date psychological research with penetrating insight into the emotional realities of substance abuse. It provides a clear and practical model for understanding the shame-guilt-addiction cycle. Shame, Guilt, and Alcoholism provides constructive suggestions to therapists for treating substance-abusing clients and their affected family members. By treating destructive inappropriate or excessive shame and guilt, therapists can help their clients free themselves from the downward spiral of addiction and begin to build on their genuine strengths. It explores the positive functions of shame and guilt, describes the conscious and subconscious defense mechanisms against them, and highlights the crucial family behaviors that initiate and encourage shame and guilt. Shame, Guilt, and Alcoholism thoroughly explains the significant differences between shame and guilt, including clients' experiences of failure, primary responses and feelings, precipitating events, and involvement of self, origins, and central fears. Shame, Guilt, and Alcoholism adds immeasurably to our understanding of the total recovery process. It is an essential resource for therapists, social workers, psychologists, substance abuse counselors, and educators in the field.

Family Systems Application to Social Work Karen Gail Lewis, 2015-07-24. Originally published in 1991, this title is a valuable social work text which demonstrated how to apply family system concepts to clinical situations encountered in work with inner city populations at the time. Unlike traditional theories in clinical social work which were oriented toward the individual, this fascinating book offers a paradigm for social work that encompasses the client, his or her immediate and extended family, the community, the government, and the social worker. The family systems concepts in this refreshing volume are illustrated by case examples addressing the specific issues of AIDS and drug abuse, homelessness, foster care, wife abuse, care of those with intellectual disabilities, and adoption issues. Social workers and social work students can still gain perspective from these insightful chapters and will discover that it is not pathological people that make difficult populations, but difficult life situations that breed pathology.

Knowing Feeling: Affect, Script, and Psychotherapy Donald L. Nathanson, 1996-05-17. Nathanson and his colleagues explore contemporary affect studies focusing on the work of Silvan Tomkins and examine their impact on the theory and practice of psychotherapy.

The Moral Psychology of Guilt Bradford Cokelet, Corey J. Maley, 2019-10-10. In most Western societies, guilt is widely regarded as a vital moral emotion. In addition to playing a central role in moral development and progress, many take the capacity to feel guilt as a defining feature of morality itself. No truly moral person escapes the pang of guilt when she has done something wrong. But proponents of guilt's importance face important challenges such as distinguishing healthy from pathological forms of guilt and accounting for the fact that not all cultures value guilt in the same way, if at all. In this volume, philosophers and psychologists come together to think more systematically about the nature and value of guilt. The book begins with chapters on the biological origins and psychological nature of guilt and moves on to discuss the culturally enriched conceptions of guilt and its value that we find in various eastern and western philosophic traditions. In addition, numerous chapters discuss healthy or morally valuable forms of guilt and their pathological or irrational shadows.

is a groundbreaking rereading of the relations between psychology and drama in the age of Eugene O'Neill Susan Glaspell and their many brilliant contemporaries American modernist Theater of Trauma drew its vision from the psychological investigation of trauma and its consequences among them hysteria and dissociation made by French and American psychiatrists such as the great Pierre Janet Alfred Binet William James Morton Prince and W E B Du Bois the European and American dissociationist culture that developed around their work and the resulting trauma of World War I American dramatists deep resistance to Freud's suppression of trauma challenges the equation of Freud and modernism that has become commonplace in modernist criticism

Theologies of Failure Robert Sirvent, Duncan B. Reyburn, 2020-01-01 What does failure mean for theology In the Bible

we find some unsettling answers to this question We find lastness usurping firstness and foolishness undoing wisdom We discover too a weakness more potent than strength and a loss of life that is essential to finding life Jesus himself offers an array of paradoxes and puzzles through his life and teachings He even submits himself to humiliation and death to show the cosmos the true meaning of victory As David Bentley Hart observes most of us would find Christians truly cast in the New Testament mold fairly obnoxious civically reprobate ideologically unsound economically destructive politically irresponsible socially discreditable and really just a bit indecent By incorporating the work of scholars working with a range of frameworks within the Christian tradition Theologies of Failure aims to offer a unique and important contribution on understanding and embracing failure as a pivotal theological category As the various contributors highlight it is a category with a powerful capacity for illuminating our theological concerns and perspectives It is a category that frees us to see old ideas in a brand new light and helps to foster an awareness of ideas that certain modes of analysis may have obscured from our vision In short this book invites readers to consider how both theology and failure can help us ask new questions discover new possibilities and refuse the ways of the world     Jean Rhys Erica L Johnson,2015-06-21 The 10 newly commissioned essays and introduction collected in this volume demonstrate Jean Rhys s centrality to modernism and to postcolonial literature alike by addressing her stories and novels from the 1920s and 1930s     Baseball and the Blame Game John Billheimer,2007-07-16 Most baseball fans know what links Fred Merkle Fred Snodgrass Mickey Owen and Bill Buckner It s a pantheon of public failure They would be harder put to say what links Eric Byrnes Tony Fernandez and Babe Ruth though these players made misplays every bit as egregious In this smart highly readable history of scapegoating John Billheimer identifies the elements that combine to condemn one player to a life sentence while another gets a wrist slap for the same offense As it turns out the difference between a lower case e in some forgotten box score and a lifetime of ignominy can hinge on a number of factors including timing geography reputation misunderstanding media bias and just plain bad luck     Communication Yearbook 23 Michael Roloff,2012-03-22 The Communication Yearbook annuals publish diverse state of the discipline literature reviews that advance knowledge and understanding of communication systems processes and impacts across the discipline Sponsored by the International Communication Association each volume provides a forum for the exchange of interdisciplinary and internationally diverse scholarship relating to communication in its many forms This volume re issues the yearbook from 2000     Communication Yearbooks Vols 6-33 Set Various,2021-12-02 The Communication Yearbook annuals originally published between 1977 and 2009 publish diverse state of the discipline literature reviews that advance knowledge and understanding of communication systems processes and impacts across the discipline Topics dealt with include Communication as Process Research Methodology in Communication Communication Effects Taxonomy of Communication and European Communication Theory Information Systems Division Mass Communication Research Mapping the Domain of Intercultural Communication Public Relations Feminist Scholarship Communication Law and Policy Visual

Communication Communication and Cross Sex Friendships Across the Life Cycle Television Programming and Sex Stereotyping InterCultural Communication Training Leadership and Relationships Media Performance Assessment Cognitive Approaches to Communication     Handbook of Affective Sciences Richard J Davidson, Klaus R Sherer, H. Hill Goldsmith, 2009-05-21 One hundred stereotype maps glazed with the most exquisite human prejudice especially collected for you by Yanko Tsvetkov author of the viral Mapping Stereotypes project Satire and cartography rarely come in a single package but in the Atlas of Prejudice they successfully blend in a work of art that is both funny and thought provoking The book is based on Mapping Stereotypes Yanko Tsvetkov's critically acclaimed project that became a viral Internet sensation in 2009 A reliable weapon against bigots of all kinds it serves as an inexhaustible source of much needed argumentation and occasionally as a nice slab of paper that can be used to smack them across the face whenever reasoning becomes utterly impossible The Complete Collection version of the Atlas contains all maps from the previously published two volumes and adds twenty five new ones wrapping the best selling series in a single extended edition     The Darkened Light of Faith Melvin L. Rogers, 2023-09-26 A powerful new account of what a group of nineteenth and twentieth century African American activists intellectuals and artists can teach us about democracy Could the African American political tradition save American democracy African Americans have had every reason to reject America's democratic experiment Yet African American activists intellectuals and artists who have sought to transform the United States into a racially just society have put forward some of the most original and powerful ideas about how to make America live up to its democratic ideals In The Darkened Light of Faith Melvin Rogers provides a bold new account of African American political thought through the works and lives of individuals who built this vital tradition a tradition that is urgently needed today The book reexamines how figures as diverse as David Walker Frederick Douglass Anna Julia Cooper Ida B Wells W E B Du Bois Billie Holiday and James Baldwin thought about the politics people character and culture of a society that so often dominated them Sharing a light of faith darkened but not extinguished by the tragic legacy of slavery they resisted the conclusion that America would always be committed to white supremacy They believed that democracy is always in the process of becoming and that they could use it to reimagine society But they also saw that achieving racial justice wouldn't absolve us of the darkest features of our shared past and that democracy must be measured by how skillfully we confront a history that will forever remain with us An ambitious account of the profound ways African Americans have reimagined democracy The Darkened Light of Faith offers invaluable lessons about how to grapple with racial injustice and make democracy work     The Seven Deadly Sins? Anne Kearns, 2018-05-08 The Seven Deadly Sins grew out of a post qualification training course of the same name It aims to make more accessible some concepts from the world of psychoanalysis self psychology and affective neuroscience as well as commenting on the challenge of working in the real world This is achieved by offering an integrative and anecdotal perspective on issues that have been generally un or under explored in trainings that have a humanistic emphasis issues such as envy shame love and hate trauma addiction money and eating disorders These issues are illustrated through the judicious use of clinical case studies Various maps are provided to assist the supervisor and clinician in holding opposing diagnostic models and in working with psychotherapy and counselling trainees The chapters can be read in isolation which makes the book an ideal tool for the supervisor and clinician to use in response to specific issues Jamaica Kincaid J. Brooks Bouson,2006-06-01 Offers a new perspective on the psychological and affective dynamics of Jamaica Kincaid s fiction and nonfiction The Politics of Negative Emotions Dan Degerman,2023-04-28 Negative emotions including anger fear and shame have been at the heart of recent political events such as the protests against COVID 19 restrictions These negative emotions can be politically destructive leading people to act rashly without due concern for democratic principles However they can also accurately signal wrongdoing and motivate acts to redress the situation as displayed in the Black Lives Matter and climate change movements This volume brings together perspectives from political science and philosophy to shed new light on the political faces of negative emotions Engaging with real world political events from Europe the US and Africa contributors critically evaluate much discussed emotions such as anger and fear but also less prominent ones such as frustration and discomfort Rational Sentimentalism Justin D'Arms,Daniel Jacobson,2023 This book presents an original theory of the sentimental values These values such as the funny the disgusting and the shameful are deeply important in setting standards for emotional responses that are part of our shared human nature yet moral philosophers have neglected them relative to their key role in human mental life
