The Kurdish Issue in Turkey Zeynep Gambetti, Joost Jongerden, 2015-04-10 This volume gives a thorough and comprehensive analysis of the Kurdish issue in Turkey from a spatial perspective that takes into account geographical variations in identity formation exclusion and political mobilisation Although analysis of Turkey's Kurdish issue from a spatial perspective is not new spatial analyses are still relatively scarce More often than not Kurdish studies consist of time centred work In this book the attention is shifted from outcome oriented analysis of transformation in time towards a spatial analysis The authors in this book discuss the spatial production of home identity work in short of being in the world The contributions are based on the tacit avowal that the Kurdish question in addition to being a question of group rights is also one of spatial relations By asking a different set of questions this book examines which spatial strategies have been employed to deal with Kurds Which spatial strategies are developed by Kurds to deal with state and with the neo liberal turn How are these strategies absorbed and what counter strategies are developed both in cities populated by the Kurds in south eastern Turkey and in other regions Emphasizing that identity or place its particularity or uniqueness arises from social practices and social relations this book is essential reading for scholars and researchers working in Kurdish and Turkish Studies Urban and Rural Studies and Politics more broadly

Visits to Monasteries in the Levant ... With numerous woodcuts Robert CURZON (Baron Zouche.),1865 History of the Condemnation of the Patriarch Nikon Paisius Ligarides,2010-10-31 An 1873 translation of a polemical account of the conflict between Tsar Alexis and Patriarch Nikon in seventeenth century Russia Buddhism in the Sung Daniel A. Getz,Peter N. Gregory,2002-10-31 New paperback edition The Sung Dynasty 960 1279 has long been recognized as a major watershed in Chinese history Although there are recent major monographs on Sung society government literature Confucian thought and popular religion the contribution of Buddhism to Sung social and cultural life has been all but ignored Indeed the study of Buddhism during the Sung has lagged behind that of other periods of Chinese history One reason for the neglect of this important aspect of Sung society is undoubtedly the tenacity of the view that the Sung marked the beginning of an inexorable decline of Buddhism in China that extended down through the remainder of the imperial era As this book attests however new research suggests that far from signaling a decline the Sung was a period of great efflorescence in Buddhism This volume is the first extended scholarly treatment of Buddhism in the Sung to be published in a Western language It focuses largely on elite figures elite traditions and interactions among Buddhists and literati although some of the book's essays touch on ways in which elite traditions both responded to and helped shape more popular forms of lay practice and piety All of the chapters in one way or another deal with the two most important elite traditions within Sung Buddhism Chan and Tien tai Whereas most previous discussions of Buddhism in the Sung have tended to concentrate on Chan the present volume is notable for giving Tien tai its due By presenting a broader and more contextualized picture of these two traditions as they developed in the Sung this work amply reveals the vitality of Buddhism in the Sung as well as its embeddedness in the social and intellectual life of the time

Waiting at the Mountain Pass Harmandeep Kaur Gill, 2025-03-25 An intimate meditation on aging and dying in exile among elderly Tibetans in Dharamsala India In a Tibetan saying the journey of life is likened to a climb up to a mountain pass Upon reaching it the journey concludes and one must cross over into death and the next rebirth The impermanence of life described by the Buddha as the nature of reality crystallizes at the mountain pass manifesting itself through the painful and arduous descent ahead and a series of sufferings In this book Harmandeep Kaur Gill offers an intimate meditation on the last part of the journey at the mountain pass through closely drawn portraits of elderly exiled Tibetans who aged in Dharamsala India far away from their beloved homeland of Tibet and often alone in the absence of family In Gill's work the mountain pass represents a borderland an in-between world where the elderly found themselves living at the crossroad between life and death belonging fully to neither of them It was a time-space where everyday life traversed between past and present in darkness and light and in dream and reality as the elderly attempted to come to terms with the realities of their old age By placing relational entanglements and sensations at the heart of its theorization Waiting at the Mountain Pass foregrounds an embodied knowing that is care-ful hesitant and unresolved in its claims Aiming to bridge the gap between ethics and epistemology Gill invites the reader to see and listen in a relational and imaginative way where the other reflects back upon the self making the assumed separations between subject and object blurry and unsettling Through meditations on the interrelations of body and mind society and individual and the real and the imagined Waiting at the Mountain Pass provides a sensorial and compassionate understanding of the singularities of life and death in a Tibetan Buddhist world in exile

Modern Sons of the Pharaohs Simon Henry Leeder, 1918 This interesting study of the Copts deserves attention The Copts are the descendants of the ancient Egyptians though many of them show a strain of Syrian or Jewish blood and the Coptic church preserves in a somewhat debased form the primitive Christianity of the fourth century when it parted from Rome and Constantinople Through the ages the Copts have preserved their faith and their customs they form about a tenth of the population of Egypt and play a leading part in commerce This study of the manners and customs of the Copts is notable for its comprehensive and scholarly handling of the subject for grace of style and rich descriptive backgrounds A Visit to Monasteries in the Levant Robert Curzon, 1849 The Limbourg Brothers Rob Dückers, Pieter Roelofs, 2009-03-25 Although the Nijmegen artists Herman Paul and Jean de Limbourg were barely thirty years old when they suddenly died in 1416 they already had a formidable career behind them Now almost six hundred years after their creation the colourful and highly refined miniatures in the Belles Heures and Tr s Riches Heures du Duc de Berry still speak vividly to our imagination In 2005 Museum Het Valkhof in Nijmegen presented the exhibition The Limbourg Brothers Nijmegen Masters at the French Court 1400 1416 This was the first time that original miniatures from four manuscripts by the Limbourg brothers were shown in the Netherlands The exhibition formed an excellent opportunity to invite prominent scholars to share their views on the art of the Limbourg brothers during a two day conference This publication presents in written form the conference papers delivered by some of the leading scholars in the field In that respect the volume acts as an addendum to the catalogue Contributors are Hanneke van Asperen Gregory T Clark Herman Th Colenbrander Rob D ckers Eberhard K nig Margaret Lawson Stephen Perkinson Pieter Roelofs and Victor M Schmidt Calendar of Entries in the Papal Registers Relating to Great Britain and Ireland Catholic Church.
