Reincarnation Explored John Algeo,1987 Understanding Hope Philip D. Smith,2022-04-07 What is hope A feeling

Something you do A belief or a cluster of beliefs A way of perceiving the world Is hope the same as wishful thinking Hope is complicated Nevertheless hope can make our lives better In Understanding Hope Philip Smith combines theology psychology philosophy and his own experience of personal loss to help readers understand and practice hope Understanding Hope is short but it requires hard thinking It s worth the effort Hope and Community Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen,2017 The culmination of Kärkkäinen's multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen's ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book Kärkkäinen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church's missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities Hope, Not Fear Benjamin Blech, 2018-09-15 In Hope Not Fear Benjamin Blech helps readers approach the end of life with calm More than six years ago Blech was diagnosed with a fatal illness and given six months to live Over the course of his career Rabbi Blech had counseled hundreds of people through the losses of loved ones and their own end of life but when confronted with his own unexpected diagnosis he struggled with mortality in a new way This personal and heartfelt book shares the answers people grappling with the end of life want to know from what happens when we die to how we can live fully in the meantime Drawing insights from many religious traditions as well as near death experiences Hope Not Fear shares the wisdom and comfort we all need to view death in an entirely new light Eschatology and Hope Anthony Kelly, 2006-01-01 Probes Christian wisdom and contemporary thought to help us give and accounting for the hope that is within us 1 Peter 3:15 in troubled and uncertain times Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A. Lane, 2005-01-26 Today more and more people are asking questions about human social and cosmic destiny Does the universe have a purpose What is the point of historical existence What happens at death What can we hope for Is it possible to talk meaningfully about another world In Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A. Lane addresses these and other questions The author sets out to develop a theology of hope rooted in both human experience and the Christian tradition In discussing Christian belief Lane pays particular attention to the death and resurrection of Christ as both the pivotal eschatological event and the fundamental ground of Christian hope At the same time he deals with contemporary human experience addressing questions arising from the Marxist critique of Christianity the nuclear threat the ecological crisis and the apparent emptiness of much post modern thinking Dermot Lane confronts difficult issues such as death heaven hell purgatory resurrection reincarnation and the possibility of universal salvation with realism and honesty The end result is a new theological synthesis that takes account of recent developments in anthropology feminism and cosmology This carefully crafted book will be of value to all who are asking searching questions about the meaning of living and dying Battling the Buddha of Love Jessica Marie Falcone, 2018-09-15 Battling the Buddha of Love is a work of advocacy anthropology that explores the controversial plans and practices of the Maitreya Project a transnational Buddhist organization as it sought to build the world's tallest statue as a multi million dollar gift to India Hoping to forcibly acquire 750 acres of occupied land for the statue park in the Kushinagar area of Uttar Pradesh the Buddhist statue planners ran into obstacle after obstacle including a full scale grassroots resistance movement of Indian farmers working to Save the Land Falcone sheds light on the aspirations values and practices of both the Buddhists who worked to construct the statue as well as the Indian farmer activists who tirelessly protested against the Maitreya Project Because the majority of the supporters of the Maitreya Project statue are converts to Tibetan Buddhism individuals Falcone terms non heritage practitioners she focuses on the spectacular collision of cultural values between small agriculturalists in rural India and transnational Buddhists hailing from Portland to Pretoria. She asks how could a transnational Buddhist organization committed to compassionate practice blithely create so much suffering for impoverished rural Indians. Falcone depicts the cultural logics at work on both sides of the controversy and through her examination of these logics she reveals the divergent competing visions of Kushinagar's potential futures. Battling the Buddha of Love traces power, faith, and hope through the axes of globalization, transnational religion, and rural grassroots activism in South Asia, showing the unintended local consequences of an international spiritual development project.
