Reinventions Of The Novel Histories And Aesthetics Of A Protean Genre:

Reinventions of the Novel, 2021-11-01 The history of the Novel is a story of perpetual change so that its identity still remains open to question The sixteen articles in Reinventions of the Novel investigate connections differences and similarities in the Novel around the world for the past three hundred years Rather than searching for the essence of the genre they look for the formal and thematic patterns on which the novel thrives considering such matters as tradition and modernity realism rhetoric and identity tableau and spatiality and wondering whether epic and avant garde are not quite contradictory terms Close readings combined with historical overviews and theoretical discussions open up new constellations in the history of the novel Untraditional cross readings are made between Rabelais and Jens Peter Jacobsen and between Balzac and Nicholson Baker Transformations of traditional modes of epic biography and Bildung are traced as far as Georges Perec and Günter Grass while canonical classics like Proust Joyce Richardson and Goethe are read in prosaic pragmatic and media specific contexts In the 1920s many people predicted the death of the novel now more than ever it seems to be the dominant literary form perhaps because it is the same yet always different

The Poetics of Fragmentation in Contemporary British and American Fiction Vanessa Guignery, Wojciech Drąg, 2019-12-02 The last decades have seen a revival of fragmentation in British and American works of fiction that deny linearity coherence and continuity in favour of disruption gaps and fissures Authors such as Ali Smith David Mitchell and David Shields have sought new ways of representing our global media saturated contemporary experience which differ from modernist and postmodernist experimentations from which the writers nevertheless draw inspiration This volume aims to investigate some of the most important contributions to fragmentary literature from British and American writers since the 1990s with a particular emphasis on texts released in the twenty first century The chapters within examine whether contemporary forms of literary fragmentation constitute a return to the modernist episteme or the fragmented literature of exhaustion of the 1960s mark a continuity with postmodernist aesthetics or signal a deviation from past models and an attempt to reflect today's accelerated culture of social media and over communication Contributors theorise and classify literary fragments examine the relationship between fragmentation and the Zeitgeist influenced by globalisation media saturation and social networks analyse the mechanics of multimodal and multimedial fictions and consider the capacity of literary fragmentation to represent personal or collective trauma and to address ethical concerns They also investigate the ways in which the architecture of the printed book is destabilised and how aesthetic processes involving fragmentation bricolage and or collage raise ontological ethical and epistemological questions about the globalised contemporary world we live in and its relation to the self and the other Besides the aforementioned authors the volume makes reference to the works of J G Ballard Julian Barnes Mark Z Danielewski David Markson Jonathan Safran Foer David Foster Wallace Jeanette Winterson and several others

Generic Instability and Identity in the Contemporary Novel Madelena Gonzalez, 2009-12-14 Contemporary aesthetics is characterized by generic mixing on the level of both form and content The barriers between different media and different genres have been broken down in all literary art forms whether it be theatre poetry or the novel While the publishing industry is increasingly keen to label novels according to genre or sub genre Chick Lit Lad Lit Gay fiction Scottish fiction New Historical Fiction Crime fiction Post 9 11 Fiction the novel itself and novelists persist in resisting generic categorizations as well as inviting them Is this a move towards a new artistic liberty or does it simply testify to a confusion of identity The aesthetic supermarket evoked by Lodge in 1992 does indeed seem to sum up the variety of choices open to writers of fiction today and a literary landscape characterized by crossover and hybridization The familiar dialectic of realism versus experimentation has segued into a middle ground of consensus which is neither radical nor populist but both at the same time The techniques of postmodernism have become selling points for novels and the Postmodern Condition itself seems little more than a narrative posture marketed for an increasingly wide audience Whether they have recourse to a repertoire of imposture Amis Self Winterson as Richard Bradford would have it The Novel Now 2007 in other words the abandonment of any obligation to explain or justify their excursions from credulity and mimesis or like the New Puritans make use of narrative minimalism in order to foreground their own peculiarities contemporary novelists consistently draw attention to the fundamental instability of narrative process and genre The much feared apocalypse of the novel has failed to take place with the arrival of the new millennium but generic game playing and flickering narrative hesitation and uncertainty continue to pose the question of what constitutes a novel today and to challenge its identity in a world where all culture is increasingly public increasingly contested and increasingly multifarious Thanks to theoretical approaches as well as analyses of specific works this collection of essays aims to examine the concepts of generic instability and cross fertilization of narrative postures and impostures and their constant redefinition of identity which contaminates the very concept of genre It demonstrates the diversity of generic practices in the novel today and furnishes us with undeniable evidence of how generic instability is fundamentally constitutive of the contemporary novel's identity

Mapping World

Literature Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, 2008-06-21 Mapping World Literature explores the study of literature and literary history in light of global changes looking at what defines world literature in the 21st century Surveying ideas of literature from Goethe to the present Thomsen devises a compelling concept of literary constellations He discusses a wide range of critical positions identifies the limits of comparative and post colonial approaches and examines two specific cases literature written by migrant writers and the literature of genocide war and disaster Mapping World Literature captures new ways of understanding the patterns and trends that emerge in literature opening up and inspiring research to map patterns in the field

The Power of the Dispersed Cornel Zwierlein, 2021-12-20 Early modern travelers often did not form part of classic diaspora communities they frequently never really settled perhaps remaining abroad for some time in one place then traveling further not blown by the wind but by changing and complex conditions that often turned out to make them unwelcome anywhere The dispersed developed strategies of survival by keeping their distance from old and new temporary homes as well as by using information from and manipulating foreign representations of their former countries This volume assembles case studies from the Mediterranean context the Americas and Japan They explore what kind of power s and agency dispersed people had counterintuitively through the connections they maintained with their former homes and through those they established abroad Contributors Eduardo Angione Iordan Avramov Marloes Cornelissen David Do Pa o Jos Luis Eg o Maria Tsampika Lampitsi Paula Manstetten Simon Mills David Nelson Adolfo Polo y La Borda Ana M Rodr guez Rodr guez Cesare Santus Stefano Saracino and Cornel Zwielerlein

Joyce, Multilingualism, and the Ethics of Reading Boriana Alexandrova, 2020-09-16 What if our notions of the nation as a site of belonging the home as a safe place or the mother tongue as a means to fluent comprehension did not apply What if fluency were a hindrance whilst our differences and contradictions held the keys to radical new ways of knowing Taking inspiration from the practice of language learning and translation this book explores the extraordinary creative possibilities politics and ethics of adopting a multilingual approach to reading Its case study James Joyce s Finnegans Wake 1939 is a text in equal measures exhilarating and exasperating an unhinged portrait of European modernist debates on transculturalism and globalisation here considered on the backdrop of current discourses on migration race gender and neurodiversity This book offers a fresh perspective on the illuminating if perplexing work of a beloved European modernist whilst posing questions far beyond Joyce on negotiating difference in an increasingly globalised world on braving the difficulty of relating across languages and cultures and ultimately on imagining possible futures where multilingual literature can empower us to read relate and conceptualise differently Uncovering Paris Lela F.
