She Didn't Mean To Do It:

She Didn't Mean to Do It Daisy Fried, 2012-02-15 Winner of the 1999 Agnes Lynch Starrett Poetry Prize The thirty three narrative linguistically adventurous poems in She Didn't Mean To Do It range freely among styles and voices Examining human emotions and behavior in all their contradictions Daisy Fried turns a perceptive eye on those around her Fried integrates metaphoric flights and idiosyncratic narrative surprising us with the details I saw that the wisteria in dusk its same color hung heavier than the breasts of stabbed and stabber ever would be while her characters traipse across lines and pages These are poems about human relationships mostly romantic and sexual They're also about jobs and work urban action packed and socially aware

The Perfect Wife Ruth Ann Nordin, 2018-08-25 Natalie Harper has just married the man of her dreams All of her life she has wanted a husband who would be kind gentle and handsome She wanted a companion she could share her life with Mark Larson fulfills all of those dreams And she couldn't be happier However Mark is also wealthy The money doesn't mean anything to Natalie She's just happy to be loved by him but she soon discovers that his wealth comes with some unexpected problems She grew up on a farm with very little to her name No one cared about how people drank tea how well they danced or how much education they had They didn't judge people based on any of those things In Mark's world though she's expected to follow certain etiquette rules she didn't even know existed And the women in her new social circle aren't the least bit shy about letting her know she doesn't meet up to their standards Yes she married Mark because she loved him but she's quickly learning there's more to marriage than love A lot more And she's not sure she has what it takes to make it work
