Andrew Mangham, 2021-06-24 Offering an authoritative account of the relationship between literature and medicine between approximately 1800 and 1900 this volume brings together leading scholars in the field to provide a valuable overview of how two dynamic fields influenced and shaped each during a period of revolutionary change During the nineteenth century medicine was being redefined as a subject in which experimental methodologies could transform the healing art and was simultaneously branching off into new specialisms and subdivisions Questions addressed in this volume include the influence of physics on poetry the role of medical professionalism in fiction the cultural and literary representation of sanitation and the interdisciplinary nature of controversy and negligence Along with its sister publication Literature and Medicine in the Eighteenth Century this volume offers a major critical overview of the study of literature and medicine Identity, natural and human made worlds While the first volume of this series prioritizes public outward facing and activist work at the intersections of art and science this volume considers performances of localized concealed inexplicable or intimate phenomena from the closed door procedures of biomedical trials to the impacts of climate change Interdisciplinary science dialogues have long been shaped by the cultures and identity communities in which they arise and circulate The essays interviews and creative works included here not only expose the historical and contemporary harms created by exclusive and prejudicial processes in art and science they also contemplate how a diverse inclusive body of science performers might help deepen how we see the unseen forces of our universe contribute to novel scientific understandings and disrupt disciplinary hierarchies long dominated by white men of privilege This collection expands upon extant scholarship on theatre and science by foregrounding identity as a crucial thematic and representational element within past and present performances of science Featuring interviews with science integrative artists such as Lauren Gundersen The Half Life of Marie Curie and Kim TallBear Native American DNA as well as creative works by playwrights Chantal Bilodeau and Claudia Barnett among others
