

STITCHES

Twice they opened me and twice, after sewing me shut, they said the thread would dissolve, they said my body would dissolve the thread. But see how frugal I've become, saving every stitch for future alterations and repairs.

Any woman with my blood saves—is a saver. When given one sheet of paper, my daughter cuts out the heart she wants and keeps the scraps for stars, snowflakes, flowers. Twice they cut babies from my body, but the body remains.

See how nothing is wasted.

The more they cut, the more I have.
