Out of My Mind WJ de Kock,2014-03-25 We need a whole new mind to thrive in the twenty first century says Daniel Pink As theologians we cannot escape the transition from the information age to the conceptual age of the twenty first century In the information age the theologian could give answers based on the best information but in the twenty first century information is on hand Empathy and understanding however are in scant supply today In the information age there was no room for doubt certainty was the hallmark of a successful information worker But today uncertainty is a certainty thanks to globalization the information revolution and even quantum mechanics Uncertainty has been grafted into our collective consciousness It therefore cannot be theological business as usual It cannot be about giving answers it is more about finding the best questions to be answered It cannot be about winning theological arguments it is more about living in God s regenerative story while we find ourselves in the liminal space of uncertainty It cannot be about holding strong opinions it is more about creating space for life to allow God s generosity to flow through us Out of My Mind tells the story of such a transition

Between Languages and Cultures Anuradha Dingwaney,Carol Maier,2010-11-23 Translated texts are often either uncritically consumed by readers teacher and scholars or seen to represent an ineluctable loss a diminishing of original texts Translation however is a cultural practice influenced also by social and political imperatives which can open more doors than it closes The essays in this book show how the act of translation when vigilantly and critically attended to becomes a means for active interrogation

Salman Rushdie and the Third World Timothy Brennan,1989-07-24 The dialectic between national literary production and the rise of a group of writers with cosmopolitan sympathies is the aim of this book concentrating on Rushdie s novels and journalism who leave their home and culture and must adapt to another Handbook of Creative Writing Steven Earnshaw, 2007 An extensive practical and inspirational resource this three in one volume is aimed at students and practitioners of creative writing at all levels In 48 distinctive chapters the Handbook examines the critical theories behind the practice of creative writing Part 1 explains the basics of how to write a novel script or poetry Part 2 explores how to deal with the practicalities and problems of becoming a writer Part 3 As well as the main creative writing activities chapters cover other practices from translation to starting a small magazine and from memoir writing to writing for children Contributors are all experts in their fields poets novelists dramatists agents publishers editors tutors critics and academics Anyone with an interest in creative writing will find this book invaluable in developing their own creative writing projects and as a way into new areas of writing activity Key Features The only book to combine the theory and practice of writing with detailed advice on the business of writing and living as a writer Combines breadth and depth with original thinking on creativity and evaluation of creative work Shows ways of approaching the task of writing and how to improve one's work Presents material which is hard to find elsewhere e.g. writing for teenagers writing humorous fiction finding a film agent The Fiction of Bharati Mukherjee Nagendra Kumar, 2001 Bharati Mukherjee is one of the major novelists of Indian diaspora who have achieved enviable positions within a comparatively short creative span as an expatriate in the United States She has captured evocatively the Indian immigrant experience in her five novels and two collections of short fiction The Creative Odyssey that started with The Tiger's Daughter 1972 and produced Leave it to Me 1997 Recently has kept her seriously involved in exploring the complexities of cross cultural interactions The present volume is the first full length study of Mukherjee's creative corpus from a cross cultural perspective The book divided in six chapters opens with an exhaustive account of the major concepts of culture and it ingeniously traces the nature of formative influences on her psyche In the second chapter Mukherjee's fiction has been examined in three well marked phases Expatriation Transition Immigration In three substantive chapters the quality of cultural conflict in all its multiplicity forms the crux of her accomplishments as a creative artist She has an esteemed place in the luminous galaxy of Indian men of letters writing abroad with native ethos providing them a living ambience The Fiction of Bharati Mukherjee A Cultural Perspective Marks a milestone in the critical scholarship on the Third World literature Irish Cosmopolitanism Nels Pearson, 2017-05-24 Donald J Murphy Prize for a Distinguished First Book Pearson is convincing in arguing that Irish writers often straddle the space between national identity and a sense of belonging to a larger more cosmopolitan environment Choice demonstrates just what it is that makes comparative readings of history politics literature theory and culture indispensable to the work that defines what is best and most relevant about scholarship in the humanities today Modern Fiction Studies An admirable book Repositions the artistic subject as something different from the biographical Joyce Bowen or Beckett cohering as a series of particular aesthetic responses to the dilemma of belonging in an Irish context James Joyce

Broadsheet A smart and compelling approach to Irish expatriate modernism An important new book that will have a lasting impact on postcolonial Irish studies Breac Clearly written convincingly argued and transformative Nicholas Allen author of Modernism Ireland and Civil War Goes beyond statism and postnationalism toward a cosmopolitics of Irish transnationalism in which national belonging and national identity are permanently in transition Gregory Castle author of The Literary Theory Handbook Shows how three important Irish writers crafted forms of cosmopolitan thinking that spring from and illuminate the painful realities of colonialism and anti colonial struggle Marjorie Howes author of Colonial Crossings Figures in Irish Literary History Asserting the simultaneity of national and global frames of reference this illuminating book is a fascinating and timely contribution to Irish Modernist Studies Geraldine Higgins author of Heroic Revivals from Carlyle to Yeats Looking at the writing of three significant Irish expatriates Nels Pearson challenges conventional critical trends that view their work as either affirming Irish anti colonial sentiment or embracing international identity In reality he argues these writers constantly work back and forth between a sense of national belonging that remains incomplete and ideas of human universality tied to their new global environments For these and many other Irish writers national and international concerns do not conflict but overlap and the interplay between them motivates Irish modernism According to Pearson Joyce's Ulysses strives to articulate the interdependence of an Irish identity and a universal perspective Bowen's exiled unrooted characters are never firmly rooted in the first place and in Beckett the unsettled origin is felt most keenly when it is abandoned for exile These writers demonstrate the displacement felt by many Irish citizens in an ever changing homeland unsteadied by long and turbulent decolonization Searching for a sense of place between national and global abstractions their work displays a twofold struggle to pinpoint national identity while adapting to a fluid cosmopolitan world Spanish Fables in Verse Elizabeth Catherine Ford,Jeremiah Denis Matthias Ford,1918 Reworlding Emmanuel S. Nelson,1992-05-30 Adopting the concept of diaspora literally dispersal or the scattering of a people to the historical and contemporary presence of people of Indian subcontinental origin in other areas of the world Emmanuel Nelson uses this paradigm to analyze Indian expatriate writing In Reworlding Nelson has commissioned fourteen critical essays by as many scholars to examine major areas of the diaspora among them Britain the United States Canada Trinidad Fiji Singapore East and South Africa and prominent literary figures including Salman Rushdie V S Naipaul Kamala Markandaya Bharati Mukherjee and Raja Rao Collectively the essays demonstrate that the various literary traditions within the Indian diaspora share certain common resonances engendered by historical connections spiritual affinities and racial memories Individually they provide challenging insights into the particular experiences and writers At the core of the diasporic writing is the haunting presence of India and the shared anguish of personal loss that generate the aesthetics of reworlding underlying and unifying this body of literature This collection will be of value to scholars and students of Indian writing in English postcolonial writing in general and the literature of exile and immigration People of the Bomb Hugh Gusterson,2004 E L Doctorow suggested that in the years since 1945 the nuclear bomb has come to compose the identity of the American people Developing this theme Hugh Gusterson shows how the military industrial complex has transformed public culture personal psychology in America to create a nuclear people

21st Century Perspectives on Indian Writing in English Debasish Lahiri, Pradipta Mukherjee, 2022-12-05 The essays gathered here alternately adjust the focal length of the critical lens brought to bear upon texts and contexts in the area of Indian writing in English They bring into view both intense engagements with major voices in this literary scene and the wider socio historical perspectives in which they have thrived Three clearly defined sections on the genres of poetry prose and drama are augmented by three incisive interviews with the diasporic Indian English poet Bashabi Fraser the renowned Indian English fiction writer Kunal Basu and the premier Indian English playwright Mahesh Dattani The volume will appeal to students and teachers of postcolonial and comparative literatures It raises crucial and timely questions about the state of culture in India and the world the crisis of intolerance and the loss of memory and diversity It hones a post millennial perspective on literature written in the late 20th and early 21st centuries
