Place and Identity Joanna Richardson, 2018-09-05 The UK is experiencing a housing crisis unlike any other Homelessness is on the increase and more people are at the mercy of landlords due to unaffordable housing Place and Identity Home as Performance highlights that the meaning of home is not just found within the bricks and mortar it is constructed from the network of place space and identity and the negotiation of conflict between those it is not a fixed space but a link with land ancestry and culture This book fuses philosophy and the study of home based on many years of extensive research Richardson looks at how the notion of home or perhaps the lack of it can affect identity and in turn the British housing market This book argues that the concept of home and physical housing are intrinsically linked and that until government and wider society understand the importance of home in relation to housing the crisis is only likely to get worse This book will be essential reading for postgraduate students whose interest is in housing and social policy as well as appealing to those working in the areas of implementing and changing policy within government and professional spaces

Mirko Bernasconi, This book titled Why is it that in Switzerland hardly anyone pays off their mortgage investigates the unique landscape of mortgage practices in Switzerland where a significant number of homeowners choose to retain their mortgages rather than pay them off This phenomenon raises important questions about financial strategies and cultural attitudes towards debt in one of the world's wealthiest nations The central inquiry revolves around how the Swiss approach to leveraging debt for home ownership differs from that of other countries By analysing historical patterns societal views on borrowing and the nuances of the Swiss financial system readers are introduced to a perspective that regards mortgages as advantageous financial instruments rather than liabilities The book targets a diverse audience including finance professionals economists policy makers and those interested in real estate economics or alternative debt management strategies Delving into Switzerland's mortgage market reveals characteristics such as low interest rates and adaptable repayment plans that encourage long term loan retention This stands in stark contrast to many cultures where early repayment is often viewed as a hallmark of fiscal prudence Supported by data from reputable sources like the Swiss National Bank and various industry analyses the book illustrates current trends in housing finance while examining how these practices bolster economic stability within Switzerland amidst global housing challenges Furthermore this work connects local mortgage behaviours with broader international economic shifts exploring how changes in interest rates and housing markets influence consumer choices worldwide Through case studies representing various demographics across urban and rural settings in Switzerland it offers rich insights into differing attitudes toward mortgages In summary Why is it that in Switzerland hardly anyone pays off their mortgage serves as an enlightening resource for those seeking fresh perspectives on home financing It highlights how cultural contexts shape financial behaviours a crucial consideration as global economies continue to evolve

Go Home! Rowan Hisayo Buchanan, 2018-02-19 An anthology of Asian diasporic writers musing on the notion of home Bold and devastating the very definition of reclamation The International Examiner Asian diasporic writers imagine home in the twenty first century through an array of fiction memoir and poetry Both urgent and meditative this anthology moves beyond the model minority myth and showcases the singular intimacies of individuals figuring out what it means to belong The notion of home has always been elusive But as evidenced in these stories poems and testaments perhaps home is not so much a place but a feeling one embodies I read this book and see my people see us and feel in our collective outsiderhood at home Ocean Vuong New York Times bestselling author of On Earth We're Briefly Gorgeous To be from nowhere is the state of Asian diaspora but there is also a wild humor and imagination that comes from being underestimated rarely counted hardly seen Here we begin to draw the hopeful outlines of a collective history for those so disparate yet often lumped together Jenny Zhang author of My Baby First Birthday Language allows for many homes and perhaps the writers and readers of the anthology too will succeed in returning home or finding a home through these words NPR org Effectively dismantling all sorts of stereotypes Buchanan s anthology gives voice to notions of identity belonging and displacement that are much more vast complex and textually rich than mere geography Shelf Awareness Revolutionary for all the iterations of home it shows through fiction poetry and memoir sure to provoke a full range of emotions to swoon and clutch in my chest Literary Hub Our Homes and Gardens ,1928
