the regulation of ICTs and calls for a regulatory approach based on a framework of principles that reflects citizenship values The analysis identifies challenges encountered in the jurisdictions examined and points toward the rights based approach advanced by the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities as a benchmark in protecting the rights of persons with disabilities to have equal access to information The research draws on a wealth of resources including legislation cases interviews consultation documents and responses from organisations representing persons with disabilities Research Handbook on EU Internet Law Andrej Savin,Jan Trzaskowski,2023-10-06 The Internet has brought about unprecedented changes to modern life creating a connected society but also radically opening up the question of how to design and apply legal rules in a digital world This thoroughly revised second edition provides an updated exploration of the latest developments and controversies in European Internet law The Road to the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation David Alejandro Muñiz Hernández,2025-05-26 This book offers a policy analysis of the emergence of the General Data Protection Regulation GDPR through the lens of John Kingdon s Multiple Streams Framework Drawing on 32 expert interviews with key stakeholders including EU institution representatives such as trilogue negotiators member states industry leaders NGOs and journalists the author provides a deep dive into the decision making process behind the regulation Additionally the study examines 462 position papers from the EU Commission s consultation phases 2009 2011 to uncover the factors that shaped the adoption of the GDPR At its core this work explores the window of opportunity that enabled the regulation s adoption EurAsia-ICT 2002: Information and Communication Technology M. Hassan Shafazand,A Min Tjoa,2003-06-30 We welcomed participants to the 1st EurAsian Conference on Advances in Information and Communication Technology EurAsia ICT 2002 held in Iran The aim of the conference was to serve as a forum to bring together researchers from academia and commercial developers from industry to discuss the current state of the art in ICT mainly in Europe and Asia Inspirations and new ideas were expected to emerge from intensive discussions during formal sessions and social events Keynote addresses research presentation and discussion during the conference helped to further develop the exchange of ideas among the researchers developers and practitioners who attended The conference attracted more than 300 submissions and each paper was reviewed by at least three program committee members The program committee selected 119 papers from authors of 30 different countries for presentation and publication a task which was not easy due to the high quality of the submitted papers

Eleven workshops were organized in parallel with the EurAsia ICT conference The proceedings of these workshops with more than 100 papers were published by the Austrian Computer Society We would like to express our thanks to our colleagues who helped with putting together the technical program the program committee members and external reviewers for their timely and rigorous reviews of the papers and the organizing committee for their help in administrative work and support We owe special thanks to Thomas Schierer for always being available when his helping hand was needed Handbook on European data protection law Council of Europe,European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights,2018-04-15 The rapid development of information technology has exacerbated the need for robust personal data protection the right to which is safeguarded by both European Union EU and Council of Europe CoE instruments Safeguarding this important right entails new and significant challenges as technological advances expand the frontiers of areas such as surveillance communication interception and data storage This handbook is designed to familiarise legal practitioners not specialised in data protection with this emerging area of the law It provides an overview of the EU s and the CoE s applicable legal frameworks It also explains key case law summarising major rulings of both the Court of Justice of the European Union and the European Court of Human Rights In addition it presents hypothetical scenarios that serve as practical illustrations of the diverse issues encountered in this ever evolving field Routledge Handbook on the European Union and International Institutions Knud Erik Jørgensen,Katie Verlin Laatikainen,2012-12-12 While the EU has championed effective multilateralism and experienced a dramatic internal reform process to improve its performance in external relations broader multilateral processes have also undergone dramatic change This handbook addresses the increasingly contested issue of profound political importance Europe s presence in multilateral institutions It assesses both the evolving role of Europe in international institutions and the transformations in international institutions themselves Acknowledging that the category of international institutions comprises a highly diverse field of multilateral engagements this handbook presents a state of the art approach that analyzes both what we have learned about the EU and international institutions as well as identifying promising avenues for further research The handbook is divided into six parts Part I examines the EU s diplomatic and legal personality in international relations that constitutes the internal foundation for the EU s engagement with international institutions Part II assesses how EU multilateralism intersects with other international institutions and provides a means to assess the performance of international institutions as well as the EU itself in multilateral processes Part III focuses on the EU s participation with key institutions within the general UN system such as the UN Security Council and the Human Rights Council as well as specific policy domains such as human rights across UN institutions Part IV focuses on EU relations with wide range of international organizations in a variety of fields from organizations in economic and security realms to environmental institutions and specialized agencies Part V focuses on the EU s engagement in a broad spectrum of issue specific international agreements and international regimes addressing issues such as non proliferation of WMDs climate change information technology and the emerging Gx system G7 G8 G20 etc Part VI examines broader contextual factors that influence the relationship between the EU and international institutions including the evolution of multilateralism the trans Atlantic relationship global norms and the emergence of multipolarity This comprehensive volume brings together scholars and practitioners to summarize and synthesize existing knowledge in the field It will be of great interest to students and scholars of European politics the EU s external relations international relations international organizations and international political economy   Specialized Administrative Law of the European Union Herwig C. H. Hofmann,Gerard C. Rowe,Alexander H. Türk,2018-11-30 This volume deals with the law governing the administrative implementation of European Union public policy Much of this law is specific to individual policy sectors The volume provides a study of such specialized admininstrative law for more than twenty sectors This cross sectoral approach allows for detailed comparisons of EU administration in diverse policy fields It identifies situations where legal structures and approaches may be unnecessarily duplicated thus indicating where a comprehensive general system could be advantageous for both Union law and policy achievement The comparative nature of the study also draws attention to policy fields which have proven to be testing grounds for approaches adopted subsequently in other areas In addition the work highlights the distinctive highly networked and strongly cooperative character of EU administration as a reflection of and a foundation for the operative nature of the European Union as a whole   The EU Law Enforcement Directive (LED) Eleni Kosta,Franziska Boehm,2024 The EU Law Enforcement Directive LED A Commentary provides an article by article commentary on the Law Enforcement Directive Directive 2016 680 edited by two leading scholars in the field of personal data protection   Data Protection, Migration and Border Control Teresa Quintel,2022-11-17 This book assesses data protection rules that are applicable to the processing of personal data in a law enforcement context It offers the first extensive analysis of the LED and Regulation EU 2018 1725 It illustrates the challenges arising from the unclear delineation between the different data protection instruments at both national and EU level Taking a practical approach it exemplifies situations where the application of data protection instruments could give rise to a lowering of data protection standards where the data protection rules applicable in the law enforcement context are interpreted broadly The scope of data protection instruments applied by law enforcement authorities impacts processing for purposes of border control migration management and asylum because there is an unclear delineation between the different data protection instruments   A Dictionary of the European Union Lee McGowan,David Phinnemore,2015-04-10 This unique collection of data includes concise definitions and explanations relating to all aspects of the European Union It explains the terminology surrounding the EU and outlines the roles and significance of the institutions member countries foreign relations programmes and policies treaties and personalities It contains over 1 000 clear and succinct definitions and explains acronyms and abbreviations which are arranged alphabetically and fully cross referenced The book has been fully updated to include details of the elections to the European Parliament and the appointment of the new European Commission in 2014 together with other important revisions Among the 1 000 entries you can find explanations and background details on accession negotiations the African Union the Arab Spring the Common Agricultural Policy competition policy the European Maritime and Fisheries Fund the euro human rights Jean Claude Juncker the European Anti Fraud Office OLAF the Schengen Agreement Serbia the Single Supervisory Mechanism the single rulebook the Treaty of Lisbon Ukraine Electronic Commerce and International Private Law Lorna E. Gillies,2016-04-29 Electronic Commerce and International Private Law examines the maximization of consumer protection via the consumer s jurisdiction and law It discusses the proposition that a new connecting factor be used to improve the efficiency of juridical protection for consumers who contract with foreign sellers by electronic means and offers recommendations as to how to amend existing jurisdiction and choice of law rules to provide a basis for the consumer to sue in his own jurisdiction and for the law of the consumer s domicile to apply The book will be a valuable resource for academics students and practitioners working in the areas of international private law electronic commerce law and consumer law

The European Union as Guardian of Internet Privacy Hielke Hijmans,2016-09-06 This book examines the role of the EU in ensuring privacy and data protection on the internet It describes and demonstrates the importance of privacy and data protection for our democracies and how the enjoyment of these rights is challenged by particularly big data and mass surveillance The book takes the perspective of the EU mandate under Article 16 TFEU It analyses the contributions of the specific actors and roles within the EU framework the judiciary the EU legislator the independent supervisory authorities the cooperation mechanisms of these authorities as well as the EU as actor in the external domain Article 16 TFEU enables the Court of the Justice of the EU to play its role as constitutional court and to set high standards for fundamental rights protection It obliges the European Parliament and the Council to lay down legislation that encompasses all processing of personal data It confirms control by independent supervisory authorities as an essential element of data protection and it gives the EU a strong mandate to act in the global arena The analysis shows that EU powers can be successfully used in a legitimate and effective manner and that this subject could be a success story for the EU in times of widespread euroskepsis It demonstrates that the Member States remain important players in ensuring privacy and data protection In order to be a success story the key stakeholders should be prepared to go the extra mile so it is argued in the book The book is based on academic research for which the author received a double doctorate at the University of Amsterdam and the Vrije Universiteit Brussels It builds on a long inside experience within the European institutions as well as within the community of data protection and data protection authorities It is a must read in a time where the setting of EU privacy and data protection is changing dramatically not only as a result of the rapidly evolving information society but also because of important legal developments such as the entry into force of the General Data Protection Regulation This book will appeal to all those who are in some way involved in making this regulation work It will also appeal to people interested in the institutional framework of the European Union and in the role of the Union of promoting fundamental rights also in the wider world
