Sheep Dont Go To School:

Winter Shadows P. J. Hoge, 2012-07 A car accident on a Sioux Reservation leaves a young boy and his siblings homeless They are sent to live on a farm where his much older stepbrother is recuperating from war injuries Clarence only agrees to move because of his brothers and sisters for whom he has been the main caregiver would otherwise be split up for placement He finds it difficult to adjust He never did well in school and hates it He has trouble with cultural changes new people and situation but mostly the stack of rules His old life though not the best was a life he understood He will give it a chance but seriously considers running away

When the Roll is Called a Pyonder Diana R. Zimmerman, 2014-08-19 With grace humor and sensitivity Diana R Zimmerman renders a traditional Mennonite farm family in Lancaster Pennsylvania as seen through a child's eyes and spoken in the hypnotic rhythms of a young girl's voice The spirited speaker develops a rich sense of herself and her community as she grows up in a conservative religious context where help means spank and female children are reared for lives of obedience modesty and piety This is a remarkably immediate work of memory and imagination authentic fair minded and unsentimental suitable for readers of all ages Julia Spicher Kasdorf author of Sleeping Preacher and The Body and the Book Writing from a Mennonite Life Diana R Zimmerman has written a great American memoir I was reminded of Huck Finn and Harriet the Spy and Jo March as I chuckled and gasped and laughed out loud through this book You will love this little Mennonite girl and she will lead you back to your own inner child You will also start seeing the world through her eyes You won't want this story to end Shirley Hershey Showalter author of Blush A Mennonite Girl Meets a Glittering World

The Smaller Sunday School Makes Good William Edward Raffety, 1927 Emerging Voices Human Sciences Research Council, Education Policy Consortium (South Africa), 2005 This examination graphically illustrates the conditions that make dreams of a better life for all virtually unrealizable in rural areas of South Africa Through the voices of rural people themselves this study tells not only what the problems surrounding education are but also what can and should be done when the South African government launches its offensive against poverty in rural areas Rigorous and qualitative the text is an overview of the need of great numbers of people for the opportunities and capabilities that education can provide for their futures It also shows the existing situation of many impoverished populations worldwide and illustrates that poverty and inequality continue where such issues are not addressed

The Living-Dead Abhijeet Ingle, 2013-11-29 It is the summer of 2004 But over five decades of independence and a decade of economic liberalization does not mean much to the cotton farmers of Vidharbh in India which has witnessed a spate of farmer suicides that continue to rise with every passing day Yet Ramwadi a village in Vidharbh reeling in the clutches of a despotic headman and greedy moneylender has ducked the trend Then a jeep arrives in Ramwadi carrying GM cottonseeds which transform the simple lives of a few families in Ramwadi Vasu a small indebted farmer dreams of living a life of dignity and chooses to drill a tube well to tap water for his six acres of dry land The journey of his dream through a series of ironic circumstances affects many people encompassing their conflicts which transcend the boundaries of Ramwadi leading to Capitol Hill in Washington the forests of Siberia and jungles of Gadchiroli At the same time it raises many profound and disturbing questions about democracy agrarian policies Kyoto Protocol and the environment International politics tiger conservation and human animal conflicts tribal unrest and revolutionary movements Ironically to live his small dream Vasu and his family must survive these complex glocal conflicts
