Relearning The Alphabet:

Relearning the Alphabet Denise Levertov, Thomas Ingham, 1991 Selected Poems Denise Levertov, 2013-05-01 Denise Levertov's Selected Poems delivers in a single accessible volume one of the essential poets of our time Poetry Flash Culled from two dozen poetry books and drawing from six decades of her writing life The Selected Poems of Denise Levertov offers a chronological overview of her great body of work It is splendid and impressive to have at last a clear unobstructed view of her ground breaking poetry the work of a poet who as Kenneth Rexroth put it more than anyone led the redirection of American poetry to the mainstream of world literature Described by Publishers Weekly as at once as intimate as Creeley and as visionary as Duncan Levertov was lauded as one of the indispensable poets of our language one of those few writers to whom it is necessary to pay attention by The Malahat Review No poet is more overdue for a single accessible volume no career could be better to have within easy reach Denise Levertov Audrey T. Rodgers, 1993 Through careful analysis of Levertov's social verse she demonstrates that there is a consistency and pattern in what the artist herself has termed the poems of engagement Denise Levertov began her career in England as a lyric poet in the Romantic mode but even then was touched by the reductive nature of war revealed in her first published poem Listening to Distant Guns During the mid 1960s Levertov's social conscience notably her strong antiwar sentiment was reawakened by the Vietnam War This reawakening resulted in several volumes of poetry that mirrored her concerns with the war and political activism at home and her perplexity at the nature of human beings often great and compassionate but at times cruel and insensitive There exists a common thread in Levertov's pilgrimage from her beginning as a lyric poet to her status as an artist definitively in the world she has always responded to everything within the compass of her experience The Female Autograph Donna C. Stanton, 1987 These original essays comprise a fascinating investigation into women's strategies for writing the self constructing the female subject through autobiography memoirs letters and diaries The collection contains theoretical essays by Donna Stanton Sandra Gilbert and Susan Gilbert and Susan Gubar chapters on specific issues raised by women's autographs such as Richard Bowering's study of tenth century Japanese diaries or Janel Mueller's on The Book of Margery Kempe and annotated autobiographical fragments including texts by Julia Kristeva by a woman who became a czarist cavalry officer and by a contemporary Palestinian poet There are also chapters on the seventeenth century painter Artemisia Gentileschi Mme de Saligny Mendelssohn's sister Fanny Hensel the black minister Jarena Lee Virginia Woolf and Eva Peron The result is a conversation between writers and critics across cultural and temporal boundaries Stanton's essay plays off Virginia Woolf's A Room of One's Own Kristeva begins with a reading of de Beauvoir while a self published French woman writes to defend the joys of family life against the author of Memoirs of a Dutiful Daughter A Poet's Revolution Donna Hollenberg, 2013-04-17 This first full length biography of Anglo American poet and activist Denise Levertov 1923 1997 brings to life one of the major voices of the second half of the twentieth century when American poetry was a powerful influence worldwide Drawing on exhaustive archival research and interviews with 75 friends of Levertov as well as on Levertov's entire opus Donna Krolak Hollenberg's authoritative biography captures the full complexity of Levertov as both woman and artist and the dynamic world she inhabited She charts Levertov's early life in England as the daughter of a Russian Hasidic father and a Welsh mother her experience as a nurse in London during WWII her marriage to an American after the war and her move to New York City where she became a major figure in the American poetry scene The author chronicles Levertov's role as a passionate social activist in volatile times and her importance as a teacher of writing Finally Hollenberg shows how the spiritual dimension of Levertov's poetry deepened toward the end of her life so that her final volumes link lyric perception with political and religious commitment

Ghostwriting Modernism Helen Sword, 2018-05-31 Spiritualism is often dismissed by literary critics and historians as merely a Victorian fad Helen Sword demonstrates that it continued to flourish well into the twentieth century and seeks to explain why Literary modernism she maintains is replete with ghosts and spirits In Ghostwriting Modernism she explores spiritualism's striking persistence and what she calls the vexed relationship between mediumistic discourse and modernist literary aesthetics Sword begins with a brief historical review of popular spiritualism's roots in nineteenth century literary culture In subsequent chapters she discusses the forms of mediumship most closely allied with writing the forms of writing most closely allied with mediumship and the thematic and aesthetic alliances between popular spiritualism and modernist literature Finally she accounts for the recent proliferation of a spiritualist influenced vocabulary ghostliness hauntings the uncanny in the works of historians sociologists philosophers and especially literary critics and theorists Documenting the hitherto unexplored relationship between spiritualism and modern authors some credulous some skeptical Sword offers compelling readings of works by James Joyce T S Eliot W B Yeats H D James Merrill Sylvia Plath and Ted Hughes Even as modernists mock spiritualism's ludicrous lingo and deride its metaphysical excesses she finds they are intrigued and attracted by its ontological shiftiness its blurring of the traditional divide between high culture and low culture and its self serving tendency to favor form over content medium so to speak over message Like modernism itself Sword asserts spiritualism embraces rather than eschews paradox providing an ideological space where conservative beliefs can coexist with radical even iconoclastic thought and action

"this need to dance / this need to kneel" Michael P. Murphy, Melissa Bradshaw, 2019-09-17 That Denise Levertov 1923-97 was one of the most pioneering and skilled poets of her generation is beyond dispute Her masterly use of language innovative experimentations with organic form and the political acuity disclosed by her activist poetry are well marked by critical communities But it is also quite clear that the poems Levertov wrote in the last twenty years of her life with their more explicit focus on theological themes and subjects are among the best poems written on religious experience of any century let alone the twentieth The collection of essays gathered here shed vital light on this neglected aspect of Levertov studies so as to expand and enrich the scope of critical engagement In a mixture of theoretical considerations and close readings these essays provide valuable

reflections about the complex relationship between poetry and belief and offer philosophically robust insights into different styles of poetic imagination The abiding hope is to broaden the terrain for discussions in twenty first century theology literary theory poetics and aesthetics honoring immanence exploring transcendence and dwelling with integrity within the spaces between Postmodernism Paul A. Bové, 1995 In the decade that followed 1972 the journal boundary 2 consistently published many of the most distinguished and most influential statements of an emerging literary postmodernism Recognizing postmodernism as a dominant force in culture particularly in the literary and narrative imagination the journal appeared when literary critical study in the United States was in a period of theory induced ferment The fundamental relations between postmodernism and poststructuralism were being initially examined and the effort to formulate a critical sense of the postmodern was underway In this volume Paul A Bov the current editor of boundary 2 has gathered many of those foundational essays and as such has assembled a basic text in the history of postmodernism Essays by noted cultural and literary theorists join with Bov's contemporary preface to represent the important and unique moment in recent intellectual history when postmodernism was no longer seen primarily as an architectural term had not yet come to describe the wide range of culture it does now but was finding power and place in the literary realm These essays show that the history of postmodernism and its attendant critical theories are both more complex and more deeply bound with literary criticism than often is acknowledged today Early Postmodernism demonstrates not only the significance of these literary studies but also the role played by literary critical postmodernism in making possible newer forms of critical and cultural studies Contributors Barry Alpert Charles Altieri David Antin Harold Bloom Paul A Bov H l ne Cixous Gerald Gillespie Ihab Hassan Joseph N

Riddel William V Spanos Catharine R Stimpson Cornel West Lyric Philosophy Jan Zwicky, 2014-02-24 In this groundbreaking study on the nature of philosophy Jan Zwicky demonstrates how much of potential philosophical significance is lost if our notion of meaningful language is constrained by narrow concepts of analytic rigour Her aim is not to dismiss the role of analysis in philosophy rather she strives to augment its resources and thereby give to philosophy a voice with greater range and integrity Two parallel texts on facing pages run through the book The primary one is Zwicky's which begins with a critique of existing criteria for defining a work as philosophy and then develops the notion of lyric in its relation to two other key terms technology and domesticity She finishes with an exploration of meaning form and content in lyric contexts The parallel text consists of quotations from other authors It serves as commentary on illustration of and reaction to the main text as a way of acknowledging intellectual debts and as a way of providing an historical context for some of the main text s claims Highly original in its thought and presentation Zwicky's discussion makes an exciting contribution to contemporary philosophy forging new connections and expanding old boundaries Denise Levertov in Company Donna Krolik Hollenberg, 2018-06-30 A reflection on this poet's legacy through essays by contemporary poets and literary critics Denise Levertov 1923-1997 was an award winning author of more than thirty books of poetry and prose featuring the subjects of politics and war and in later years religion Born and raised in England amid political unrest and war Levertov moved to the United States after World War II and settled in as a passionate poet activist for peace and environmental conservation She initially gained recognition as a member of the Black Mountain poets and later as a highly respected mentor and educator at esteemed universities including Massachusetts Institute of Technology Brandeis and Stanford where she helped shape future generations of poets In Denise Levertov in Company Donna Krolik Hollenberg has assembled ten essays by contemporary poets who were influenced by Levertov as former students and or colleagues and another ten by literary critics Hollenberg selected contributors on the basis of their spiritual intellectual and political connections with Levertov at different stages of her life in the United States and all are distinguished in their own right The first five poets became acquainted with Levertov in the 1960s and 1970s when she and they protested against the war in Vietnam The next five poets who were close to Levertov in the 1980s and 1990s while she was at Stanford respond to aspects of Levertov's religious quest and her love and concern for the natural world To assess Levertov's influence on contemporary poetry Hollenberg has organized the essays into pairs First a contributor offers a personal essay about his or her relationship with Levertov which is followed by a companion essay about the contributor's poetry in relation to Levertov's What emerges is a dialogue between autobiographical testimony and critical analysis This combination of personal witness and objective evaluation contributes to a greater understanding of the contemporary poetry scene and the influence of Levertov's distinguished and affecting legacy Contributors Rae Armantrout Eavan Boland Martha Collins Alison Hawthorne Deming Susan Eisenberg Reginald Gibbons Donna Krolik Hollenberg Romana Huk Paul Lacey Aldon Lynn Nielsen Kathleen Norris Mark Pawlak Peggy Rosenthal Ben S
