Atonement, Justice, and Peace Darrin W. Snyder Belousek, 2012 In this substantial study Darrin W Snyder Belousek offers a comprehensive and critical examination of penal substitution the most widely accepted evangelical Protestant theory of atonement and presents a biblically grounded theologically orthodox alternative Attending to all of the relevant biblical texts and engaging with the full spectrum of scholarship Belousek systematically develops a biblical theory of atonement that centers on restorative rather than retributive justice He also shows how Christian thinking on atonement correlates with major global concerns such as economic justice capital punishment the war on terror and ethnic and religious conflicts Thorough and clearly structured this book demonstrates how a return to biblical cruciformity can radically transform Christian mission social justice and peacemaking      Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 5, Number 2 David M. Beyond Retribution Christopher D. Marshall, 2001 Recently a growing number of Christians have actively promoted the concept of restorative justice and attempted to develop programs for dealing with crime based on restorative principles But is this approach truly consistent with the teaching of Scripture To date very little has been done to test this claim Beyond

Retribution fills a gap by plumbing the New Testament on the topics of crime justice and punishment Christopher Marshall first explores the problems involved in applying ethical teachings from the New Testament to mainstream society He then surveys the extent to which the New Testament addresses criminal justice issues looking in particular at the concept of the justice of God in the teachings of Paul and Jesus He also examines the topic of punishment reviewing the debate in social thinking over the ethics and purpose of punishment including capital punishment and he advocates a new concept of restorative punishment The result of this engaging work is a biblically based challenge to imitate the way of Christ in dealing with both victims and offenders Publisher The Politics of Discipleship and Discipleship in Politics Jurgen

Moltmann,2006-02-15 The Politics of Discipleship and Discipleship in Politics is a work of dialog and cooperation at every level At the core of this volume are lectures by J rgen Moltmann originally delivered at two Mennonite seminaries at the height of the Cold War Theologians at those seminaries then responded to each of Moltmann s lectures and those are included as well Added to this collection are a new essay by Moltmann on peacemaking and dragonslaying a new foreword by Willard Swartley and a new preface by Moltmann In this post 9 11 world this dialog has fresh relevance Mitzvoth Ethics and the Jewish Bible Gershon M. H. Ratheiser,2007-03-01 Ratheiser s study provides the framework for a non confessional mitzvoth ethics centered and historical philological approach to the Jewish bible and deals with the basic steps of an alternative paradigmatic perspective on the biblical text The author seeks to demonstrate the ineptness of confessional and ahistorical approaches to the Jewish bible Based on his observations and his survey of the history of interpretation of the Jewish bible Ratheiser introduces an alternative hermeneutical exegetical approach to the Jewish bible the paradigm of examples His study concludes that the biblical text is a collection of writings designed and formed from a specifically ethical ethnic outlook In other words he regards the Jewish bible to be written as an etiology of ancient instruction by ancient Jews to Jews and for Jews As such it serves as a religious ethical identity marker that provides ancient Jews and their descendants with an etiology of Jewish life Ratheiser regards this religious ethical agenda to have been the driving force in the minds of the final editors compilers of the biblical text as we have it today Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 11, Issue 1

Communities of Restoration Thomas Noakes-Duncan, 2017-10-19 By bringing together the insights of ecclesial ethics an approach that emphasizes the distinctive nature of the church as the community that forms its mind and character after its reading of Scripture with the theory and practice of restorative justice a way of conceiving justice making that emerged from the Mennonite Anabaptist tradition this book shows why a theological account of the theory and practice of restorative justice is fruitful for articulating and clarifying the witness of the church especially when faced with conflict or wrongdoing This can help extend the church s imagination as to how it might better become God s community of restoration as it reflects on the ways in which the justice of God is taking shape in its own community How does an ecclesial context shape the theological apprehension and praxis of justice This question orientates the book In particular it asks how in view of its members having been admitted into God s restoring justice in Christ the church might embody in the world this same justice of restoring right relationships While Christian reflection on the nature of justice has tended to favour a judicial and retributive conception of justice it will be argued that the biblical understanding of the justice of God is best understood as a saving liberating and restorative justice It is this restorative conception that ought to guide the community that reads Scripture so that it might be embodied in life
