Money For Graduate Students In The Social Sciences 1996-1998 Biennial:

Money for Graduate Students in the Sciences 1996-1998 Gail A. Schlachter, R. David Weber, 1996-07 If you're looking for graduate funding in the sciences this is the directory to use. Described here are more than 1,200 fellowships, loans, grants, and awards set aside just for students interested in working on a master's or doctoral degree in agricultural sciences, astronomy, biology, chemistry, computer science, dentistry, engineering, environmental sciences, geology, genetics, mathematics, medicine, nursing, nutrition, pharmacology, physics, technology, zoology, or any other scientific field. Here is a sample of the kinds of funding covered in the 1996-1998 edition of Money for Graduate Students in the Sciences: 16,000 per year for graduate study or research in the space sciences; up to 21,000 annually for dissertation research in lung disease; tuition and 13,250 annually for doctoral study in the physical sciences; full tuition and 14,000 per year for graduate research in math; 10,000 for graduate research on critical care nursing; and 10,000 for students working on a graduate degree related to water supply. You'll find it easy to use the directory. Each program is clearly described with detailed information given on purpose, eligibility, requirements, financial data, duration, special features, limitations, number awarded, and deadline date. Entries are grouped by level: master's and doctoral, and purpose: research or study, so you can zero in on just the kind of aid you need. You'll even find the same convenience in the indexes where title, organization, geographic coverage, subject, and deadline date entries are subdivided by both level and type of program. This directory is part of a unique three-volume series published by Reference Service Press that describes funding available to support graduate study and research. The other volumes cover the humanities and the social sciences. Each volume may be purchased separately. Financial Aid for Asian Americans, 1997-1999 Gail A. Schlachter, R. David Weber, 1997-05 This is the source to use if you are looking for financial aid for Asian Americans. Described here are more than 1,500 funding opportunities open to Chinese Americans, Japanese Americans, Korean Americans, Vietnamese Americans, Filipinos, and other Americans of Asian ancestry. Each program entry gives you everything you need to tell if a program is right for you: contact information including fax, e-mail, and toll-free numbers; purpose; eligibility; financial data; duration; special features; limitations; number awarded; and deadline date. Plus there's an annotated bibliography of other important directories and a set of six indexes. Issued as part of the Minority Funding Set, see page 4. This directory can be purchased separately or as part of the set. Financial Aid for African Americans, 1997

Financial Aid for Native Americans, 1997 Financial Aid for Hispanic Americans, 1997-1999 Gail A. Schlachter, R. David Weber, 1997 Describes over 1,400 funding opportunities available to Hispanic Americans from high school through professional level for education, research, travel, training, career development, or innovative effort, arranged alphabetically within six categories. Financial Aid for the Disabled and Their Families, 1996-1998 Reference Service Press, Gail A. Schlachter, R. David Weber, 1996-03 Millions of dollars in financial aid have been set aside for America's largest minority: the 43 million Americans with disabilities and members of their families. In fact, more money is available today than ever before.

This funding is open to applicants at any level high school through postdoctorate professional for study research travel training career development emergencies assistive technology specially adapted housing and many other purposes There is only one publication that can put information about these funds at your finger tips the 1996 1998 edition of Financial Aid for the Disabled and Their Families Here are some of the 900 funding programs you will find described in this directory up to 10 000 a year for blind undergraduate or graduate students up to 42 500 in home improvement loans 2 000 a year to undergraduates with an immune deficiency disease 5 000 to performing musicians who are physically challenged up to 500 000 in loans for the disabled to operate small businesses 3 200 to purchase computers or other assistive equipment You also get a list of state sources of benefits including vocational rehabilitation offices an annotated bibliography of 60 key directories that can lead you to even more financial aid opportunities and a set of indexes that let you search the directory by program title sponsoring organization geographic coverage subject field and application deadline This directory was chosen as one of the outstanding reference books of the year by the New York Public Library which praised Reference Service Press for its excellent contribution in an area of publishing where quality is at a premium
