Wright,Christina R. Pinkston,2022-01-28 Building on various feminist theories of ethos the authors in this collection explore how North American Catholic women from various periods races ethnicities sexualities and classes have used elements of the group s positionality to make change The women considered in the book range from the earliest Catholic sisters who arrived in the United States to women who held the Church hierarchy accountable for the sexual abuse scandals The book analyzes women such as those in an African American order who developed an ethos that would resist racism Chapters also consider better known Catholic women such as Dolores Huertas Mary Daly and Joan Chittister The Battle to Control Female Fertility in Modern Ireland Mary E. Daly,2023-05-25 The Irish battle for legal contraception was a contest over Irish exceptionalism the belief that Ireland could resist global trends despite the impact of second wave feminism falling fertility and a growing number of women travelling for abortion It became so lengthy and so divisive because it challenged key tenets of Irish identity Catholicism large families traditional gender roles and sexual puritanism The Catholic Church argued that legalising contraception would destroy this way of life and many citizens agreed The Battle to Control Female Fertility in Modern Ireland provides new insights on Irish masculinity and fertility control It highlights women s activism in both liberal and conservative camps and the consensus between the Catholic and Protestant churches views on contraception for single people It also shows how contraception and the Pro Life Amendment campaign affected policy towards Northern Ireland and it examines the role of health professionals showing how hospital governance prevented female sterilisation It is a story of gender religion social change and failing efforts to reaffirm Irish moral exceptionalism History of Woman Suffrage Elizabeth Cady Stanton,Susan Brownell Anthony,Matilda Joslyn Gage,1886 Communist Methods of Infiltration United States.
