Sham? Shame! Jack Casazza, John Casazza, 2001-01-01 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2002

Shame Robert H Albers, William M Clements, 2013-12-19 In this new guidebook designated as one of the Top Ten Books of the Year for 1996 by The Journal of the Academy of Parish Clergy author Robert H Albers provides both an analysis of and a Biblical and theological reflection upon the human experience of disgrace shame Albers approaches the subject from a pastoral perspective from which he makes suggestions on how this phenomenon can be dealt with from the background of a faith tradition He develops and explores new and existing valuable conceptual and pastoral resources to aid people in dealing effectively with the debilitating experiences of disgrace shame Shame A Faith Perspective is unique in that it incorporates deliberate theological reflection upon the human experience of disgrace shame Its value is in naming this phenomenon analyzing it and identifying the resources for dealing effectively with this experience It assists clergy and counselors in identifying this phenomenon and provides conceptual and practical suggestions on how to deal most effectively with disgrace shame Clergy as well as laypeople can find answers to their questions about the nature of shame and become better equipped to facilitate the process of healing Utilizing the findings of social sciences the author provides specific information on shame including Distinctions between shame and guilt Distinctions between discretionary shame and disgrace shame Identification of the dynamics of disgrace shame Analysis of the defenses used in dealing with disgrace shame Identification of the resources available from the Judeo Christian tradition in reflecting theologically on the issue of disgrace shame Suggestions for ways in which disgrace shame might be dismantled from the perspective of faith For parish pastors and priests counselors and therapists seminary professors teaching pastoral care and nonordained people within the Christian community Shame A Faith Perspective provides a theologically informed method for addressing issues of disgrace shame Readers can begin to distinguish between guilt and shame in human experience search out theological resources for understanding and learn to deal effectively with the experience of disgrace shame Shame Sham Jack Casazza, John Casazza, 2001 This is fiction based on fact Hot as today's news it takes a critical look at the energy crisis hitting the nation Blackouts are now in California and are threatened elsewhere Electricity and gasoline prices are doubling Is the crisis real or manufactured Here are straight answers that will enlighten and frighten Environmental Guilt and Shame Sarah E. Fredericks, 2021 This study shows that many people in the US feel guilt about their everyday life It explores many ethical questions including whether individuals or collectives are the guilty or shameful parties whether agents should have these feelings whether people should induce guilt or shame in others and how people can respond to such feelings Shame 4.0 Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, Paul T. P. Wong, 2021-07-21 This edited volume provides new perspectives on how shame is experienced and transformed within digital worlds and Industry 4.0 The editors and authors discuss how individuals and organisations can constructively transform shame at work in professional and private contexts and with regard to socio cultural lifestyle changes founded in digitalisation and Industry 4.0 The contributions in this volume enable researchers and practitioners alike to unlock the topic of shame and its specifics in the highly dynamic and rapidly changing times to explore this emotion in depth in connection with remote workplaces home office automated realities and smart systems or digitalised life and working styles By employing transdisciplinary and transcultural perspectives the volume further discusses shame in the context of new lifestyles religion gender sexual suppression mental illness and the nature of citizenship Researchers practitioners and students in the fields of industrial and organisational psychology positive psychology organisational studies future studies health and occupational science and therapy emotion sciences management leadership and human resources will find the contributions highly topical insightful and applicable to practice Fresh timely thought provoking with each turn of the page this impressive volume explores shame in today's world Moving beyond the simple guilt is good shame is bad perspective authors from diverse disciplines examine adaptive and maladaptive aspects of shame in the context of contemporary issues e.g. social media use COVID-19 via multiple cultural and social lenses Aptly named Shame 4.0 is a treasure trove of rich ideas ripe for empirical study a blueprint for the next generation of research on this complex and ubiquitous emotion Bravo June Tangney PhD University Professor and Professor of Psychology George Mason University USA Uncovering Shame To a much greater extent than other emotions like anger grief and fear until recently most shame in modern societies has been hidden from sight The text you see in this book is one of the steps that is being taken to make it more visible and therefore controllable Thomas Scheff Prof Emeritus Department of Sociology UCSB Santa Barbara Ca

Extractive Industry Indigenisation in Zimbabwe Kennedy Manduna, 2025-09-25 This book explains how and why Zimbabwe's extractive industry Indigenisation over promised its benefits yet under delivered upon implementation This book traces the history of uneven development in Zimbabwe from the initial days of colonialism to the present using the extractive industry as the unit of analysis to carve out a granular and empirical analysis of the preponderance of transnational corporate control and ownership in the country Indigenisation of Zimbabwe's extractive industries was intended to address mining inequalities by transferring wealth from rich non Indigenous mining capital to disadvantaged Indigenous citizens and communities This policy however was a response to political economic and social crises posed by the international isolation of Zimbabwe's government following the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme in 2000-2003 An intervention therefore which promised to address inequalities has thus been hampered by corruption co-optation and collusion which has led to it not only failing to address uneven development but in actual fact worsening the situation By examining the hidden structures and infrastructures of power capital and minerals and placing extractive industry Indigenisation in capitalism this book makes a crucial scholarly contribution to the renewed and burgeoning debates around the resurgence of resource nationalism in general and the struggle for economic sovereignty in particular This book steers readers more broadly to look for new and diversified ways of empowering Indigenous populations and their communities through mining Indigenisation in ways that do not threaten economic and political stability This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the extractive industries natural resource management African politics and African development Security Ethics: Commerce and Crime in a Polycentric World Graham James

McAleer,2025-03-29 This book explores criminal threat to commercial security and the problem of the ethical control of political and criminal risk alongside and in the absence of government Theoretically it links ethics to geopolitics and political economy Security Ethics Commerce and Crime in a Polycentric World builds from well known thinkers but not theorists typically found in books of applied ethics and security studies Chapters include Francisco de Vitoria s account of just war applied to pirates John Locke on dignity and the illegal trade in body parts David Hume on community justice combatting cartels Adam Smith on luxury and knockoffs Bakunin and anarchist gunrunning Johan Huizinga on play and crime David Ross on corporate obligation in the face of partizan risk to hotel security Carl Schmitt on geography and smuggling Aurel Kolnai on privilege and corporate secrets and David Petraeus author of The US Army Marine Corps Counterinsurgency Field Manual respecting ecotage and commercial legitimacy Human Rights for Pragmatists Jack Snyder,2024-11-26 An innovative framework for advancing human rights Human rights are among our most pressing issues today yet rights promoters have reached an impasse in their effort to achieve rights for all Human Rights for Pragmatists explains why activists prioritize universal legal and moral norms backed by the public shaming of violators but in fact rights prevail only when they serve the interests of powerful local constituencies Jack Snyder demonstrates that where local power and politics lead rights follow He presents an innovative roadmap for addressing a broad agenda of human rights concerns impunity for atrocities dilemmas of free speech in the age of social media entrenched abuses of women s rights and more Exploring the historical development of human rights around the globe Snyder shows that liberal rights based states have experienced a competitive edge over authoritarian regimes in the modern era He focuses on the role of power the interests of individuals and the groups they form and the dynamics of bargaining and coalitions among those groups The path to human rights entails transitioning from a social order grounded in patronage and favoritism to one dedicated to equal treatment under impersonal rules Rights flourish when they benefit dominant local actors with the clout to persuade ambivalent peers Activists policymakers and others attempting to advance rights should embrace a tailored strategy one that acknowledges local power structures and cultural practices Constructively turning the mainstream framework of human rights advocacy on its head Human Rights for Pragmatists offers tangible steps that all advocates can take to move the rights project forward Parliamentary Debates
