The Cumulative Book Index, 1995 A world list of books in the English language Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 Reinventing Professionalism Silvio Waisbord, 2013-08-26 Current anxiety about the future of news makes it opportune to revisit the notion of professionalism in journalism Media expert Silvio Waisbord takes this pressing issue as his theme and argues that professional journalism is both a normative and analytical notion It refers to reporting that observes certain ethical standards as well as to collective efforts by journalists to exercise control over the news Professionalism should not be narrowly associated with the normative ideal as it historically developed in the West during the past century Instead it needs to be approached as a valuable concept to throw into sharp relief how journalists define conditions and rules of work within certain settings Professionalization is about the specialization of labor and control of occupational practice These issues are important particularly amidst the combination of political technological and economic trends that have profoundly unsettled the foundations of modern journalism By doing so they have stimulated the reinvention of professionalism This engaging and insightful book critically examines the meanings expectations and critiques of professional journalism in a global context Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 The Beat Goes on Tom Rosenstiel, 1994 A Twentieth Century Fund essay Examines the relationship between the American president the press corps that covers him The Impact of Digital Technology on Contemporary and Historic Newspapers Hartmut Walravens, 2009-02-02 The papers brought together in this highly actual book are grouped around three themes Not only the physical and digital preservation of newspapers are treated but also the service and access models that are currently under development examples are provided with a focus on Southeast Asia Moreover the dynamism of online newspapers is discussed This volume contains cutting edge information which is indispensable for the modern newspaper librarian Also researchers educators and journalists may benefit from the introduction to current aspects of the important medium Reinventing the Latino Television Viewer Christopher Chávez, 2015-10-30 Reinventing the Latino Television Viewer Language Ideology and Practice examines how the relationship between language power and industry practice is reshaping the very concept of Hispanic television Ch vez argues that as established mainstream networks enter the Hispanic television space they are redefining the Latino audience in ways that more closely resemble the mainstream population leading to auspicious forms of erasure that challenge the legitimacy of Spanish altogether This book presents the integration of English into the Hispanic television space not as an entirely new phenomenon but rather as an extension of two ongoing practices within the television industry the exploitation of consumer markets and the suppression of Latino forms of speech New Metropolitan Perspectives Francesco Calabrò, Lucia Della Spina, Carmelina Bevilacqua, 2018-05-18 This book explores the role of cities and the urban rural linkages in spurring innovation embedded in spatial planning strategic and economic planning and decision support systems In particular the contributions examine the complexity of the current transitional phase towards achieving smart inclusive and sustainable growth and investigate the post 2020 UE cohesion policy The main topics include Innovation dynamics and smart cities Urban regeneration community led and PPP Inland and urban area development Mobility accessibility infrastructures Heritage landscape and Identity and Risk management Environment and Energy The book includes a selection of articles accepted for presentation and discussion at the 3rd International Symposium New Metropolitan Perspectives ISTH2020 held at the University of Reggio Calabria Italy on 22-25 May 2018 The symposium which addressed the challenge of local knowledge and innovation dynamics towards territory attractiveness hosted the final event of the MAPS LED project under Horizon2020 MSCA RISE

Free Speech and Unfree News Sam Lebovic, 2016-03-14 Does America have a free press Many who say yes appeal to First Amendment protections against censorship Sam Lebovic shows that free speech on its own is not sufficient to produce a free press and helps us understand the crises that beset the press amid media consolidation a secretive national security state and the daily newspaper's decline

Reinventing the Newspaper Frank Denton, Howard Kurtz, 1993 In the ever present changing world of communications and technology the morning newspaper is becoming replaced by the advent of the internet boom as well as advances in other media technologies such as cable television news stations What is happening as the authors paint an illustrious picture is that the newspaper reader is no longer waking at the crack of dawn to fetch their paper but rather switching on morning news programs for hardcore television reporting While working in this environment Frank Denton and Howard Kurtz understand what is at stake for the future of the traditional newspaper and print media As the fragmentation of audiences choose new and more exciting avenues for breaking news Denton and Kurtz offer their thoughts and perspectives on where the newspaper and print media industry might be headed in Reinventing the Newspaper Within this environment Frank Denton and Howard Kurtz understand what is at stake for the future of the traditional newspaper and print media As the fragmentation of audiences choose new and more exciting avenues for breaking news Denton and Kurtz offer their thoughts and perspectives on where the newspaper and print media industry might be headed in Reinventing the Newspaper

Japanese Documentary Film Markus Nornes, 2003 Among Asian countries where until recently documentary filmmaking was largely the domain of central governments Japan was exceptional for the vigor of its nonfiction film industry And yet for all its aesthetic historical and political interest the Japanese documentary remains little known and largely unstudied outside of Japan This is the first English language study of the subject an enlightening close look at the first fifty years of documentary film theory and practice in Japan Beginning with films made by foreigners in the nineteenth century and concluding with the first two films made after Japan's surrender in 1945 Abe Mark Nornes moves from a prehistory of the documentary through innovations of the proletarian film movement to the hardening of style and conventions that started with the Manchurian Incident films and continued through the Pacific

War Nornes draws on a wide variety of archival sources including Japanese studio records secret police reports government memos letters military tribunal testimonies and more to chart shifts in documentary style against developments in the history of modern Japan The SAGE Encyclopedia of Journalism Gregory A. Borchard,2022-01-28 Journalism permeates our lives and shapes our thoughts in ways that we have long taken for granted This set covers all significant dimensions of journalism such as print broadcast and Internet journalism U S and international perspectives and history technology legal issues and court cases ownership and economics The encyclopedia consists of signed entries from scholars experts and journalists

What are Journalists For? Jay Rosen,1999-01-01 He traces the intellectual roots of the movement and shows how journalism can be made vital again by rethinking exactly what journalists are for Jacket Remaking the News Pablo J. Boczkowski,C. W. Anderson,2024-05-21 Leading scholars chart the future of studies on technology and journalism in the digital age The use of digital technology has transformed the way news is produced distributed and received Just as media organizations and journalists have realized that technology is a central and indispensable part of their enterprise scholars of journalism have shifted their focus to the role of technology In Remaking the News leading scholars chart the future of studies on technology and journalism in the digital age These ongoing changes in journalism invite scholars to rethink how they approach this dynamic field of inquiry The contributors consider theoretical and methodological issues concepts from the social science canon that can help make sense of journalism the occupational culture and practice of journalism and major gaps in current scholarship on the news analyses of inequality history and failure Contributors Mike Ananny C W Anderson Rodney Benson Pablo J Boczkowski Michael X Delli Carpini Mark Deuze William H Dutton Matthew Hindman Seth C Lewis Eugenia Mitchelstein W Russell Neuman Rasmus Kleis Nielsen Zizi Papacharissi Victor Pickard Mirjam Prenger Sue Robinson Michael Schudson Jane B Singer Natalie Talia Jomini Stroud Karin Wahl Jorgensen Rodrigo Zamith Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993 Reinventing Governance in a Volatile World Sylvie Albert,Jean-Eric Aubert,Stéphane Grumbach,Jeremy Millard,Paul Wormeli,2025-04-23 Reinventing Governance in a Volatile World addresses public governance worldwide identifying challenges and innovative ways to improve the lives of those governed Based on their work on the Governance Cluster of the international think tank Global Forum Shaping the Future the authors analyse successful strategies and key findings that help governments and institutions promote engagement and involve a broader set of stakeholders in decisions and governance as well as the place of technology in its proper role as a supporting instrument The book addresses crucial issues such as the depletion of trust and democracy at the global level governance of the environment the crisis of leadership sovereignty concerns over the Internet and artificial intelligence AI and the need for behavioural change for greater sustainability It provides tools and illustrative case studies for governance actors including engagement mechanisms and arguments for action The book s primary audience includes governments policy analysts civil society bodies NGOs and other national and international actors involved in public governance It is also of interest for students and researchers of political science public administration governance and management and international relations Fremde Freunde Wulf Schmiese,2000 Blaming the Victim Jairo Lugo-Ocando,2014-12-20 Poverty it seems is a constant in today's news usually the result of famine exclusion or conflict In Blaming the Victim Jairo Lugo Ocando sets out to deconstruct and reconsider the variety of ways in which the global news media misrepresent and decontextualise the causes and consequences of poverty worldwide The result is that the fundamental determinant of poverty inequality is removed from their accounts The book asks many biting questions When and how does poverty become newsworthy How does ideology come into play when determining the ways in which poverty is constructed in newsrooms and how do the resulting narratives frame the issue And why do so many journalists and news editors tend to obscure the structural causes of poverty In analysing the processes of news production and presentation around the world Lugo Ocando reveals that the news makers' agendas are often as problematic as the geopolitics they seek to represent This groundbreaking study reframes the ways in which we can think and write about the enduring global injustice of poverty Young People and the Future of News Lynn Schofield Clark,Regina Marchi,2017-09-21 This book examines youth media practices on social media introducing the concept of connective journalism as a precursor to collective political action
