Tonight At 8.30 Noël Coward,2013-10-16 Written as a vehicle for Coward s own acting talents alongside his frequent stage partner Gertrude Lawrence Tonight at 8 30 is Coward s ambitious series of ten one act plays which saw him breathe new life into the one act form First performed in London in 1936 the plays perfectly showcase Coward s talents as a playwright providing a sparkling fast paced and remarkably varied selection of theatrical gems All ten plays are collected together into this volume that features both Coward s own preface and an introduction by Barry Day editor of The Letters of N el Coward Coward wrote of the first series of three plays with characteristic delight They are all brilliantly written exquisitely directed and I am bewitching in all of them Gertrude Lawrence wrote to Coward in 1947 Dearest No l wherever I go all I hear is Please revive Tonight at 8 30 Tonight at 8 30 surprises as much as it delights as in some of the plays Coward takes us to a world far removed from that of the wealth and glamour of the debonair London socialites who dominated much of his earlier work But The Master s polish and sparkle are never far away as music and song intertwine with the wit and insight of one of our greatest ever playwrights Chichester Festival Theatre 2006 Coward Plays: 4 Noël Coward,2013-11-12 Volume Four of No l Coward s plays contains a selection of Coward s plays from the thirties and forties which includes Blithe Spirit a comedy that centres around the spirit medium Madame Arcati The play that mocks sudden death was produced at precisely the moment when bombs were bringing it to Britain I shall ever be grateful for the almost psychic gift that enabled me to write Blithe Spirit in five days during one of the darkest years of the war The play was for years the longest running comedy in the history of British theatre Present Laughter follows the life of Garry Essendine a world weary middle aged projection of the dilettante debonair persona self obsessed and dressing gowned who struts through the play like an educated peacock It is a comedy about the theatricals that No 1 best knew and loved and was originally a star vehicle for himself It is the closest to an autobiographical play that Coward ever wrote This Happy Breed is a saga of a lower middle class family and three shorter pieces from Tonight at 8 30 is a farce set in the South of France and serves as an oblique tribute to Frederick Lonsdale The Astonished Heart is about the decay of a psychiatrist's mind through personal sexual obsession Red Peppers which closes the volume was a cynical tribute to the lost music halls of the First World War
