Between Death and Resurrection Stephen Yates,2018-08-09 Christians look with hope to the resurrection of the dead and the restoration of all things But what of those who have already died Do they also await these things or have they in some sense already happened for them Within the Catholic theological community this question has traditionally been answered in terms of the disembodied souls of human beings awaiting bodily resurrection Since the 1960s Catholic theologians have proposed two alternatives resurrection at death into the Last Day and the consummation of all things or resurrection in death into an interim state in which the embodied dead await with us the final consummation of all things This book critically examines the Scriptural philosophical and theological reasons for these alternatives and on the basis of this analysis offers an account of the traditional schema which makes clear that in spite of these challenges it remains the preferable option

Asian Christian Theologians in Dialogue with Buddhism Kenneth Fleming, 2002 This book is a study of three of Asia's most respected contemporary theologians Kosuke Koyama Choan Seng Song and Aloysius Pieris It gives an introduction to Asian Buddhism and the Christian dialogue with Buddhists in Asia Furthermore it examines the work of each theologian in detail looking at the method and content of their dialogue and outlining its impact upon their respective theologies The book provides a critique of their dialogue and engages with the theological issues that have emerged In areas such as religious identity theological method and liberation theology it is shown that their conversation with Buddhism contributes to the development of a genuinely Asian theology and moreover raises important challenges to the worldwide theological community churches and to those engaged in interreligious dialogue

"But God Raised Him from the Dead" Kevin Anderson, 2007-02-01 But God Raised Him from the Dead is the first comprehensive study of Jesus resurrection in Luke Acts Through wide sweeping research and detailed exegesis Dr Anderson supports the claim that the resurrection of Jesus is the focus of the message of salvation in Luke Acts The study situates Luke's resurrection theology within Jewish and Hellenistic conceptions of the afterlife and addresses critical questions in Lukan studies such as the relationship between resurrection ascension and exaltation and the vital linkage between Jesus resurrection the hope of Israel and the final resurrection of the dead But God Raised Him from the Dead demonstrates how the resurrection of Messiah Jesus is indispensable to the major theological dimensions of Luke's narrative of God's saving action Jesus resurrection is a key component in the divine plan to raise up the Savior for Israel to extend God's saving benefits to the ends of the earth and to guarantee the complete fulfillment of the hope of Israel and salvation of the people of God at the final resurrection of the dead
