One-hour Ancient and Medieval Skirmish Wargames John Lambshead, 2024-10-30 A comprehensive guide to reenacting Ancient and Medieval wargames John Lambshead's highly popular One hour Skirmish Wargames was designed for fights in the gunpowder era but now he is transporting the action back to the age of swords and sandals of legionaries hoplites and war elephants These stand alone rules you don't need the first book follow the same principles that made the original popular streamlined game mechanics that are quick to learn and fast to play allowing the players to concentrate on making tactical decisions and having fun rather than constantly having to look up and decipher over complicated rules Card driven like the original no dice are required Although deceptively simple the rules capture plenty of period flavour and allow for everything from slingers to chariots and stampeding elephants There are sample force lists a points system for building any force across this whole period and a couple of sample scenarios The author explains his design choices and the logic behind the rules to make it easier for players to tweak them to suit their tastes and their specific armies or sub period He describes them as a toolkit not a set of hard and fast tournament rules and adaptation and customization of the rules is encouraged Fast and furious fun is the order of the day

In Her Majesty's Name Craig Cartmell, Charles Murton, 2013-05-20 It is 1895 and the world is in turmoil The Great Powers compete for resources and the latest technology and an undeclared and secret war rages between them all This is battleground of the Adventuring Companies These clandestine agents of the Great Powers operate in the shadows matching skills and wits in pursuit of the newest scientific formulae or powerful occult artifacts In Her Majesty's Name sets these adventuring companies against each other in one off encounters and in longer narrative campaigns Companies are usually comprised of just 4-15 figures and two players could easily play three games in an evening making an on going campaign a highly viable option In Her Majesty's Name has been designed to allow maximum versatility for the player if you can imagine it the system will help you build it There is however a wealth of material provided in the book covering weird science mystical powers and a range of pre generated adventuring companies including the British Explorers Club the Prussian Society of Thule the US Marine Corps the Legionnaire the revolutionaries of the Brick Lane Commune ancient Egyptian cults and the mysterious Black Dragon Tong
