More Than Words: The Making of the Macquarie Dictionary Pat Manser, 2021-02-23 The Editorial Committee of the dictionary of Australian English led by Arthur Delbridge were adamant that their dictionary was to be descriptive It was an important point of difference from traditional dictionary policy This dictionary would give an account of Australian English as it was heard and written We wanted it all spoken written technical polite rude The speech of labourers the jargon of merchants swearwords Australianisms as well as the basic core of English vocabulary The idea for a dictionary of Australian English was conceived in the 1960s but it wasn't until 1981 that the first edition of the Macquarie Dictionary was published More Than Words tells the story of how the dictionary was brought to life during this period from identifying the need for a genuinely Australian dictionary to the long road towards publication and explores how the dictionary has evolved over the years since then

Macquarie Student Writer's Friend David W. Lovell, 2001 Writing Essays and Reports Stephen McLaren, 2001 This book is your easy guide to preparing essays and reports for high school TAFE university or business setting up a timeline for writing essays and reports research techniques structuring your work clearly and effectively drafting editing and rewriting referencing other material in your work grammar punctuation and language issues Our Unswerving Loyalty David W. Lovell, Kevin Windle, 2008-08-01 The story of the Communist Party of Australia has been told in various ways Until now however archival collections that have borne on this story have been relatively inaccessible to the ordinary interested reader This book begins to redress that deficiency by bringing together 85 key documents from the Russian State Archives of Social and Political History RGASPI selected from a collection of thousands of documents concerning the relations between the Communist International and the Communist Party of Australia The selection focuses on the relationship between the CPA and the Comintern because the activities of the CPA are essentially incomprehensible without understanding the international communist context within which the CPA operated That context was dominated by the newly created Soviet state and its decision to authorize and utilize a network of communist parties throughout the world

Writing Home Glenn Morrison, 2017-01-30 Writing Home explores the literary representation of Australian places by those who have walked them In particular it examines how Aboriginal and settler narratives of walking have shaped portrayals of Australia's Red Centre and consequently ideas of nation and belonging Central Australia has long been characterised as a frontier the supposed divide between black and white ancient and modern But persistently representing it in this way is preventing Australians from reimagining this internationally significant region as home Writing Home argues that the frontier no longer adequately describes Central Australia and that the Aboriginal songlines make a significant but under acknowledged contribution to Australian discourses of hybridity belonging and home Drawing on anthropology cultural theory journalism politics and philosophy the book traces shifting perceptions of Australian place and space since precolonial times through six recounted walking journeys of the Red Centre Ishtar Louise M. Pryke, 2017-07-14 Ishtar is the first book dedicated to providing an accessible analysis of the mythology and image of this complex goddess The polarity of her nature is reflected in her role as goddess of sexual love and war and has made her difficult to characterise in modern scholarship By exploring this complexity Ishtar offers insight into Mesopotamian culture and thought and elucidates a goddess who transcended the limits of gender divinity and nature It gives an accessible introduction to the Near Eastern pantheon while also opening a pathway for comparison with the later Near Eastern and Mediterranean deities who followed her

Beyond Turkey's Borders Banu Senay, 2012-12-05 In an increasingly connected world the engagement of diasporic communities in transnationalism has become a potent force Instead of pointing to a post national era of globalised politics as one might expect Banu Senay argues that expanding global channels of communication have provided states with more scope to mobilise their nationals across borders Her case is built around the way in which the long reach of the proactive Turkish state maintains relations with its Australian diaspora to promote the official Kemalist ideology Activists invest themselves in the state to see both for and like the state and as such Turkish immigrants have been politicised and polarised along lines that reflect internal divisions and developments in Turkish politics This book explores the way in which the Turkish state injects its presence into everyday life through the work of its consular institutions its management of Turkish Islam and its sponsoring of national celebrations The result is a state engineered transnationalism that mobilises Turkish migrants and seeks to tie them to official discourse and policy Despite this individual Kemalist activists dissatisfied with the state's transnational work have appointed themselves as the true cultural attaches of the Turkish Republic It is the actions and discourses of these activists that give efficacy to trans Kemalism in the unique migratory context of Australian multiculturalism Vital to this engagement is its Australian backdrop where ethnic diversity policies facilitate the nationalising initiatives of the Turkish state as well as the bottom up activism of Atatürkists On the other hand it also complicates and challenges trans Kemalism by giving a platform to groups such as Kurds or Armenians whose identity politics clash with that of Turkish officialdom An original and insightful contribution on the scope of transnationalism and cross border mobilisation this book is a valuable resource for researchers of politics nationalism and international migration Life, Love and

Children Irina Pollard, 2012-12-06 Discussion of bioscience ethics requires understanding of the science that underpins biological systems impinging on our lives Unencumbered by the formal structure of ethics bioethics presents a forum for discussion of practical matters of individual and collective concern This comprehensive text is a guide to the essentials of bioscience ethics and an interface between applied science and applied bioethics Early chapters embrace topics affecting human reproduction substance abuse and parenthood aging gametes and congenital malformations child abuse and its biological consequences Intermediate chapters deal with end of life care and euthanasia human fertility assisted reproductive technologies genetic engineering and cloning Remaining chapters challenge human dominated ecosystems Population growth economic activity and warfare with its environmental consequences are reviewed A background section describes the evolution of ethical consciousness explores the future and proposes that the reworking of ethical boundaries can enhance mature decision making in harmony with changing technology

An End to Enmity L. L. Welborn, 2011-10-27 An End to Enmity casts light upon the shadowy figure of the wrongdoer of Second Corinthians by exploring the social and rhetorical conventions that governed friendship enmity and reconciliation in the Greco Roman world The book puts forward a novel hypothesis regarding the identity of the wrongdoer and the nature of his offence against Paul Drawing upon the prosopographic data of Paul s Corinthian epistles and the epigraphic and archaeological record of Roman Corinth the author shapes a robust image of the kind of individual who did Paul wrong and caused pain to both Paul and the Corinthians The concluding chapter reconstructs the history of Paul s relationship with an influential convert to Christianity at Corinth

Friendship Barbara Caine, 2014-09-11 There has been an increasing interest in the meaning and importance of friendship in recent years particularly in the West However the history of friendship and the ways in which it has changed over time have rarely been examined Friendship A History traces the development of friendship in Europe from the Hellenistic period to today The book brings together a range of essays that examine the language of friendship and its significance in terms of ethics social institutions religious organizations and political alliances The essays study the works of classical and contemporary authors to explore the role of friendship in Western philosophy Ranging from renaissance friendships to Christian and secular friendships and from women s writing to the role of class and sex in friendships Friendship A History will be invaluable to students and scholars of social history

Hannibal Lecter and Philosophy Joseph Westfall, 2015-12-15 Sixteen philosophers come at Hannibal the way he comes at his victims from unexpected angles and with plenty of surprises thrown in Hannibal is a revolting monster and yet a monster with whom we identify because of his intelligence artistry and personal magnetism The chapters in this book pose many questions and offer intriguing answers about the enigma of Hannibal Lecter What does the relationship between Hannibal and those who know him particularly FBI investigator Will Graham tell us about the nature of friendship and Hannibal s capacity for friendship Does Hannibal confer benefits on society by eliminating people who don t live up to his high aesthetic standards Can upsetting experiences in early childhood turn you into a serial killer Why are we enthralled by someone who exercises god like control over situations and people Does it make any difference morally that a killer eats his victims Can a murder be a work of art Several chapters look at the mind of this accomplished killer psychiatrist and gourmet cook Is he a sociopath or a psychopath or are these the same Is he lacking in empathy Apparently not since he has a quick understanding of what other people think and feel Maybe what he lacks is a conscience

The Somatechnics of Whiteness and Race Elaine Marie Carbonell Laforteza, 2016-03-09 Investigating the emergence of a specific mestiza mestizo whiteness that facilitates relations between the Philippines and Western nations this book examines the ways in which the construction of a particular form of Philippine whiteness serves to deploy positions of exclusion privilege and solidarity Through Filipino Filipino Australian and Filipino American experiences the author explores the operation of whiteness showing how a mixed race identity becomes the means through which racialised privileges authority and power are embodied in the Philippine context and examines the ways in which colonial and imperial technologies of the past frame contemporary practices such as skin bleaching the use of different languages discourses of bilateral relations secularism development and the movement of Filipino Australian and American bodies between and within nations Drawing on key ideas expressed in critical race and whiteness studies together with the theoretical concepts of somatechnics biopolitics and governmentality The Somatechnics of Whiteness and Race sheds light on the impact of colonial and imperial histories on contemporary international relations and calls for a queering or resignification of whiteness which acknowledges permutations of whiteness fostered within national boundaries as well as through various nation state alliances and fractures As such it will appeal to scholars of cultural studies sociology and politics with interests in whiteness postcolonialism and race
