Fludernik presents a detailed analysis of free indirect discourse as it relates to narrative theory and the crucial problematic of how speech and thought are represented in fiction Building on the insights of Ann Banfield's Unspeakable Sentences Fludernik radically extends Banfield's model to accommodate evidence from conversational narrative non-fictional prose and literary works from Chaucer to the present Fludernik's model subsumes earlier insights into the forms and functions of quotation and aligns them with discourse strategies observable in the oral language Drawing on a vast range of literature she provides an invaluable resource for researchers in the field and introduces English readers to extensive work on the subject in German as well as comparing the free indirect discourse features of German French and English This study effectively repositions the whole area between literature and linguistics opening up a new set of questions in narrative theory

Mademoiselle De Maupin Théophile Gautier, 2015-07-04 Excerpt from Mademoiselle De Maupin A Romance of Love and Passion You complain old friend of the rarity of my letters What would you have me tell you besides the fact that I am in good health and that I still have the same affection for you These are facts you know perfectly well and they are so natural to my own age and the fine qualities you possess that it seems almost ridiculous to make a miserable bit of paper travel a hundred miles to convey nothing more I have sought in vain for I have nothing worth telling my life is the most uninteresting in the world and nothing occurs to break its monotony To day introduces to morrow just as yesterday ushered in to day and without being so fatuous as to call myself a prophet I can safely predict in the morning all that will happen to me in the evening About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Cultural Lives of Greyhounds John Stokes, 2025-02-07 This book aims to enhance our intellectual understanding of the relationship between human beings and domestic animals with a focus on a specific breed of dog the greyhound It combines literary criticism cultural history and the rapidly expanding field of human animal studies by tracing the creative representation of the greyhound from the earliest references in classical myth to multiple appearances in contemporary literature performance and the fine arts Each representation whether of hunter or racer of pet or predator is treated not simply as a stage in some inevitable humanitarian progression but as part of a series of co-evolutionary exchanges between humans and their canine collaborators that together constitute a shared experience Writers who have been fascinated by greyhounds range from Shakespeare to Dryden from William Wordsworth to George Meredith from Marcel Proust to Colette from William Butler Yeats to Ted Hughes and beyond The haunting image of the breed has inspired artists such as Dider Hogarth and Giacometti
