Madness Visible A Memoir Of War:

Madness Visible Janine di Giovanni, 2005-02-07 Superb war reporting which sits alongside that of Martha Gellhorn Fergal Keane and John Simpson AIDUCATION 20-10 TAKING CONTROL OF TB Dr. Edwin Mavunika Mapara, 2010-07-22 AIDS and TB the deadly two are public health concerns that have devastated the global village with Africa being grossly affected and accounting for more than 70% of the human tragedy There is no cure for AIDS there is a cure for TB Despite this very basic fact millions of people do not have the knowledge to prevent HIV infections that causes AIDS In the same vein more than two million people die every year due to TB alone and half a million due to TB combined with AIDS This book is about TB HIV infections and AIDS education AIDucation It is about empowering communities to prevent TB and HIV infections It is about caring for those living with TB HIV and AIDS This book is about taking control of TB which can lead to preventing new TB and HIV infections This is a true African story Traumascapes Maria M. Tumarkin, 2005-01-01 Traumascapes are a distinctive category of places transformed physically and psychically by suffering part of a scar tissue that stretches across the world Maria Tumarkin grew up in the old Soviet Union and emigrated to Australia as a teenager In 2004 she embarked on an international odyssey to investigate and write about major sites of violence and suffering Traumascapes is a powerful meditation on the places she visited Bali Berlin Manhattan Moscow Port Arthur Sarajevo and the field in Pennsylvania where the fourth plane involved in the attacks of September 11 2001 crashed In a time when terror and tragedy flourish these locations exhibit a compelling power drawing pilgrims and tourists from around the world who want to understand the meaning of the traumatic events that unfolded there In traumascapes life goes on but the past is still unfinished business Death and Burial in Socialist Yugoslavia Carol S. Lilly, 2024-02-08 Across the globe memorial and grave sites are being increasingly weaponized in conflicts and politicized by parties to advance agendas Here Carol S Lilly examines ideas of death politics memory ideology and nationalism in the former Yugoslav republics of Bosnia Hercegovina Croatia and Serbia to shine fresh light on cemetery culture in 20th century Europe More specifically Death and Burial in Socialist Yugoslavia argues that while the CPY created its own communities of the dead in postwar Partisan Cemeteries it failed to do the same for civilian cemeteries in ways that might reinforce its ideals of secularism pluralism and brotherhood and unity Moreover the communist regime left the previous system of ethno religious segregation in place further isolating Catholics Orthodox Muslims and Jews who continued to be buried in separate locations Finally it explicitly politicized burial rites and grave markers making cemeteries into legitimate spaces of political discourse As a result by the time Yugoslavia disintegrated in the early 1990s dead bodies and cemeteries had become a concerted weapon of war in the ongoing ethnic conflict Ultimately then this timely study reveals for the first time the extent to which the communist regime not only failed to created their own communities of the dead but also further divided and alienated living communities in Yugoslavia The Two-Minute Tune-Up Pam Boyd, 2012-03-27 Instead of getting out of bed and hoping today will be a good day you can choose the day you want to have You can control your own emotional response to the people and the things in your life In The Two Minute Tune Up author Pam Boyd provides a series of inspirational quotes messages and personal anecdotes to help you set a positive tone for every day for an entire year Boyd an international consultant and speaker shows how in less than two minutes each day you can overcome negative thoughts and feelings by reading the daily selection and taking a minute to reflect and apply its message to your circumstances Its about reclaiming personal power and regaining emotional dominance The Two Minute Tune Up serves as your daily port of renewal a place to recharge flip your switch from idle to full power and realign the wheels of your life

Music and Displacement Erik Levi, Florian Scheduling, 2010-03-25 The grand narratives of European music history are informed by the dichotomy of placements and displacements Yet musicology has thus far largely ignored the phenomenon of displacement and underestimated its significance for musical landscapes and music history Music and Displacement Diasporas Mobilities and Dislocations in Europe and Beyond constitutes a pioneering volume that aims to fill this gap as it explores the interactions between music and displacement in theoretical and practical terms Contributions by distinguished international scholars address the theme through a wide range of case studies incorporating art popular folk and jazz music and interacting with areas such as gender and post colonial studies critical theory migration and diaspora The book is structured in three stages silence acculturation and theory that move from silence to sound and from displacement to placement The range of subject matter within these sections is deliberately hybrid and mirrors the eclectic nature of displacement itself with case studies exploring Nazi Anti Semitism in musical displacement musical life in the Jewish community of Palestine Mahler Jewishness and Jazz the Irish Diaspora in England and German Exile studies among others Featuring articles from such scholars as Ruth F Davis Sean Campbell Jim Samson Sydney Hutchinson and Europea series co editor Philip V Bohlman the volume exerts an appeal reaching beyond music and musicology to embrace all areas in the humanities concerned with notions of displacement migration and diaspora

The Trauma Question Roger Luckhurst, 2013-06-17 In this book, Roger Luckhurst both introduces and advances the fields of cultural memory and trauma studies, tracing the ways in which ideas of trauma have become a major element in contemporary Western conceptions of the self. The Trauma Question outlines the origins of the concept of trauma across psychiatric, legal, and cultural-political sources from the 1860s to the coining of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder in 1980. It further explores the nature and extent of trauma culture from 1980 to the present, drawing upon a range of cultural practices from literature, memoirs, and confessional journalism through to photography and film. The study covers a diverse range of cultural works, including writers such as Toni Morrison, Stephen King, and W.G. Sebald; artists Tracey Emin, Christian Boltanski, and Tracey Moffatt; and film makers David Lynch and Atom Egoyan. The Trauma Question offers a significant and fascinating step forward for those seeking a greater understanding of the controversial and ever-expanding field of trauma research.

Kosovo, A Documentary History Robert Elsie, Bejtullah D. Destani, 2018-01-30 The question of Kosovan sovereignty and independence has a history which stretches far back beyond the outbreak of war in 1998 This volume is a compilation of key documents on Kosovo from the first half of the twentieth century These texts including numerous diplomatic despatches from the British Foreign Office deal initially with the Albanian uprising against Ottoman rule in the spring of 1912 and in particular with the period of the Serbian invasion of Kosovo in late 1912 and the repercussions of the conquest for the Albanian population The documents from 1918 to the early 1920s focus mainly on endeavours by Albanian leaders including those of the so called Kosovo Committee in exile to bring the plight of their people to the attention of the outside world endeavours which largely failed Further documents reflect the situation in Kosovo up to the outbreak of World War II This collection provides new perspectives on the Kosovo question and includes many documents which have been largely unavailable up to now It sheds new light on many of the major and minor episodes that channelled and determined subsequent events including the Kosovo War of 1998 1999 and the declaration of independence in February 2008

Trauma Journalism Mark H. Massé, 2011-10-06 The role of journalists in covering trauma and tragedy isn't new Witnessing acts of violence destruction and terror has long been the professional responsibility of countless print and broadcast reporters and photographers But what is new is a growing awareness of the emotional consequences of such coverage on the victims their families and loved ones their communities and on the journalists whose job it is to tell these stories Trauma Journalism personalizes this movement with in depth profiles of reporters researchers and trauma experts engaged in an international effort to transform how the media work under the most difficult of conditions Through biographical sketches concerning several significant traumatic events Oklahoma City bombing Columbine school tragedy 9 11 Iraq War the South Asian tsunami Hurricane Katrina students and working reporters will gain insights into the critical components of contemporary journalism practices affecting news judgment news gathering techniques as well as legal and ethical issues Trauma Journalism calls for the creation through ongoing education of a culture of caring among journalists worldwide

Captivity, Forced Labour and Forced Migration in Europe during the First World War Matthew Stibbe, 2013-09-13 The notion of the First World War as the great seminal catastrophe Urkatastrophe of the twentieth century is now firmly established in historiography Yet astonishingly little has been written about the fate of non combatants in occupied and non occupied territory including civilian internees deportees expellees and disarmed military prisoners This volume brings together experts from across Europe to consider the phenomena of captivity forced labour and forced migration during and immediately after the years 1914 to 1918 Each contribution offers a European wide perspective thus moving beyond interpretations based on narrow national frameworks or on one of the fighting fronts alone Particular emphasis is placed on the way in which the experience of internees forced labourers and expellees was mediated by specific situational factors and by the development of war cultures and mentalities at different stages in the respective war efforts Other themes considered include the recruitment and deployment of colonial troops in Europe and efforts to investigate monitor and prosecute alleged war crimes in relation to the mistreatment of civilians and POWs The final contribution will then consider the problems associated with repatriation and the reintegration of returning prisoners after the war This book was published as a special issue of Immigrants and Minorities Parameters ,2004 Bosnian Studies Dzeneta Karabegovic,Adna Karamehic-Oates,2023-01-30 It has been 27 years since the end of the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the history of the conflict its consequences and long term implications for the politics and lives of its citizens has remained a source of interest for scholars across the globe and across disciplines This scholarship has included works by historians and political scientists seeking to explain the war s origins with a view to Bosnia s traditional multi ethnic character and background The country has been used as a case study in state and peace building as well as to study the implications of ongoing transitional justice processes Other scholars within the fields of human rights and genocide studies have focused on documenting the war crimes committed against the people of Bosnia and Herzegovina during the conflict and the mass scale displacement of people mostly Bosnian Muslims from their homes and homelands International law scholars have carried this work further tracing the development of courts created in response to war crimes in Bosnia and their effectiveness in generating justice for victims Diaspora communities have formed in North America especially in St Louis Europe and Australia because of war and displacement and have themselves become a considerable topic of study spanning the disciplines of anthropology migration studies political science memory studies conflict and security studies psychology and geography This volume seeks to illuminate how Bosnian migrant and diaspora scholars are contributing to the development of Bosnian Studies The authors included in this volume are either writing from their new home bases in Australia Austria Canada Switzerland the United Kingdom and the United States among others or they have returned to Bosnia after a period of migration Their chapters have distinct entry points of inquiry demonstrating how scholars have integrated Bosnia as a theme across the range of disciplines in which they are situated The selections included in the volume range from literary analysis to personal memoirs of the conflict from studies of heritage and identity to political science analysis of diaspora voting to genocide studies and questions of or lack of ethics in the growing field of Bosnian Studies
