Sharing The Harvest A Guide To Communitysupported Agriculture:

Sharing the Harvest Elizabeth Henderson, Robyn Van En, 2007-11-01 To an increasing number of American families the CSA community supported agriculture is the answer to the globalization of our food supply The premise is simple create a partnership between local farmers and nearby consumers who become members or subscribers in support of the farm In exchange for paying in advance at the beginning of the growing season when the farm needs financing CSA members receive the freshest healthiest produce throughout the season and keep money jobs and farms in their own community In this thoroughly revised and expanded edition of a Chelsea Green classic authors Henderson and Van En provide new insight into making CSA not only a viable economic model but the right choice for food lovers and farmers alike Thinking and buying local is quickly moving from a novel idea to a mainstream activity The groundbreaking first edition helped spark a movement and with this revised edition Sharing the Harvest is poised to lead the way toward a revitalized agriculture Farmer Direct Marketing Bibliography 2001 Jennifer-Claire V. Klotz, 2001 Accelerating Social Change Luigi Morelli, 2021-11-03 Social change is more than a political statement or demand it is a moral and spiritual imperative If this is so then it involves the whole human being in the way he perceives and thinks feels and relates and acts on and impacts the world This work gathers the threads of pioneers and visionaries in various aspects of social and cultural renewal Paradigms of include and transcend offer us paths along which the personal and the global are intimately intertwined Through established pathways and processes we can experiment with new ways of being as we impact our immediate world Practically speaking this book explores three avenues to change At a first level we can start to recognize that society is built around three poles Besides the public and private sectors civil society has emerged to play a crucial role and alter dualistic thinking If we think beyond capitalism and socialism and all their variations and combinations new unthought of frontiers and possibilities emerge It is possible to expand our practice of democracy beyond the majority minority dynamics to the inclusion of all stakeholders A new art and science of civic collaboration can break the gridlocks of polarization and opposition We can engage in a new area of honest energetic collaboration moving beyond weak compromise through an array of social tools that have grown in the last forty to fifty years and have now reached full maturity Lastly we can expand organizational and social forms in ways that completely break away from the past We can reconcile both entrepreneurial and participatory paradigms and transcend top down or bottom up models in ways that our intellect alone cannot fathom Paradigms offer generous visions but are also exacting masters The new revolution will request as much of ourselves as we will request of the world Remaking the North American Food System C.
