revision and contestation Ann Jefferson examines the way in which biographically orientated texts have been engaged in questioning and revising definitions of literature At the same time she tracks the evolving forms of biographical writing in French culture and proposes a reappraisal of biography in terms not only of its forms but also of its functions Although Ann Jefferson s book has powerful theoretical implications for both biography and the literary it is first and foremost a history offering a comprehensive new account of the development of French literature through this dual focus on the question of literature and on the relations between literature and biography It offers original readings of major authors and texts in the light of these concerns beginning with Rousseau and ending with life writing contemporary authors such as Pierre Michon and Jacques Roubaud Other authors discussed include Mme de St el Victor Hugo Sainte Beuve Barbey d Aureville Baudelaire Nerval Mallarm Schwob Proust Gide Leiris Sartre Genet Barthes and Roger Laporte The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1904
