Gaudin, Dominique Lacroix, Marie-Christine Maurel, Jean-Charles Pomerol, 2018-03-15 Developed from presentations given at the Cerisy SVSI Sciences de la vie sciences de l'information conference held in 2016 this book presents a broad overview of thought and research at the intersection of life sciences and information sciences The contributors to this edited volume explore life and information on an equal footing with each considered as crucial to the other In the first part of the book the relation of life and information in the functioning of genes at both the phylogenetic and ontogenetic levels is articulated and the common understanding of DNA as code is problematized from a range of perspectives The second part of the book homes in on the algorithmic nature of information questioning the fit between life and automaton and the accompanying division between individualization and invariance Consisting of both philosophical speculation and ethological research the explorations in this book are a timely intervention into prevailing understandings of the relation between information and life

The Darkening Spirit David Tacey, 2013-06-26 The twenty first century could well be Jung's century just as the twentieth century was Freud's Jung predicted the demise of secular humanism and claimed we would search for alternatives to science atheism and reason We would experience a new and even unfashionable appetite for the sacred Educated people however would not return to unreconstructed religions because these do not express the life of the spirit as discerned by modern consciousness The sacred has developed a darker hue and worshipping symbols of light and goodness no longer satisfies the longings of the soul The new sacred cannot be contained by the formulas of the past but nor can we live without a sense of the sacred We stand in a difficult place between traditional religions we have outgrown and a pervasive materialism we can no longer embrace These changes in our culture have come sooner than Jung might have imagined In his time Jung struck many as eccentric or unscientific But his works speak to our time since we have experienced the full gamut of Jungian transformations the unsettling of Judeo-Christian culture the rise of the feminine the onslaught of the dark side the critique of modernism and positivism and the recognition that the Western ego is neither the pinnacle of evolution nor the lord of creation A new life is needed beyond the ego but we do not yet know what it will look like The outbreak of strong religion and terrorism are signs of the times but these are expressions of a distorted and repressed spirit and not one hopes genuine pointers to the future What the future holds is uncertain but Jung's prophetic vision helps to prepare us for what is to come and this will be of great interest to analytical psychologists and psychoanalysts as well as to theologians futurists sociologists and the general reader

Understanding and Applying Medical Anthropology Peter J. Brown, Svea Closser, 2016-07 The editors of the third edition of the seminal textbook Understanding and Applying Medical Anthropology bring it completely up to date for both instructors and students The collection of 49 readings 17 of them new to this edition offers extensive background description and exposes students to the breadth of theoretical methodological and practical perspectives and issues in the field of medical anthropology The text provides specific examples and case studies of research as it is applied to a range of health settings from cross cultural clinical encounters to cultural analysis of new biomedical technologies and the implementation of programs in global health settings The new edition features a major revision that eliminates many older readings in favor of more fresh relevant selections a new section on structural violence that looks at the impact of poverty and other forms of social marginalization on health an updated and expanded section on Conceptual Tools including new research and ideas that are currently driving the field of medical anthropology forward such as epigenetics and syndemics new chapters on climate change Ebola PTSD among Iraq Afghanistan veterans eating disorders and autism among others recent articles from Margaret Mead Award winners Sera Young Seth Holmes and Erin Finley along with new articles by such established medical anthropologists as Paul Farmer and Merrill Singer The World Conspires David W. Letts, 2011-02-04 Highly recommended prophetic and relevant for this time Elihu Edelson Both Sides Now

From the Mind Leap series one Book in two Parts 1 Age of Metamorphosis an invitation to expanding consciousness From that first leap in your mind the door to spirit opens leading on toward direct experience of other realities It is an entirely different experience to fly Join the authors widely shared channeling sessions in chapters like these First Meetings with Moita a variety of newcomers and their diverse reactions Finding Your Own Path through our mistakes we grow to become our own teacher A Universe of Presences Moita states her difference from Seth and Edgar Cayces source The Art of Discretion the lesson Dr Elisabeth Kbler Ross learned after seeking Moitas help with the scandal that ultimately threatened her courageous life 2 The World Conspires an adventure in psychic spiritual exploration The unfolding of a visionary journey as David and Kelly Siofra learn to flow with new energies As communications with Moita and yet higher levels evolve experiences range from depths Objects become fuzzy Instantly Moitas presence is much stronger She tells me that I am in danger I am losing the thread of my consciousness to heights The Earth is new filled with the wonder of its discoveries He speaks to the Sun and I speak to the Ground We weave together what we are told and make it whole from personal There is much fear of joy in this world and when people fear something they want to destroy it In order to release it you must be very strong and know yourself very well to cosmic It is the arrival of the High Ones on your plane The texture of the world is changing We are preparing you for the inevitable shock of seeing us as we really are from A Channeling for December 20 2012 Something is happening tomorrow to everyone on the planet There is a great deal of energy bent in this direction It requires my complete presence We have watched for a great many years and now there is a drawing together of worlds a time when the two worlds may touch when they may integrate and understand Life will never be the same again Thinking about Society: Theory and Practice Ian Jarvie, 2012-12-06 I C Jarvie was trained as a social anthropologist in the center of British social anthropology the London School of Economics where Bronislaw Malinowski was the object of ancestor worship Jarvie s doctorate was in philosophy however under the guidance of Karl Popper and John Watkins He changed his department not as a defector but as a rebel attempting to exorcize the ancestral spirit He criticized the method of participant observation not as useless but as not comprehensive it is neither necessary nor sufficient for the making of certain contributions to anthropology rather it all depends on the problem situation And so Jarvie remained an anthropologist at heart who in addition to some studies in rather conventional anthropological or sociological molds also studied the tribe of social scientists but also critically examining their problems especially their overall rather philosophical problems but not always so a few of the studies included in this volume exemplify his work on specific issues whether of technology or architecture or nationalism in the academy or moviemaking or even movies exhibiting excessive sex and violence These studies attract his attention both on account of their own merit and on account of their need for new and powerful research tools such as those which he has forged in his own intellectual workshop over the last two decades
