Monitoring the Quality of Education in Schools Vanessa Scherman,Roel J. Bosker,Sarah J. Howie,2016-12-27 The monitoring of quality has been part of the educational landscape for many decades Originally the need to monitor arose as part of an economic process whereby policy makers wanted to discern the return on investment in education This bottom line thinking while still prominent has receded into the background in light of global changes and the emergence of a global economy Now in addition to the question what is the return on investment the more important question is are the students in schools ready to participate in the economy of a 21st century society This is underpinned by the inquiry into what knowledge and competencies are required for students to participate meaningfully in nation building This inquiry can only be undertaken by means of monitoring evaluating where the students are and what is required so that students reach their potential In an ever changing technologically oriented world the manner in which competencies and knowledge are identified and how these need to be measured and identified is important In this book the theory and practice of underpinning the monitoring of the quality of education is described This is followed by a number of practical examples in the form of country case studies on how theory plays out in practice The book further provides common themes across developed and developing emerging economies underscoring the need for approaches which are locally relevant but internationally transferable

International Handbook of School Effectiveness and Improvement Tony Townsend,2007-08-01 This book reviews of the development implementation and practice of the disciplines of school effectiveness and school improvement Seven main topics are addressed History of the school effectiveness movement over the last 25 years Changes in accountability and standards Leadership in school effectiveness Changes in teacher education Impact of Diverse Populations Education Funding and its Impact and Best Practice Case Studies The contributors are active in school effectiveness research worldwide

Equity and Quality Dimensions in Educational Effectiveness Leonidas Kyriakides,Bert Creemers,Evi Charalambous,2018-01-03 This book aims to make a contribution to the theory research and practice on quality and equity in education by providing a comprehensive overview of these two dimensions of educational effectiveness and proposing a methodological instrument that may be used to measure the contribution that each school can make to promoting equity The importance of using this instrument is demonstrated by analysing results of various effectiveness studies conducted over the last decade The book draws upon research across the world especially research conducted in the Europe the United States and Australasia It is shown that promoting equity has no negative effect on the promotion of quality The importance of using this methodological instrument to identify factors that promote both quality and equity at different educational levels i e teacher school and educational system is stressed The book also demonstrates how we can measure stability and changes in the effectiveness status of schools over time in terms of fostering quality and equity In addition it underlines the importance of identifying factors measuring changes in the effectiveness status of schools in terms of equity and points to the alternative strategies that can be used at school and system level In our attempt to encourage the further development and use of this methodology for school improvement purposes we demonstrate how experimental studies can be conducted to discover whether and under which conditions the proposed methodology can help schools promote both quality and equity Finally implications for school evaluation research educational policy and practice are drawn In this way the book contributes significantly to the debate on how quality and equity can be achieved and encourages policy makers and practitioners not to view these two dimensions of effectiveness as being in competition with each other but as constituting the major objectives of any reform policy and or improvement effort at school and or national levels

School Improvement Through Performance Feedback A.J. Visscher, R. Coe, 2013-10-08 Internationally there is an increasing trend to publish and feed back information to schools and teachers on their functioning School improvement is often the central goal though accountability and the promotion of parental student school choice also play an important role Practical initiatives and research in this field have often failed to recognize the full complexity of improving schools through school performance feedback Relevant questions are for example to what extent the information fed back to schools is valued and understood by them the school performance feedback enables appropriate diagnosis and remediation to take place in schools the use of the feedback generates conflicts and tensions for teachers and administrators the features of the implementation process and school organization influence the utilization of school performance feedback systems schools do actually improve as a result of performance feedback and the feedback systems have unintended effects This book fills the gap by including a thorough conceptualization of school feedback as a performance enhancing mechanism and the prerequisites for utilizing this information in schools a typology of school performance indicators a review of the research on the impact of feeding back performance information to individuals and to organizations evidence on the process problems and impact of school performance feedback from an international variety of contexts Australia the Netherlands United Kingdom USA and reflections on these experiences within the theoretical framework leading to recommended strategies for school improvement through performance feedback

Monitoring Educational Performance in the Caribbean Emanuela Di Gropello, 2003-01-01 This study represents a first attempt of providing a comprehensive quantification of educational outcomes in the Caribbean region Its main objectives are a to define a set of operationally relevant education indicators b to provide a database of comparable education indicators in Caribbean countries where data is available namely Belize Dominica Dominican Republic Grenada Guyana Jamaica St Kitts and Nevis St Lucia St Vincent and the Grenadines and Trinidad and Tobago and c to propose methods on how the common set of indicators can be used for analyses of the education sectors This exercise is all the more important within the framework of the current Education For All EFA and Millenium Development Goals MDGs initiatives which require the identification and monitoring of relevant indicators to establish where the countries stand in relation to the target of universal primary education After a systematic review of educational indicators in coverage efficiency and quality which leads to specific recommendations on the type of indicator relevant to operational diagnostics of the education sectors the study provides a detailed review of the Caribbean status in producing education indicators and demonstrates how a new database can be used to depict where the education sectors stand Building on these methods and findings its final section presents a set of specific recommendations to the Caribbean countries on how to improve the diagnostics of their education sectors Integrating Educational Systems for Successful Reform in Diverse Contexts Amanda Datnow,Sue Lasky,Sam Stringfield,Charles Teddlie,2006-07-24 Linguistic ethnic and economic diversity is a major factor influencing how school reform ought to be accomplished at local state and government levels This book examines the issue of successful school reform in diverse communities It is the first to synthesize research on educational research on educational reform pertaining to racially and linguistically diverse students It examines what is needed at the teacher school district state and federal levels for educational reform to be successful in multicultural multilingual settings Conclusions are based on a careful review of hundreds of recent quantitative and qualitative studies relating to educational reform in diverse communities The authors conceptualize education as an interconnected and interdependent policy system and discuss the key policy relational political and resource linkages that assist in achieving sustainable improvement in schools serving at risk students Managing International Schools Sonia Blandford,2004-06-02 It is estimated that there are some 12 000 international schools world wide with over 25 000 middle managers and head teachers Within this there are several different types of international school including British schools abroad English speaking schools overseas European English speaking schools and forces schools in spite of some differences they and their managers share certain needs for administrative efficiency This practice based management book for international schools provides support and development for middle and senior managers and teachers The book concentrates on school improvement and effectiveness by drawing on best practice from international schools around the world using school based research It is written by a team from the Oxford Brookes Centre for Educational Management OXCEM the UK s most active International Schools consultancy service Issues discussed include teaching learning and the curriculum primary and secondary curriculum development recording and reporting assessment English as a second language school management and staff development Getting it Right for Boys ... and Girls Wendy Bradford,Colin Noble,2002-01-04 Boys underachievement is grabbing headlines in the education debate and it has never been more important to solve the problem This book offers clear and practical strategies to headteachers classroom teachers and other professionals for ways to address the issue The book looks at reasons for boys underachievement ways of adapting teaching styles to maximise learning gains for boys and girls guidance on how to plan successful pyramid whole school and classroom approaches practical strategies for subject leaders and teachers examples of successful case studies After introductory chapters examining whole school issues and strategies there are further subject specific chapters that advise on particular teaching approaches Undemocratic Schooling John Polesel, Richard Teese, 2013-01-14 Half the boys living in working class suburbs to the west and north of Melbourne fail mathematics Why Why are so many young people leaving school early when there are no jobs for them to go to Are boys disadvantaged at school in comparison with girls What makes good schools work Is the best university one that attracts the top students or one that offers the best chances for lower achieving students This groundbreaking book is based on the largest social survey of secondary education ever undertaken in Australia It presents a comprehensive picture of who succeeds and who fails at school Undemocratic Schooling brings together a unique range of information on who our students are what they want from school how well they think their schools work what subjects they study how well they succeed and where they end up It also reveals their larger views on matters such as jobs careers marriage and family the political system and social justice In its imaginative presentation of the findings of this massive survey this book sheds new light on inequalities in our education system It reveals significant new information on students achievements in relation to their attitudes and values students perspectives on issues from jobs to discrimination students destinations in relation to their backgrounds The authors offer valuable angles on such topical issues as retention and dropout rates the relation between poverty and achievement the gender debate private versus public schools and which universities serve which social groups What Works? Nutley, Sandra M., Peter C. Smith, Davies, Huw T.O., 2000-07-19 An exploration of how the knowledge gained from research is used to improve the effectiveness of public policy formation and public service delivery It covers eight areas of public service health education criminal justice social policy transport urban policy housing and social care Education in the Structure of the Social and Investment Model of Economic Growth: Scenarios of Development and Mechanisms of Management Elena G. Popkova, 2024-08-12 The importance of the formation of a socially oriented market economy grew due to the adoption of the global goals in the sphere of sustainable development For practical implementation of this idea in the modern economic systems there s a necessity for a new social and investment model of economic growth The essence and the main difference of this model from the traditional model of economic growth are the sources of growth are social investments investments in humans and an increase in the population s quality of life
