Reinventing Jesus J. Ed Komoszewski, M. James Sawyer, Daniel B. Wallace, Reinventing Jesus cuts through the rhetoric of extreme doubt to reveal the profound credibility of historic Christianity Meticulously researched yet eminently readable this book invites a wide audience to take a firsthand look at the primary evidence for Christianity s origins

Re-enchanting Christianity Dave Tomlinson, 2013-02-12 Dave Tomlinson is author of The Post Evangelical a seminal book which acknowledged the disenchantment with simplistic approaches to faith experienced by many evangelicals Many locked into interpretations of Christianity that they can no longer accept have given up on the Church altogether But is re enchantment possible in our post modern post Christian age Re enchantment is not a return to credulity or an attempt to recapture lost innocence but it is finding a realistic faith that reconciles heart and head that offers a positive engaging spirituality that is unafraid of grappling honestly with difficult questions

An Introduction to Theology in Africa and the Kpelelogical Foundations of Christian Theology Charles Amarkwei, 2021-10-12 In this book African Christian theology is introduced as a Kpelelogical reflection about life in the context of Africa which exists in the context of the cosmos Kpelelogy is the ontological mode of being grasped by the agape of God in Christ by grace through faith in the power of the Holy Spirit By this mode African theology is introduced by way of a definition a principle of paradox and a description as well as a critical view of the works of African theologians It examines the issues of method criteria and sources of doing theology in Africa and introduces the method of Kpelelogy as an African theological method This is explored further as a holistic theological method that is conscious of its being in existence and its life in history that is driven by faith in the triune God in a pneumatic experience that has been termed in this book as the Kpelelogical ontological mode The book is ecumenical in view of its engagement with Christian tradition It presents a Kpelelogical theology that is concretely African and universally Christian in the Okpelejen Wulormor the cosmic Jesus Christ who is and was but beyond the munus triplex Priest King and Prophet threefold office of Jesus Christ that is to come Hence it is a theology which embraces elements of Reformed Lutheran Methodist Pentecostal Charismatic Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox theological insights in the African context

Christianity, Patriotism, and Nationhood Julia

Stapleton, 2009-01-16 This book links the concepts of patriotism Christianity and nationhood in the journalistic writings of G K Chesterton and emphasizes their roots within the English attachments that were central to his political and spiritual persona It further connects Chesterton to the vibrant debate about English national identity in the early years of the twentieth century which was instrumental in shaping not only his political convictions but also his religious convictions Christianity Patriotism and Nationhood explores his changing conception of the English people from an early menacing account of their revolutionary potential in the face of plutocracy to the more complex portraits he drew of their character on recognizing their political passivity after the First World War As Chesterton was above all a journalist the study considers some of the varied outlets in which he expressed his ideas as a distinctly Edwardian man of letters of a strongly patriotic persuasion His connection with The Illustrated London News over more than three decades proved pivotal in strengthening his patriotism and discourse of nationhood vilified elsewhere not least in advanced Liberal organs such as The Nation Julia Stapleton shows that he was increasingly distanced by fellow Liberals before 1918 on account of the priority he gave nationhood over the state and patriotism over citizenship But she argues that his English loyalties were the last echo of an aspect of Victorian Liberalism that had been progressively eroded by loss of confidence among elites in the democratic aptitude of the English people Christianity Patriotism and Nationhood emphasizes that Chesterton upheld a cultural rather than racial conception of national homogeneity in keeping with the Victorian sources of his thought and the popular patriotism of Edwardian England It argues that his anti semitism was ancillary rather than integral to his understanding of England and that it was matched by a similar conception of the antithesis between Islam and the patriotic ideal Stapleton relates his abiding concern for national authenticity to global imperialism enhanced international co ordination of states and civil society after 1918 and the increasing role of the British state in defining the nation This book will be valuable to intellectual and political historians of early twentieth century England as well as to scholars and students of English national identity in the twenty first century The author gratefully acknowledges the permission of A P Watt Ltd on behalf of the Royal Literary Fund to quote unpublished material in the Chesterton Papers British Library

Reinventing American Protestantism Donald E. Miller, 2023-04-28 During the past thirty years the American religious landscape has undergone a dramatic change More and more churches meet in converted warehouses many have ministers who ve never attended a seminary and congregations are singing songs whose melodies might be heard in bars or nightclubs Donald E Miller s provocative examination of these new paradigm churches sometimes called megachurches or postdenominational churches shows how they are reinventing the way Christianity is experienced in the United States today Drawing on over five years of research and hundreds of interviews Miller explores three of the movements that have created new paradigm churches Calvary Chapel Vineyard Christian Fellowship and Hope Chapel Together these groups have over one thousand congregations and are growing rapidly attracting large numbers of worshipers who have felt alienated from institutional religion While attempting to reconnect with first century Christianity these churches meet in nonreligious structures and use the medium of contemporary twentieth century America to spread their message through contemporary forms of worship Christian rock music and a variety of support and interest groups In the first book to examine postdenominational churches in depth Miller argues that these churches are involved in a second Reformation one that challenges the bureaucracy and rigidity of mainstream Christianity The religion of the new millennium says Miller will connect people to the sacred by reinventing traditional worship and redefining the institutional forms associated with denominational Christian churches Nothing less than a transformation of religion in the United States may be taking place and Miller convincingly demonstrates how postmodern traditionalists are at the forefront of this change This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1997 During the past thirty years the American religious landscape has undergone a dramatic change More and more churches meet in converted warehouses many have ministers who ve never attended a seminary and congregations are singing songs whose melodies mi

Great Reset Christianity Andrew N. Woodard, 2023-06-27 This is what God requires of you do justice love your neighbor submit to the government These Biblical texts and many others have become widely used by the modern social justice movement to advance a woke political agenda Words have been redefined by evangelical leaders in the broader movement known as Big Eva in order to advance a global political conspiracy known as The Great Reset This book addresses the connection between woke evangelicalism and the World Economic Forum s Great Reset while explaining several of the passages of Scripture that have been redefined to support this conspiracy Christianity and Empire Revisited ,2025-09-25 Were missionaries simply religious agents of imperialism If you have ever asked or been asked this question then this book is for you Bringing together historians literary specialists and mission scholars it explores the complexities of the subject highlighting its many nuances Figures like Henry Havelock deeply involved in Britain s suppression of the 1857 Indian Rebellion were undoubtedly tied to imperial power Yet missionaries and their supporters were also the moral absolutists of their time sincerely if at times naively committed to ideas of human liberation At the same time Christianity s commitment to translation played a role in preserving indigenous languages and literary traditions adding another layer to this thought provoking discussion Contributors are Brian Stanley Alec Ryrie Michael Snape Nicholas J Wood Ashish Alexander Julian Thompson Emily Burgoyne Kyama Mugambi Kirsteen Kim and Kang San Tan Christianity as a World Religion Sebastian Kim,Kirsteen Kim,2025-08-21 Now in its third edition Christianity as a World Religion locates the Christian faith within its global context Structured by geographical region it covers Asia Africa Europe Latin America and the Caribbean North America and Oceania showing how Christianity is locally rooted in different communities Within each region it considers the history of the spread and reception of Christianity there distinctive forms of church worship and theology the interreligious relations of the churches and Christian interaction with society politics and economics New to this edition Further coverage of the role of migration and transnational movements Additional attention to Orthodox Churches Pentecostalism More explicit coverage of race and race theory gender and sexuality theory and method of world Christianity Relevant updates throughout including blacklivesmatter climate change Hispanic migration to the US the Covid 19 pandemic the significance of Ukraine Chapter summaries and updated recommended readings Also included are study questions maps and 40 images Online resources provide additional case studies for use by instructors Methodologies covered include religious studies theology history and cultural social and development studies so it is ideal for courses on World Christianity Christianity as a Global Religion the History of Christianity and contemporary Christian Theology Evangelical and African Pentecostal Unity Hugh Osgood,2024-04-18 As the millennium approached the number of independent African Pentecostal churches in Britain increased rapidly Having assimilated classical Pentecostalism and the charismatic movement and having begun to find ways of working with the Caribbean Pentecostal denominations it remained to be seen how UK evangelicalism would fare with African Pentecostals This book looks at the intricacies of the relationship at a time that provided ample opportunities to weigh the benefits and challenges of integration from every possible angle Christianity and Genocide in Rwanda Timothy Longman,2010 This book studies the role of Christian churches in the 1994 Rwandan genocide Timothy Longman s research shows that Rwandan churches have consistently allied themselves with the state and engaged in ethnic politics making them a center of struggle over power and resources He argues that the genocide in Rwanda was a conservative response to progressive forces that were attempting to democratize Christian churches RetroChristianity Michael J. Svigel, 2012-04-30 Evangelicalism is in trouble Surveying the modern evangelical landscape professor Michael Svigel asks Why does evangelicalism appear to be spinning out of control losing appeal to younger generations dwindling in numbers or selling out to pop culture to muster a crowd He seeks to answer this question by looking to the past to a Retro Christianity Calling for a return to evangelicalism s historical and theological roots Svigel begins by addressing some of present day evangelicalism s problems and explores what can be done to help churches regain a healthy perspective on doctrine He then gives practical examples of what establishing a biblical historical and theologically sound foundation will mean for Christians as they think through aspects of church life and worship As the numbers of those confused or disenchanted with evangelicalism continue to grow Svigel s book meets a timely need and will benefit many readers with his balanced argument for preserving the evangelical faith Christian Pilgrimage, Landscape and Heritage Avril Maddrell, Veronica della Dora, Alessandro Scafi, Heather Walton, 2014-12-05 This volume provides a theoretically and empirically grounded study of the significance of landscape in the experience of Christian pilgrimage across different denominations and its intersection with cultural heritage and tourism The book focuses on pilgrimages to Meteora Greece Subiaco Italy and the Isle of Man These are each sites of scenic beauty that boast a rich heritage associated respectively to Greek Orthodox Roman Catholic and Ecumenical Protestant denominations The study discusses different Christian theologies practices and perspectives on the nature and the purpose of pilgrimage in these traditions It draws on participant experiential accounts archival research and interviews with clergy laity and local stakeholders Special attention is paid to the themes of sacred space and practice aesthetics mobilities embodiment and performance emotional geographies theology cultural heritage consumption and commodification and the pilgrim tourist continuum Kwame Bediako and African Christian Scholarship Sara J. Fretheim, 2018-04-17 In a departure from current theologically focused scholarship on Ghanaian theologian Kwame Bediako this book places him within the wider historical continuum of twentieth century Ghana and reads him as a leading Christian scholar within the African study of African religions The book traces a variety of influences and figures within this emerging African discourse in Ghana including aspects of missions and colonial history and the voices of poets politicians prophets and priests Locating Bediako within this complex twentieth century matrix this intellectual history draws upon his published and key unpublished works including his first masters and doctoral dissertations on N gritude literature an abiding influence on his later Christian thought and an essential foundation for interpreting this scholar This book also reads the Akrofi Christaller Institute of Theology Mission and Culture as text by Bediako revealing essential components of his intellectual and spiritual itinerary revealed in the Institute s community and curriculum This approach challenges narrowly focused theological scholarship on Bediako while highlighting critical methodological divisions between African Western confessional and non confessional approaches to the study of religion in Africa In doing so it highlights the rich complexity of this emerging African discourse and identifies Bediako as a pioneering African Christian intellectual within this wider field

Christian Spirituality Gordon Mursell, 2020-02-21 There is a growing interest today in the context and history of Christian spirituality In this book a team of expert authors from the East and West present a full and fascinating picture of humanity's desire for the divine across the centuries Highlighting the contribution of significant figures through history authors explore the ways in which Christians from the earliest times onwards have sought to express and live out the deepest truth of their faith The Bible and the life of Jesus Christ are the starting point for the story The reader is then guided through the development of spirituality starting an exploration of the significance of the early church fathers and culminating in a survey of the explosion of expressions of Christian divinity across the world in the twentieth century Interspersed with boxed features that provide more detail on key individuals and groups and timelines that put events into their chronological contexts Christian Spirituality is an ideal overview for scholars and interested readers alike

The Doctrine of God Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2004-08 A global survey of interpretations of God in Scripture Christian history and contemporary theology with a focus on key God talk issues of the day

African Christianity Joseph D. Galgalo, 2012 What makes African Christianity Christian what is the mission of the African church

What is the theology of the African church and What is the future of the Church in Africa or more precisely of African Christianity Professor Galgalo gives a critical analysis of Christianity in Africa from historical theological and sociological perspectives

Conflict and the Practice of the Christian Faith Bruce N Kaye, 2011-07-28 Anglicans around the world have responded to the gospel in many different cultural contexts This has produced different customs and different ways of thinking about church issues In the process of enculturation Anglicans have found themselves encountering social and political realities as malign forces against which they have had to struggle As a consequence the personal and local dynamic in Anglicanism has created not just diversity of custom and mental habits but it has done so at points that have been vital to the way Anglicans have been committed to the gospel Conflict and the Practice of Christian Faith looks at the process by which local traditions developed in Christianity and how these traditions have related to other sub traditions of the universal church It assesses some specifics of the Anglican experience and argues for a significant re casting of some prominent elements of that tradition at the same time clarifying some of the distinctive elements in the Anglican tradition This leads to a more nuanced appreciation of the force of the social and political framework within which Anglicans have had to work out their salvation and of the different forms of secular society and different understandings of plurality and diversity It also entails showing how the imperial route to catholicity took no firm root in Anglicanism Going global has been a significant experiment in Anglican ecclesiology that is by no means over yet The terms of that experiment lie at the heart of the current Anglican debates The book will be of interest to Christians generally who belong to faith traditions spread across different cultures It is also a case study of the issues of global reach and local tradition
