Paradise Lizzie Johnson, 2022-08-16 A cautionary tale for a new era of megafires Paradise is the gripping true story of a town wiped off the map and the determination of its people to rise again The inspiration for the Apple Original Film The Lost Bus starring Matthew McConaughey and America Ferrera A tour de force story of wildfire and a terrifying look at what lies ahead San Francisco Chronicle Best Books of the Year On November 8 2018 the people of Paradise California awoke to a mottled gray sky and gusty winds Soon the Camp Fire was upon them gobbling an acre a second Less than two hours after the fire ignited the town was engulfed in flames the residents trapped in their homes and cars By the next morning eighty five people were dead As a reporter for the San Francisco Chronicle Lizzie Johnson was there as the town of Paradise burned She saw the smoldering rubble of a historic covered bridge and the beloved Black Bear Diner and she stayed long afterward visiting shelters hotels and makeshift camps Drawing on years of on the ground reporting and reams of public records including 911 calls and testimony from a grand jury investigation Johnson provides a minute by minute account of the Camp Fire following residents and first responders as they fight to save themselves and their town We see a young mother fleeing with her newborn a school bus full of children in search of an escape route and a group of paramedics patients and nurses trapped in a cul de sac fending off the fire with rakes and hoses In Paradise Johnson documents the unfolding tragedy with empathy and nuance But she also investigates the root causes from runaway climate change to a deeply flawed alert system to Pacific Gas and Electric s decades long neglect of critical infrastructure The definitive firsthand account of the nation s deadliest wildfire in a century Paradise is a riveting examination of what went wrong and how to avert future tragedies
