New Europe Stefanos Katsikas,2011-10-30 Bulgaria has faced previously unimaginable pressures over the last two decades as it struggles to adapt to a post Communist landscape and to reform both state and society in the wake of the fall of the Soviet Union while facing the challenge of increased efforts by NATO and the EU to expand into this region In Negotiating Diplomacy in the New Europe Stefanos Katsikas sheds new light on the mechanisms and factors which have influenced the making and shaping of Bulgarian foreign policy examining the extent to which both domestic factors and the international environment have affected its trajectory Following the promulgation of Gorbachev s now famous policies of glasnost and perestroika and the fall from power of the Bulgarian Communist Party led at the time by Todor Zhivkov many have directly attributed Bulgaria's changes in foreign policy to the processes of democratization witnessed throughout Eastern Europe. However, although this was to some extent the case, the commonalities shared with the country's foreign policy during the Cold War era leave in question the extent to which the effects of democratization alone suffice to explain Sofia's post-communist diplomatic and strategic policies. By analysing the influencing factors of Bulgaria's foreign policy since 1989, Katsikas considers factors such as domestic policies as well as the effects of EU and NATO efforts to expand their influence and membership. Rich in primary sources including personal interviews with key protagonists who have dominated foreign policy making in both communist and post-communist Bulgaria, Negotiating Diplomacy in the New Europe examines the shift of foreign relations not only within the context of post-Cold War democratization but also the country's integration into wider Euro-Atlantic frameworks. It thus holds invaluable analysis for researchers of Europe's post-communist international relations as well as those interested in the processes of democratization and those of foreign policy formation.

Migration and Welfare in the New Europe Emma Carmel, Alfio Cerami, Theodoros Papadopoulos, 2012. Providing innovative insights, this book moves the debate on migration and integration policies in the enlarged European Union and its member states onto new terrain.

Intercultural Conflict and Harmony in the Central European Borderlands Mihai I. Spăriș, 2017-05-15. This cross-disciplinary collection of essays combines qualitative and quantitative approaches to re-examine the most influential contemporary theories of intercultural relations and their application in various domains including historiography, sociology and cultural studies. A particular focus lies on Central Europe, historical Banat and Transylvania, but also on the current public policies toward ethnic and religious minorities as well as recent immigrants. It argues that much more complex approaches are needed both historically and conceptually in exploring intercultural relations. Thus, the political decision making in East-Central European countries and the European Union as a whole could benefit from a well-informed historical perspective by learning from the successes and errors of their predecessors.

European Food and Nutrition Policies in Action Nancy Milio, Elisabet Helsing, 1998. This publication presents a vast array of experience, insight and points of view on current issues in food and nutrition policy making across Europe.

Towards a New Europe? Ash Amin, Michael Dietrich, 1991. Recog 1 The Terms of structural economic change 2 Organizational restructuring 3 Implications for labour 4 European monetary union.

Cooperation and Enlargement: Two Challenges to be Addressed in the European Projects—2022 Ghislaine Pellat, Jovan Zafiroski, Marian Šuplata, 2023-11-10. In this book, the ERECO PGV 1 network wishes to make an overview of the cooperation implemented by and in the European Union and to describe the concrete forms they have taken. The issue is to analyze the internal European cooperation between economic actors, politicians and EU citizens at different levels, but also to focus attention on the external cooperation, neighborhood policies, external policies and collaborations with international institutions, NATO, OECD, WTO etc. Carrying uncompromising attention on this issue means rethinking the European project in light of today's challenges From the very beginning the EU was based on and called for forms of multinational cooperation bilateral internal and external at different levels involving economic actors public actors local authorities and civil society The frameworks for this cooperation as well as for the successive enlargements of the EU were drawn up in the context of European negotiations in particular during discussions on the European Treaties European values standards and rules are embodied in the texts of agreements resolutions and European directives and Treaties signed by all member countries They establish the functioning of European institutions and the framework of democratic life in Europe The emergence of current crises Brexit COVID 19 migration crisis non respect of rule of law rules refusal of certain member countries to apply the European Charter of Human Rights etc is questioning the project of the European Union and introduced the challenges which should be overcome by the proposal of the new project able to face the internal complexity of the Union and to answer to the pressure of a conflicting international context What remains of the European ideal affirmed in the treaties of 1957 1992 and 2007 How to re-enchant the common project Yet the European Union remains attractive to new candidate countries How do they read the integration conditions into the EU with regard to their own projects
